Reflexiones Pastorales
de P. Juan J. Sosa (Oregon Catholic Press)
El símbolo de la viña como la casa de Israel aparece en la primera lectura y en el Evangelio de hoy. Es un símbolo que señala la desobediencia de un pueblo que fue llamado a vivir la Alianza con Dios y que, a pesar de las advertencias de los profetas, se alejó de ella. La parábola de Jesús relata cómo los mensajeros que el pueblo recibió como profetas a través de su historia fueron eliminados gradualmente. San Mateo hace énfasis en el desenlace del último mensajero, el heredero del viñedo, quien sufre la misma muerte que los otros. El evangelista lo identifica con Jesús mismo en su entrega por todos en la cruz. Muchas veces nosotros caemos en la rutina diaria o semanal que no nos permite apreciar el tesoro de la fe y de la Iglesia. ¿De qué manera podemos mantener la alegría de la fe y el espíritu de amor en nuestra vida cotidiana?

School’s non-discriminatory policy

From the Notebook of Pope John Paul II wrote in his encyclical, Rosarium Virginis Mariae in 2002 that the Rosary was a “compendium of the Gospel” and a means of “contemplating the face of Christ with Mary.”

Jon Phalen, in his book, Living the Rosary describes how the Rosary is such a beautiful prayer: The Rosary is...

- Remembering Christ with Mary. Through meditation on the mysteries we make them present, much as the remembering of Jesus at Mass is making Christ present in the Eucharist.

- Learning Christ with Mary. This does not mean simply learning about him. It means learning him: getting to know him and life’s passion. No one knows Christ better than his Mother, who said, “Do whatever he tells you!”

- Being conformed to Christ with Mary. St. Paul tells us to have the mind of Christ, to “put on” Christ as one puts on a garment. Often good friends begin to look and speak like each other. Christ the friend should influence our lives this way. Mary watches over the human growth of both Christ and the Church.

- Praying to Christ with Mary. As St. Paul says, we do not know how to pray as we ought. Jesus, the one Mediator, is our Way of prayer. Mary, his purest reflection, shows us the way. She is all-powerful by grace.

- Proclaiming Christ with Mary. Others need to come to know this same Christ, perhaps through coming to us as his faithful followers. Pastors and laity can use the Rosary as a significant evangelization tool.

Many consider the Rosary as their favorite prayer because it combines oral prayer and meditation. For me it is just like revisiting the Holy Land. For instance, when I meditate on the Birth of Jesus in Bethlehem. I recall Bethlehem with its quaint shelters hewn out of caves. I also remember the distance from the Shepherd’s field to the Nativity Square. I imagine how the shepherds, upon hearing the good news from the angels climbed the rugged terrain to go to the Manger where Jesus was born. The lowly shepherds were the first ones to see the Incarnate Son of God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (article 469) quotes this prayer of St. John Chrysostom: “O only-begotten Son and Word of God, immortal being, you who deigned for our salvation to become incarnate of the holy Mother of God and ever-virgin Mary, you who without change became man and were crucified, O Christ our God, you who by your death have crushed death, you who are one of the Holy Trinity, glorified with the Father and the Holy Spirit, save us!”
