

9 Qualities of a Team Leader

Sense of Responsibility

Takes charge of the mission and fulfills it, makes the time and effort to know each team member, accepts directives with charity and nobility, and knows how to forgive.

Sincerity

Is sincere in personal surrender (sincerely generous), so she will know how to be firm in response to others.

Spirit of Service

Is a servant leader who supports each member, radiates optimism and happiness, and gives the glory to God.

Prudence & Docility

Know how to reflect and judge, consider options and consequences, strive to heal and unite; maintain an attitude of openness and docility.

Discretion

Is conscientious of what to say and when to keep quiet – and in what forum, faithful to the confidence placed in her.

Dynamism

Imitating Christ, is full of initiative, is capable of beginning new works, directing, and recruiting, and follows the lines of hierarchy.

Evangelization (Apostolate)

Awakens a tremendous love of souls in team members and the desire to bring Christ to others!

Humility

Practices humility with determination as the most effective antidote for pride so that her works may be fruitful for Christ and His Church.

Integration

Loves the Movement as the fertile soil where God has placed her to grow and produce fruit that will last.