2021

Epiphany

That is what we celebrate on the Epiphany, the three magi seeking and ultimately finding the new born king, Jesus. They were successful in their quest because they lived purposefully and intentionally.

If we want to be spiritually strong, we need to be intentional about it...continually, not just when we feel like it. We need to value Jesus and seek Him diligently. We need to, like the three Magi, prostrate ourselves before Jesus and pay him homage and offer him the gifts of our time, talents and treasure. We need to make Jesus our priority and keep Jesus as our priority.

When we do, when we make Jesus a priority and live more intentionally, we begin to start living, really living and experiencing the abundant life that Jesus, envisioned for us, the abundant life that Jesus sacrificed his life for, so that we may experience that life now. A life of grace, love, purpose, fulfillment, intentionality, peace, joy, wisdom, insight, blessing and meaning

Epifanía

Eso es lo que celebramos en la Epifanía, los tres magos que buscan y finalmente encuentran al rey recién nacido, Jesús. Tuvieron éxito en su búsqueda porque vivieron con propósito e intencionalmente.

Si queremos ser espiritualmente fuertes, debemos ser intencionales al respecto ... continuamente, no solo cuando nos apetezca. Necesitamos valorar a Jesús y buscarlo diligentemente. Necesitamos, como los tres Magos, postrarnos ante Jesús y rendirle homenaje y ofrecerle los dones de nuestro tiempo, talentos y tesoros. Necesitamos hacer de Jesús nuestra prioridad y mantener a Jesús como nuestra prioridad.

Cuando lo hacemos, cuando hacemos de Jesús una prioridad y vivimos de manera más intencional, comenzamos a comenzar a vivir, realmente a vivir y experimentar la vida abundante que Jesús, visualizó para nosotros, la vida abundante por la que Jesús sacrificó su vida, para que podamos experimentar esa vida ahora. Una vida de gracia, amor, propósito, realización, intencionalidad, paz, gozo, sabiduría, perspicacia, bendición y significado.
