March 10, 2019 – 1st Sunday of Lent

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me."

DEUTERONOMY 26:10

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits," the best that you have to offer, or do you give from what is leftover? Second, do you recognize that everything you have has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

Reflection

Last weekend we heard the scripture story of how the good tree doesn't grow rotten fruit and the rotten tree doesn't grow good fruit. This metaphor is a perfect reminder as we enter the season of Lent this week. Lent is a time of reflection and repentance, so ask yourself...what kind of tree am I? Being the good tree looks something like having a good relationship with God, not gossiping about others, helping others whenever you can, and spreading love to everyone. Being the bad tree can look like a lot of things I'm sure we can all use our imaginations for. For some of you, your tree trunk may be good, and your branches may be bad, and you find yourself somewhere in the middle. So where does that leave you? It's important for us to reflect on our words and actions during Lent so that we may grow both in our faith and as individuals. God created each person, each tree to be unique, unlike any other, imperfectly perfect to Him. Like any tree, we all need nourishment and light to survive and thrive. What better way to nourish our souls than to accept the gifts, uniqueness's, flaws, and blessings God has given us and to treat others how we would like to be treated? What better light than Jesus Christ in our lives? While it is important for us to make sure we are producing good fruit, it is equally important for us to help others produce good fruit in their lives. As we begin this Lenten season, we should look within ourselves to see where we can be better. We don't always have to give up eating chocolate or biting our nails, but rather give up judging and talking poorly about others. Instead of giving up something you enjoy, why not share something you enjoy with others who are in need.

Saint of the Week: St. Frances of Rome

St. Frances of Rome was attracted to religious life since she was a child, but during those times it was expected of women to get married and have children. While happily married and with children, St. Frances and her sister-in-law, both always seeking a religious life, began helping the sick and poor. St. Frances made helping and caring for the sick and poor her life's work. When Plague struck, she lost two of her children, then her husband, which only made her cling to God and helping the sick more. She opened part of her house as a hospital and started caring for others as a Benedictine Oblate. St. Frances is known as the Patron Saint of widows. May we imitate her compassion for others and make a conscious effort to help those in need whenever we are capable.

A Secure & Convenient Way to Give to St. John Vianney Church

Donate Now!

No cash or check? No problem! Our parish offers a convenient, safe, and automatic way to contribute to our parish directly from your bank or using a credit card. Online Giving is a web-based application that allows you to start, stop and change your contributions at any time. You will still receive offering envelopes to present during offertory at Mass to indicate "I've given online". Online Giving is very easy to use and requires no special knowledge. If you haven't already signed up, then go to our parish website at "sjvianney.com" and select Online Giving. It's easy and safe!

ST. JOHN VIANNEY SCRIP PROGRAM

For several years the St. John Vianney school community has participated in a fundraising program known as the Scrip Program. We would now like to open this program to the entire parish community. Scrip simply means "substitute money". When you purchase Scrip, you are purchasing gift cards that are used exactly as cash. You can use Scrip to purchase everyday items such as food, gas, clothing and other essentials. With every gift card you purchase you are earning revenue for St. John Vianney. Your gift card is worth exactly the amount you purchased it for - $100, $50, $25, $10. We earn the revenue from the vendor by purchasing it at a discount. This is a fundraiser that does not require you to spend money on things you wouldn't normally buy.

We are now selling gift cards after the 5:00 pm mass on Saturdays, and after the 9:00 am, 10:45 am and 12:15 pm masses on Sundays. We will be selling grocery stores (Acme, Foodtown, Shop Rite, Stop n Shop, Wegmans and Whole Foods); gas stations (BP, Exxon, Gulf, Shell, Speedway and Wawa), Dunkin, Home Depot, Target and WalMart. There are many other gift cards for purchase at the Rectory, and even more gift cards available if you order through GLScrip company. Gift cards can be purchased with cash or a personal check. For more information, stop by the Rectory and speak with either Stephanie or Linda, or call us at 732-574-0150.

Lenten Obligations

1. The days of fast and abstinence are Ash Wednesday.
2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.
3. The obligation of fast applies only to Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59.
Fasting in the Catholic tradition means to limit oneself to one full meal and two smaller meals which together are not equal to a full meal, so as to experience hunger.
4. The obligation of abstinence applies to all Catholics who have reached the age of 14.

Abstinence in the Catholic tradition means to abstain from meat.

First Sunday of Lent

As we begin Lent, let us reflect and pray for others who are struggling. This week we pray for Norma, whom we encounter through CRS Rice Bowl, and all young mothers who struggle to put food on the table, that they may provide a healthy lifestyle for those they care for. Let us also pray for members of our own community who are hungry and do not know where their next meal will come from, that we may encounter them in their need.
