

Mission Statement

In the spirit of St. John Vianney's zeal and concern for people, we are a community proclaiming the Gospel in the tradition of the Roman Catholic Church. The community of St. John Vianney strives to utilize the gifts and talents of each parishioner to create a vibrant welcoming parish. Through our liturgies, ministries, and organizations, we encounter Christ and are empowered to bring Him to the world.

*“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’
LUKE 10:2*

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God’s Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

All Things Bright and Beautiful

All things bright and beautiful,
all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful,
the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens,
each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colors,
He made their tiny wings.

The cold wind in the winter,
the pleasant summer sun,
the ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them, every one.

He gave us eyes to see them,
and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty
Who has made all things well.

- Cecil Frances Alexander

Saint of the Week: St. Henry

St. Henry was the emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. He studied with St. Wolfgang and always had a deep interest in holy affairs. On his way back from conflict one time he stopped at the abbey of Monte Cassino, which was founded by St. Benedict. While there, St. Henry fell ill, and it is known that St. Benedict cured him with combining medicinal herbs and the power of prayer. St. Henry went on to grow in faith from the experience, founding the See of Bamberg, creating its cathedral and much more. St. Henry is well known throughout the world to have been a just ruler and prayerful man. May we look to him as an example of finding balance and integration between our faith and daily lives.

Gospel Today

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time / Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Jesus picked seventy-two disciples to go out in pairs to the towns and villages He planned to visit. Their mission was to spread the peace and love of God, bringing with them only their faith.

©2019 Bon Venture Services, LLC

First say, "Peace to this household."

- Luke 10:5

Jesus said to His disciples, "Rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

- Luke 10:20

- I am a disciple of the Lord -

I help my family with love in my heart and a smile on my face.

Being a disciple starts at home. Draw and color yourself in the house, sharing the love and peace of Jesus with your family or attach a picture of you doing an act of kindness. Then write your name in the cloud of Heaven above. Hang your picture for all to see!
