Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble.

Tengan todo unos mismos sentimientos, sean compasivos, ámense como hermanos, sean misericordiosos y humildes.
1 Peter 3:8

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body.
And be thankful.

Que la paz de Cristo reine en sus corazones: esa paz a la que han sido llamados, porque formamos un solo Cuerpo

THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!!

There are no words to express how thankful we are for such a great parish family!!! Through the construction mess, everyone has adjusted and not complained. With two funerals in the past two weeks we had an unusual situation but with work and cooperation we made it work. Thanks to Sharon Pack, Carmen Tarango, Laura Hernandez, Elvira Aldana, Norma Gomez, Mony Hernandez and Norma Muñoz and all of the other ladies who helped out with the funeral meals. If you brought a cake or salad or potatoes, we want you to know we could not have accomplished this without you!! Thanks to Lisa, who gets everything prepared for the Mass, how much nicer it is when a visiting priest walks in to things that are ready to go. What a great welcome to any priests that come to our parish to visit. Thank you everyone!! Job well done!!!

GODS SUMMONS

Confronted with Gods power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, Whom shall I send? Who will go for us? Isaiah answered, Here I am, send me.

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else wont lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be Gods messenger?

EL LLAMADO DE DIOS

Al ser confrontado con el poder y la majestad de Dios, la primera respuesta del profeta Isaías es reconocer su pecado. Ay de mí, estoy perdido porque soy un hombre de labios impuros, dice en voz alta. De la misma manera, con las redes de pesca repentinamente llenas con la orden de Jesús, Pedro cae de rodillas y clama: Señor, apártate de mí porque soy un pecador.

Después Pedro se levanta, deja atracado su bote y sigue a Jesús. Isaías también experimentó un cambio impresionante. Cuando escuchó al Señor que decía: ¿A quién voy a enviar? ¿Quién irá por nosotros?, Isaías respondió: Aquí estoy, envíame.

Somos llamados diariamente por el Señor resucitado. Se nos recuerda del poder salvador del Evangelio y sabemos de corazón que, como escribió san Pablo, creer en otra cosa no nos llevará a ningún lado.

¿Qué se necesita para que dejes el pecado? ¿Qué se necesita para que caigas de rodillas? ¿Qué se necesita para que dejes lo que no es importante y aceptes el llamado de ser mensajero de Dios?

Serving as a Godparent for Baptism or Confirmation In the parish office we are often asked about what the requirements are for those who wish to serve as godparents. In an attempt to help everyone out there are some basic guidelines: a) if married they must be married in the Catholic church, b) if single they may not be living in a sexual relationship, c) if single they must be Confirmed in the Catholic Church, d) they should be attending Mass every weekend and e) there should be no impediments to the reception of the Eucharist. It is an honor and responsibility to serve as a godparent for sacrament reception!

Presenting oneself to receive Holy Communion should be a conscious decision, based on a reasoned judgment regarding one's worthiness to do so, according to the Church's objective criteria, asking such questions as: "Am I in full communion with the Catholic Church? Am I guilty of grave sin? Have I incurred a penalty (e.g. excommunication, interdict) that forbids me to receive Holy Communion? Have I prepared myself by fasting for at least an hour?" The practice of indiscriminately presenting oneself to receive Holy Communion, merely as a consequence of being present at Mass, is an abuse that must be corrected (cf. Instruction "Redemptionis Sacramentum," nos. 81, 83).

Make plans now to attend our Ministry Fair next weekend!!
 "Just because your church seems to be running smoothly from the pew on Sunday mornings doesn't mean that they couldn't use a little additional help behind the scenes."

Our ministry fair will give everyone the opportunity to familiarize themselves with the different ministries that are in our parish and being better educated may find a place where they can serve our parish family. We are in this together!!!

But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

1 Corinthians 12: 18-20

There are blessings, like the ones contained in Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers, that can be prayed by anyone who has been baptized, "in virtue of the universal priesthood, a dignity they possess because of their baptism and confirmation". The blessings given by laypersons are exercised because of their special office, such as parents on behalf of their children.

(Taken from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website.)

Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers is available in the Parish Office for $25.00 each.
