Una oración por el día de la madre

Señor, hoy te agradecemos por nuestras madres: las que nos dieron la vida, las que nos eligieron a través de la adopción y las madres no oficiales que fueron una presencia fuerte y compasiva en nuestras vidas cuando nuestras madres biológicas no estaban a la altura de la tarea.

Recordamos el amor desinteresado con el que nos cuidaban cuando éramos más vulnerables, las lágrimas que secaban y los temores que calmaban cuando estábamos preocupados, el aliento que ofrecían cuando teníamos poca fe en nuestras propias habilidades, la orientación que proporcionaban cuando se sintió perdido, el sueño perdido y las preocupaciones que soportaron cuando estábamos enfermos o simplemente creciendo, la fuerza necesaria para mantenernos cerca, sin embargo, nos dejó volar.

No todas nuestras madres estuvieron a la altura del ideal de la paternidad debido a malas decisiones o circunstancias fuera de su control. Hoy también oramos por ellos. Tócalos con tu gracia y sabiduría curativas. Y si llevamos en nuestros corazones alguna amargura o resentimiento persistentes acerca de sus defectos, tócenos también con su gracia y sabiduría para que podamos avanzar hacia un futuro más brillante en lugar de permanecer atrapados en un pasado oscuro.

Oramos para que nuestras madres que ya no están con nosotros sean abrazadas por Tu amor en la próxima vida. Oramos para que las futuras madres, futuras madres y nuevas madres Experimente las alegrías que se obtienen al poner las necesidades de un niño por encima de las suyas, incluso cuando los sacrificios parecen ser desafiantes. Oramos para que nuestras madres que aún viven experimenten su amor perdurable y siempre presente a través de la apreciación y gratitud que nosotros, sus hijos, les mostramos no solo en este Día de la Madre, sino durante todo el año. En unión con María, nuestra madre espiritual a quien siempre podemos acudir en busca de ayuda y orientación, le pedimos sus generosas bendiciones.

Amén

Why is May "Mary's Month"?

This is why May is dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Among Catholics, May is most well-known as "Mary's Month," a specific month of the year when special devotions are performed in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Why is that? How did May become associated with the Blessed Mother?

There are many different factors that contributed to this association. First of all, in ancient Greece and Rome the month of May was dedicated to pagan goddesses connected to fertility and springtime (Artemis and Flora, respectively). This, combined with other European rituals commemorating the new season of spring, led many Western cultures to view May as a month of life and motherhood. This was long before "Mother's Day" was ever conceived, though the modern celebration is closely related to this innate desire to honor maternity during the spring months.

In the early Church there is evidence of a major feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary celebrated on the 15th of May each year, but it wasn't until the 18th century that May received a particular association with the Virgin Mary. Dedicating an entire month to Mary wasn't a new tradition, as there existed a prior tradition of devoting 30 days to Mary called Tricesimum, which was also known as "Lady Month."

Various private devotions to Mary quickly became widespread during the month of May, as it is recorded in the Raccolta, a publication of prayers published in the mid-19th century.

In 1945, Pope Pius XII solidified May as a Marian month after establishing the feast of the Queenship of Mary on May 31st. After the Second Vatican Council, this feast was moved to August 22, while May 31st became the feast of the Visitation of Mary.

Many saints have attested to the fact that the closer a person gets to Mary, the closer they are drawn to Jesus Christ. Our love of Mary, by default, increases our love of God.

As St. John Paul II wrote, "The history of Christian piety teaches that Mary is the way which leads to Christ and that filial devotion to her takes nothing from intimacy with Jesus; indeed, it increases it and leads to the highest levels of perfection."

The month of May is one rich in tradition and a beautiful time of the year to honor our heavenly mother.
