30TH Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

MATTHEW 22:37

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? The good news – it’s not too late to put God first in all things in your life.

Reflection

Last weekend Deacon Ariel began preaching about his experiences with people at different places in their individual faith journeys. One example he gave us was encountering those who choose the Catholic faith later in life. He made a point that stuck with me, “it’s always inspiring to see what draws people to our Catholic faith.” Have you ever asked someone who Jesus is to them? Some might say He is a friend, or an image of light in one’s life, or a Father figure who is loving and merciful. Although Jesus takes on different roles for us at different stages of our faith journeys, all of these images of Him are true. In the Gospel last weekend, we heard of the context of imagery. Jesus questioned the Jews about the image on the coin, which led to a discussion of hypocrisy; a theme that we often encounter in our lives today. As Jesus’ chosen disciples, who were created in God’s image, we should always be projecting His image through our words and actions. Our relationship with God and others starts with basic respect for human dignity, without it our world will become overrun with hatred and hypocrisy. Although it seems like a silly phrase you hear as a child, it is so important to actually ask yourself “What Would Jesus Do?” If our thoughts, words, and actions don’t align with that of Jesus, there’s work to be done within ourselves. Jesus asks us to show Him our hearts so that we may become the best version of ourselves, and in turn help others do the same. I encourage you to think of how you will help someone who may be struggling to see God within themselves.

St. John Vianney School News

732-388-1662 <https://school.sjvianney.com/>

Friday, October 30th, our students will be celebrating Halloween. All students may come to school dressed in their costumes. If a child does not wish to wear a costume, they must come to school in their uniform. This will be a full day of school which is a change from the original school calendar.

On October 21st we kicked off our annual Walk-a-Thon for Technology. Our students are gathering donations to help us purchase new equipment for our school. We thank all of our families for their support!

Students must begin wearing their winter uniforms on Monday, November 9th. Please check your child's uniforms now to be sure they fit properly.

Don't forget to turn your clocks back one hour next Sunday, November 1st!

All Souls Mass of Remembrance

Due to the restrictions which we must abide by regarding attendance capacity, social distancing as well as wearing masks, we will not be able to accept names of family members who were buried from other parishes to be remembered in this year's Mass. Thank you for your understanding

Saint of the Week: St. Jude

St. Jude is an interesting saint because not many things are known about him. What we do know is that he was one of Jesus' twelve apostles and his name was shortened to Jude from Judas to distinguish him from Judas Iscariot. In the books of Matthew and Mark, Jude is also referred to as Thaddeus. We often see posts or articles of people thanking St. Jude for helping them through something, which is interesting since not much is known about him. St. Jude is, however, the patron saint of impossible or hopeless cases. People often find it to be a nice and respectful gesture to publicly thank St. Jude if they've prayed to him in times of struggle or frustration. May we look to St. Jude as a symbol of hope when everything seems to be against us, and also as a symbol of thanksgiving for all that we are blessed with in this life.

ST. JOHN VIANNEY SCRIP PROGRAM

For several years the St. John Vianney school community has participated in a fundraising program known as the Scrip Program. We would now like to open this program to the entire parish community. Scrip simply means "substitute money". When you purchase Scrip, you are purchasing gift cards that are used exactly as cash. You can use Scrip to purchase everyday items such as food, gas, clothing and other essentials. With every gift card you purchase you are earning revenue for St. John Vianney. Your gift card is worth exactly the amount you purchased it for - $100, $50, $25, $10. We earn the revenue from the vendor by purchasing it at a discount. This is a fundraiser that does not require you to spend money on things you wouldn't normally buy.

There are many gift cards for purchase at the Rectory, and even more gift cards available if you order through the GLScrip company. Gift cards can be purchased with cash or a personal check. For more information, stop by the Rectory and speak with either Stephanie or Linda, or call us at 732-574-0150.

Rediscovering the Saints

We will be having a Saint Book giveaway the weekend of October 31st and November 1st after all Masses on the way out of Church, as a way to celebrate All Saints Day. There is a certain number of books available for each Mass and they are first come, first serve.

Thanks for Your Participation!

Thank you for answering, "Here I am, send me" to your baptismal call to witness on World Mission Sunday! Our parish offered $1,287 to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the missionary work of the Church – a real blessing for the Missions! Please continue to pray for missionaries, and for the people to whom they bring the "Good News" of Jesus. May God bless you for your generous missionary spirit!

- Everyone needs to be 6 feet apart from each other whether you are seated in pew or standing in line to receive communion UNLESS you live together in same household. Families will be seated together in an assigned pew.
- Communion will be given at the END of Mass so that parishioners can exit the church immediately after receiving. The two far side aisles will be used with 2 Communion stations in front and 2 Communion stations at the back. After receiving Communion please use the center aisle to exit the church using all 3 sets of doors. PLEASE DO NOT GO BACK TO YOUR PEW after receiving Communion. The church will be closed immediately for sanitization.
- Each pew will be directed by ushers to receive Communion, with 6 feet apart markings on the carpet. Please do not get up to receive Communion until you are directed to do so.
- Communion will not be received on the tongue, only in the hands. (No gloves) The Precious Blood will not be offered.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 22:34-40

The Pharisees again tested Jesus asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

©2020 Bon Venture Services, LLC

He said to them, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Mt 22:35-39)

You shall love God, and all God's people.
