Welcome New Members!! Wherever you are on your faith journey, we welcome you to join our parish community. To be considered an active, participating member of the Parish, and thus eligible for sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and our religious education program, we take into account a family or individual ministry involvement, and Mass attendance. Collection envelopes or online giving receipts are the only way we can determine your attendance. You may register by contacting the Parish Office.

Bienvenidos nuevos miembros! Donde quiera que esté en su camino de fe, le invitamos a unirse a nuestra comunidad parroquial. Para ser considerado un miembro activo y participante de la parroquia y, por lo tanto, ser elegible para los sacramentos, poder ser padrino y participar en nuestro programa de educación religiosa, en esta parroquia tomamos en cuenta la participación del ministerio familiar o individual y la asistencia a misa. Los sobres de colección o los recibos de donaciones en línea son la única forma en que podemos determinar su asistencia. Puede registrarse llamando a la oficina parroquial.

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble.

Tengan todo unos mismos sentimientos, sean compasivos, ámense como hermanos, sean misericordiosos y humildes.

1 Peter 3:8

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.

Que la paz de Cristo reine en sus corazones: esa paz a la que han sido llamados, porque
formamos un solo Cuerpo

These are “uncharted waters” we are currently in. There are many questions being asked. If we know of changes we are putting them out as soon as we are aware and have permission to do so. We are trying to continue with “normal” activities here in the parish office. We would ask that if you do not have an immediate need to visit the office, please don't. If it is just paperwork you are bringing, please mail it. Preparations for Baptisms, First Communion, and Confirmation are ongoing. We will plan to celebrate things as scheduled unless something changes. The best way to stay on top of things that are either being cancelled, rescheduled or held as scheduled is to visit the parish Facebook page, sign up for flocknote and/or check the parish website. (Sign up for flocknote is available on the parish website sppdumas.org as is the parish's Facebook page). Found on the Internet:

From now on spread love and hope. We will get through this and we will continue in whatever our new normal is. We have the choice to give up and unpack in anxiety and depression, or we can keep moving forward and taking care of each other in any way we can. We can be the light of the future and an example to the children. How we react to this will shape how they will react to the challenges they will face long after we are gone. I love and am praying for you all.

Sus contribuciones son necesarias ya que seguimos pagando los servicios como agua, electricidad, gas, etc. Por favor considere donar en el sitio de la parroquia www.sppdumas.org, puede también mandar su sobre por correo o traerlo a la oficina parroquial. Les aseguramos que haremos todo esfuerzo por mantener nuestros gastos al mínimo posible.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary
Health of the Sick

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Joseph of Arimathea

All that is known for certain concerning Joseph of Arimathea is derived from the canonical Gospels. He was born at Arimathea — hence his surname (Luke 23:51). He was a wealthy Israelite (Matthew 27:57), "a good and a just man" (Luke 23:50), "who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God" (Mark 15:43). He is also called by St. Mark and by St. Luke a "a senator", whereby is meant a member of the Sanhedrin or supreme council of the Jews. He was a disciple of Jesus, probably ever since Christ's first preaching in Judea (John 2:23), but he did not declare himself as such "for fear of the Jews" (John 19:38). On account of this secret allegiance to Jesus, he did not consent to His condemnation by the Sanhedrin (Luke 23:51), and was most likely absent from the meeting which sentenced Jesus to death (cf. Mark 14:64). The Crucifixion of the Master quickened Joseph's faith and love, and suggested to him that he should provide for Christ's burial before the Sabbath began. Unmindful therefore of all personal danger, a danger which was indeed considerable under the circumstances, he boldly requested from Pilate the Body of Jesus, and was successful in his request (Mark 15:43-45). Once in possession of this sacred treasure, he, together with Nicodemus, whom his courage had likewise emboldened, and who brought abundant spices, wrapped up Christ's Body in fine linen and grave bands. Then they laid it in his own tomb, new and yet unused, and hewn out of a rock in a neighboring garden, and withdrew after rolling a great stone to the opening of the sepulchre (Matthew 27:59, 60; Mark 15:46; Luke 23:53; John 19:38-42).
