

Mission Statement

In the spirit of St. John Vianney's zeal and concern for people, we are a community proclaiming the Gospel in the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. The community of St. John Vianney strives to utilize the gifts and talents of each parishioner to create a vibrant welcoming parish. Through our liturgies, ministries, and organizations, we encounter Christ and are empowered to bring Him to the world.

June 30, 2019 – 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.”

GALATIANS 5:13

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to “live the good life.” But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God’s work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Reflection

Last weekend we celebrated Corpus Christi Sunday, also known as the celebration of the body and blood of Christ. When you receive the Holy Eucharist each week, do you ever think about what it means? It’s so easy for things to become like a routine, but during Mass it’s important for us to remember and recognize why certain things are done and what they mean to us. When we receive the body and blood of Jesus, it’s not just something to do because everyone else does it and you’ve made that Sacrament. Receiving the body and blood of Jesus each week is our opportunity to recognize Jesus’ immense sacrifice – giving up His life so that we may one day have eternal life. When we receive we are reminded of the purest love, the love Jesus has for each of us. It challenges us to think about what we would be willing to risk for Jesus, for our faith. It is a gift that we are continuously called to receive so that Jesus is with us each week as we go through the ups and downs of life. When we choose to receive the body and blood of Jesus, He meets all of our needs to be loved and asks us in return to be His presence to those who are in need. As we enter this week, may we all be reminded of the freedom we have when we walk with Jesus, but let us not forget why we were given this freedom. Let us not forget that we are called to live our lives through love, sharing with one another the multitude of gifts and blessings He has given us.

Please note there will only be one mass at 9am on Thursday July 4th in observance of Independence Day.

Saint of the Week: St. Maria Goretti

St. Maria grew up a poor farmers daughter in Italy, never even receiving an education. Soon after receiving First Holy Communion, she was attacked by her neighbor for not doing what he wished of her. She was sent to the hospital and died within 24 hours of her injuries. Before her passing she made sure to console her mother, forgive the man who killed her and received her last Holy Communion. While in prison the man had dreams/visions of St. Maria picking lilies and offering them to him. She became a saint in 1947 with her mother, siblings and the man all there as witnesses. Today St. Maria is known as the patron saint of girls and Catholic youth. May we look to St. Maria as a symbol of strength, to face her fears and not give in to any but the will of God, and forgiveness even of those who have deeply wronged us.

Gospel Today

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 9:51-62

Jesus' time was short — He wanted to share His message of peace and love with people willing to listen, as well as place God first in their lives.

O L E W M E C

Not everyone welcomed Jesus and the disciples during their travels.

If Jesus came to your town or home, how would you welcome Him?

Jesus says, "Follow Me."
