Weekend Readings

Wisdom 11:22 – 12:2
2 Thessalonians 1:11 – 2:2
Luke 19:1-10

Weekday readings can be found on the parish website.

November 3, 2019
31ST Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'"
LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

Reflection- have something for this 11/10

Last weekend's scripture was about acknowledging who we are. The readings made us ask ourselves, 'who are you?' in several different ways. Who are you when you enter Mass? Who are you with your friends? Who are you with your family? Who are you on social media? Sometimes we can find ourselves acting as different versions of ourselves depending on who we are surrounded by. When we enter Church, the first thing we do is dip into holy water, make the sign of the cross, and at the beginning of Mass acknowledge one another as brothers and sisters through Christ. Acknowledging people, some of which we've never spoken to, as brothers and sisters is so powerful. It's a way that we, as Catholics, share our faith with one another and cast aside any differences or bias we may harbor. We acknowledge that all of us are children of God, and all of us are sinners. Through Mass we are able to see our imperfections and admit them before God to ask forgiveness and pray to be better in His name. At the end of the day our relationship with one another and with God comes back to love. Our shared love for God keeps us believing, loving, praying, and acting with love and kindness towards others. So, ask yourself, who am I? and ponder if the people you are surrounding yourself with bring out the best qualities God has blessed you with.

Farewell & Thank You, Father Joseph

It is with a heavy heart that we must bid farewell to Father Joseph Kubiak. We have been informed by the Diocese that Father is being transferred from St. John Vianney Parish to be the new Associate at St. Helena's Parish in Edison. Father will be moving there on Saturday, November 9, 2019. Because of the time constraints of the announcement, once Father is settled in, it is our hope to invite him back for a farewell mass and reception so that we can properly express our gratitude for his many years of service here at St. John Vianney Parish. Father has been here since 2005, fourteen years of ministry. We ask that God continue to bless Father and his priestly ministry in his new assignment. We have also been informed by the Diocese that Father Joseph is not being replaced here at St. John Vianney, so we will become a 2-priest parish in November 2019.

Saint of the Week: St. Leo, the Great

St. Leo is popularly known for his work as a peacemaker. His faith always remained at the forefront of his decisions for the Church and the issues that plagued Italy during this time. He is particularly known for his encounter with Attila the Hun, whom he persuaded against invading and destroying Rome. People loved St. Leo for his spiritually profound sermons and pastoral care of his people. St. Leo the Great earned this title because of his devotion to God, the Catholic Church, and his people. He held firm in that all his words and actions came through him from God. St. Leo is an example of a great administrator who used his talents in areas where spirit and structure are inseparably combined: doctrine, peace, and pastoral care.

Gospel Today

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time / Luke 19:1-10

Zacchaeus, the chief tax collector, was a rich man because he cheated the people by demanding too much in taxes. When Jesus visited Jericho, Zacchaeus climbed a tree to get a better look at who Jesus was. When Jesus called Zacchaeus down and went to his house, the people were upset that Jesus wanted to stay with a sinner. Joyfully Zacchaeus repented, and promised to give half of his possessions to the poor. This made everyone happy - Jesus, Zacchaeus and the people of Jericho.
