The Baptism of the Lord Jesus Christ (Jan- 12)

Today is the celebration of the Lord's Baptism. It equally marks the end of Christmas season, Year A. The Lord's Baptism is providentially situated at the beginning of the year. It celebrates God's gratuitous call to us to belong to his flock. It is a way of reminding us of who we are. That is, members of God's great family, through our baptism in Christ.

According to Catholic Catechism, "Baptism cleans us from Original Sin, and makes us children of God (CCC 1213)." Therefore, today it is very important for us to reflect on our own baptism. This is especially, on how faithful we have been in keeping our baptismal vows. Are we still saying, "I do" to questions like: "Do you reject Satan? Do you reject sin? Do you believe in one God and one Holy Catholic Church? Do you believe in Jesus Christ the only begotten son of God?" How faithful have we been to these vows?

In today's gospel, although Jesus was greater than John the Baptist, He allowed John to baptize Him. The most important lesson here is that Jesus tried to underscore the importance of baptism to our redemption and life as Christians. It is not a "mere sign." Rather, it is a sacrament which leaves an indelible mark on the receiver. This is the sign or mark which God sees and testifies: "This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased!"

By allowing himself to be baptized, Christ manifested his full humanity. In other words, he shows us to what extent he fully identifies with us. Ordinarily, baptism was not necessary for Jesus because "he was like us in all things, except sin" (Heb 4, 15). He was not affected in any way by Original Sin. However, his baptism as he insisted was: "to fulfill all that righteousness demands." It is a sign that Christ was ready to go through any ordeal for our salvation. That which He was to seal with his blood on the cross, he initiated through the water of baptism today. Through his baptism, he sanctified the water of our own baptism.

Therefore, today the church calls us to renew our baptismal vows to God. This is important so that this year, God may continue to say of us: "This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased."

La fiesta del Bautismo del Señor (Jan -12)

Hoy es la fiesta del bautismo del Señor. Igualmente marca el final de la temporada de Navidad, año A. Bautismo del Señor providencialmente se encuentra al principio del año. Celebra la llamada gratuita de Dios a nosotros de pertenecer a su rebaño. Es una manera de recordarnos quienes somos. Es decir, los miembros de la gran familia de Dios, a través de nuestro bautismo en Cristo.

Según el Catecismo Católico, "bautismo nos limpia del pecado Original y nos hace hijos de Dios (CCC 1213)." Por lo tanto, hoy en día es muy importante para reflexionar sobre nuestro propio bautismo. Esto es, sobre todo, cómo fiel hemos de mantener nuestros votos bautismales. Estamos todavía diciendo, "Sí" a preguntas como: "¿rechazas a Satanás? ¿Rechazas pecado? ¿Crees en un Dios y una Santa Iglesia Católica? ¿Crees en Jesucristo el unigénito Hijo de Dios?" ¿Cómo fieles hemos sido a estos votos?

En el Evangelio de hoy, aunque Jesús era mayor que Juan el Bautista, él permitió que Juan bautizarlo. La lección más importante aquí es que Jesús trate de subrayar la importancia del bautismo para nuestra redención y vida como cristianos. No es un "signo simple". Por el contrario, es un sacramento que deja una huella imborrable en el receptor. Este es el signo o marca que Dios ve y testifica: "¡Este es mi hijo amado, en quien me complace!"

Permitiendo a sí mismo al ser bautizado, Cristo manifiesta su plena humanidad. En palabras de orden, nos muestra Jesús identifica plenamente con nosotros. Ordinariamente, bautismo no era necesario para Jesús porque, "él era como nosotros en todo, excepto el pecado" (Heb 4, 15). No fue afectada en ninguna manera por el pecado Original. Sin embargo, su bautismo como se insistió era: "para cumplir con todo lo que la justicia exige." Es un signo de que Cristo estaba listo para pasar a través de cualquier prueba para nuestra salvación. Lo que se va a sellar con su sangre en la Cruz, lo comienza a través del agua del bautismo. A través de su bautismo, él santificó el agua de nuestro propio bautismo.

Por lo tanto, hoy la Iglesia nos llama a renovar nuestros votos bautismales a Dios. Esto es importante para que, en este año, Dios puede seguir diciendo de nosotros: "Este es mi hijo amado en quien me complace."
