Readings:

1st Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death and does not delight when life is destroyed. All creatures of the world are wholesome. Through the devil's envy, death entered the world.

Responsorial Psalm 30

I praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2nd Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7,9, 13-15

Paul the apostles wrote that the Corinthians have been given much by the Lord. They should give to others in need as others give to them in their own need.

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus was on his way to heal Jairus' daughter, a woman touched his cloak and was healed of her illness. Jesus told the woman, "Daughter, your faith has saved you."

Reflexiones Pastorales de Rdo. Juan J. Sosa (Oregon Catholic Press)

El tesoro de la vida es el tema central de la liturgia de hoy. Para apreciar y aceptar este tesoro, sin embargo, se necesita la fe. El Evangelio presenta a Jesús sanando a la mujer que le toca la túnica en medio de la muchedumbre que le acosa y a la hija del líder de la sinagoga. Ante la fe de ambos personajes, el Evangelio nos presenta también la “lógica” humana que, como siempre, surge de la reacción de sus discípulos: “Con tanta gente, ¿cómo vamos a saber quién te tocó la túnica?” (Marcos 5, 31); “La niña ya murió; no molestes al Maestro” (Marcos 5, 35). Estas expresiones presentan una realidad sin esperanza, ante la fe en Jesucristo como Señor de la vida y de la muerte. Por ello es importante que escuchemos y reflexionemos sobre las lecturas de hoy con una fe ardiente y un deseo constante de vivir en el Señor. La narración del Evangelio se complementa con el texto de la primera lectura, que nos hace recordar que Dios no quiere la muerte para nosotros, sino que vivamos en su amor y su generosidad. Los textos no se refieren a la muerte física solamente, sino a la muerte que sufren aquellos que, aunque bautizados, experimentan una falta de fe y les falta encontrarse con Cristo en la Iglesia. A la vez que este tema se proclama en la liturgia dominical, es importante que sirva como punto de partida para un diálogo entre los diversos ministerios de la comunidad más allá del domingo, especialmente entre los jóvenes. ¿Qué significa morir estando vivo, o vivir rescatado por el amor y el regalo de Jesús el Señor aunque uno muera?

We're moving right along... 2018 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal is now at 50%

As of today, we have submitted the following amount (pledges & payments) to the 2018 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal:
$14,440

This amount is 50% of our goal of $28,382. Heartfelt thanks for your generosity. For those who have not yet participated in this Appeal, please use the envelopes provided at the church entrance. God bless!

Silent Adoration

If you find yourself with some free time this Summer, why not spend some moments in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament? Our Adoration Chapel is open Monday thru Friday from 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. (except during holidays).

At 3:00 p.m. – a time that Sister Faustina called the “hour of mercy” – we pray the chaplet of the Divine Mercy. Devotees around the world pray at 3:00 p.m. their time – just imagine joining your voice with the voices of millions around the Globe!

Today's Second Collection: Peter's Pence – for our Pope's Charitable Works:

How can we help:

- Pray

Pray for the Holy Father as he reaches out compassionately to make the world less cold and more just and for those around the world who are suffering and will benefit from this collection.

- Share

Spread the message of mercy and peace.

- Give

Please give generously to this collection as a witness of charity and offer hope to those who suffer around the globe.

Men's Retreat with the Knights of the Columbus at St. Mary's Cathedral

On Saturday, August 11 from 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. there will be a Retreat, designed for Catholic men. The theme is: “Into the Breach” -- the model of this theme is the Good Shepherd, who lays down his life for his sheep.

From the Cathedral Staff, the retreat will be conducted by: Rev. Arturo Albano, pastor; Fr. Sebastine Bula, parochial vicar; and Deacon R. Christoph Sandoval.

Cost is $25 including lunch (early registration by August 1 is just $20) Fathers, bring your sons (age 18 and under is admitted free), also free parking in the Cathedral.

For more information, call Jolie Velazquez at (415) 567 2020 ext. 228 or Alexei Lukban alexeilukban@yahoo.com.

The Collection Barrel will be here next week!

T-Shirt and Sock Drive for the Homeless:

July 8 & 15

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is coordinating a T-Shirt and Sock Drive for the homeless. The Missionaries of Charity set up their mobile soup kitchen at the edge of Potrero Park every afternoon, except on Thursday. Aside from food and prayers, the Sisters also provide clothing from time to time. During Summer, they receive requests for socks and t-shirts. Thank you for remembering the poor!

Holy Hour for Religious Freedom

The reality is that our religious freedom is being threatened all the time. Here are just a few examples from the USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) Fact Sheet:

- New York City adopted a policy that barred the Bronx Household of Faith and other churches from renting public schools on weekends for worship services, even though non-religious groups could rent the same schools for other uses.
- In its 100-year history, the University of California Hastings College of Law has denied student organization status to one group, the Christian Legal Society, because it required its leaders to be Christian and to abstain from sexual activity outside of marriage.

Pope Francis has asked American Catholics to preserve and defend religious freedom, both in the United States and throughout the world.

St. Finn Barr Parish's response to the Pope's and our Archbishop's message was our Holy Hour for Religious Freedom last Sunday, June 24, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. After Deacon Willie exposed the Blessed Sacrament on the main altar, representatives from different organizations prayed the Scriptural Rosary, contemplating on the Luminous Mystery. This choice was appropriate because the first Luminous Mystery -- the Baptism of the Lord in the River Jordan by John the Baptist -- calls each one of us to be faithful to the promises of our own Baptism.

Two representatives from five of our parish organizations led the Hail Marys preceded by Scriptural verses:

- Latin Club: MaryLou Balderramos and Violeta Sarria
- Fil-Am Club: Angel & Jean

Fontanilla

- Our Lady of Perpetual Help Novena Group: Alice Abiva and Juliet Samonte
- Knights of Columbus: Tim Stapleton and George Yen
- Legion of Mary, Our Lady of New Advent Presidium: Ed Miller and Patty Hernandez

The mysteries and the Readings reinforced the idea that God is ever attentive to our needs. As long as we pray, He would be there to give us blessings.

At the end of the Holy Hour, members of the Legion of Mary gave out Tesseræ – companions prayers of the Rosary. According to the website www.legionofmary "The Legion of Mary is a lay association of Catholics who, with the sanction of the Church and under the powerful leadership of Mary Immaculate, Mediatrix of All Graces, serve the Church and their neighbor on a voluntary basis in about 170 countries...with several million members."

[Call the rectory if you want to know more about the
a) Legion of Mary, an organization founded by a lay person Frank Duff, with headquarters in Dublin, Ireland;
b) Silent Adoration made available by our parish from Monday through Friday.]

Thanks to all who came to the Holy Hour for Religious Freedom.
