Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. — I Corinthians 12:4

Gifts and requirements for serving as a church officer. Elders are called to exercise special functions in the Church. God gives these persons suitable gifts for their various duties. In addition to possessing the necessary gifts and abilities, natural and acquired, those who undertake particular ministries should be persons of strong faith, dedicated discipleship, and love of Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel in the church and in the world. (Book of Order G-2.01)

ELDERS are those, in a Presbyterian Church, who compose the Session which is the governing body of the church. They are responsible for decisions of the daily life of the church through committees such as Administration, Congregational Care, Children’s Center Ministry, Christian Education, Community Building & Engagement, Missions—Local and Beyond, Property, Stewardship & Finance, and Worship.

You do not need to confer with those whose names you suggest. The Congregation’s Nominating Committee will ask potential nominees of their willingness to serve. Please list your suggestions for nominees whom you feel will be the best suited to serve in a new class of leaders at First Presbyterian Church:
