Psalms

Psalms are of course sacred songs or hymns. During Mass they are sung after the first reading. Would you like to hear one this Sunday? Try singing the following on a Sunday to your parents or God parents!

If it's Sunday and we are busy, I still long to be at Church

1. I know the week has been long, and you are weary.
Blessed are we for being called to the supper of the lamb
Let us go and be refreshed, we will nourish in the word. (R)

Meal time prayer

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for our food and family. God bless everyone sharing our meal.

May we be able to share the love and food we receive with our community.

In Jesus name we pray

Amen

TGIF? TGIS!

Thank Goodness it's Friday? How about Thank Goodness it's Sunday!

What is your family doing to make sure Sunday is special? Some ideas....

- Family meals
- Games night
- Outing/Hiking/Bike ride
- Other family time

Coupon – Sundae on a Sunday

To use occasionally for a treat

If it's Sunday again and I've been Oh so good why not treat me after Church!

Good for one Ice Cream Sundae

Stump your Priest

A few thoughts that might stump our Priest. See what he has to say...

1. If baptism washes away our sins wouldn't it be better if we were baptized after our youth? (Baptism)
2. Would praying for my parent's cooking qualify as intercession or petition? (Forms of prayer)
3. What is the difference between countably infinite and uncountably infinite? (Math)
