St. Joseph’s Motherhouse is located on 32 acres of land along the beautiful shores of Lake Nipissing — a perfect place to experience all the seasons and to witness spectacular sunsets while enjoying unstructured sabbatical time.

St. Joseph’s Motherhouse is home to Sisters in semi-retirement, is a care unit and includes 34 rental units for seniors. The Motherhouse is noted for its openness and hospitality to many Church affiliations and other external organizations.

It provides a rich, peaceful environment for individuals to “Come aside and rest awhile.”
