DEAR PEOPLE OF GOD: This Monday, March 25th, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Annunciation, which is one of my favorite celebrations due to the great example given to us by Mary, who was about 12-years old at the time of the Angel Gabriel's visit to her. The celebration of the Annunciation also reveals much about God and God's respect for us. God didn't force, coerce or manipulate Mary into giving the Angel Gabriel a fair hearing. No, God respected Mary's freedom, just as God respects ours. Force, coercion and manipulation is not of God. God, through Gabriel, gently and graciously approached Mary and encouraged her inquisitiveness, just as God does with us. Through her listening and reflecting, then through her questioning and being attentive to the Angel's response, Mary gives us great example. Because she avoided acting and speaking rashly, Mary was able to get through her initial fear and was able to focus on and respond attentively to the Angel Gabriel as he directed Mary's attention to God's will, concluding his dialogue with these words: "for nothing is impossible for God." Fear often arises when things happen to us that exceed our control. So often, our natural human response in these types of situations is to exert time and energy in an effort to regain "power and control". The Annunciation is a reminder that God is the true power and that our true power resides in discerning God's will and freely choosing to cooperate with it, much like Mary. Those who trust in the power of God are able to say, like Mary: "May it be done to me according to your (God's) word."

This Lenten Season, may our prayer, fasting and almsgiving guide us to God's will. And, much like Mary, may we accept, embrace and do our best to live God's will, always keeping these words from Saint Francis de Sales in mind: "The same Everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day of your life. Either He will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts."

Concentrarse en lo que Importa

DE LA MANO de las lecturas de este domingo llegamos a mitad del camino entre el pasado y el futuro; es decir, nos ponemos en presente; o, mejor dicho, la palabra de Dios nos invita a que analicemos el "aquí y ahora" con toda habia sucedido iban mas preocupados por enterarse del chisme que por aprender la lección. Jesús, que lee los corazones, se de cuenta y se los dice a la cara. En vez de indagar en la vida de los demos para ver quien fue mas pecador, procuremos estar preparados espiritualmente por si nos sorprende la muerte. El secreto la Cuaresma es aprovechar la oportunidad y centrarnos. Otro ejemplo: Moisés se acerco a la zarza porque le llamo la atención el fenómeno extraño, pero supo concentrarse el lo que importa: la voz de Dios. Se imaginan que, en mitad de tan importante revelación de Dios, Moisés hubiera estado pendiente solamente de que la zarza no se consumía? Esa es la tentación. Porque es mas sencillo fijarnos en el milagrito que escuchar a Dios dándonos una misión. Esta es una dinámica demasiado habitual. Asi no se puede. Es por eso que nos va mal. En lugar de concentrarnos en lo que importa, nos preocupamos mas de los detalles inútiles. Cuantas peleas comienzan con un "tu me dijiste, yo no te dije"! Nos ocupamos demasiado de cosas menos importantes, posiblemente porque nos asusta profundizar. También en Cuaresma estamos mas atentos a no comer carne los viernes que a sacrificarnos en cosas que verdaderamente nos cuestan. Hacer examen de conciencia (mirar al pasado) no es simplemente hacer la lista de los errores cometidos; es, ante todo, reconocer de donde vengo y porque estoy donde estoy (espiritualmente) y así poder corregir hacia donde voy (mirar al futuro). De poco nos sirve confesar todos los pecados (mirar al pasado) sin un propósito de enmienda (mirar al futuro). Si meditamos la palabra de Dios cada semana (para eso nos ayuda este libro), es porque sabemos la importancia de la tarea, y porque aceptamos la misión que el Señor nos ha entregado de escuchar, meditar, profundizar, agradecer y celebrar. Es decir, porque nos concentramos en lo que importa.
