

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 July 29, 2018, Year B

Then Jesus took the loaves,
 and when he had given thanks,
 he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish,
 as much as they wanted.

Reflexiones Pastorales de Rdo. Juan J. Sosa
(Oregon Catholic Press)

Hoy, la Palabra nos revela al Dios de amor que alimenta al pueblo y sacia su hambre para siempre. Eliseo, en la primera lectura, nos brinda un gran ejemplo al decidir que las primicias de alimento que aquel hombre le traía para él, se distribuyeran entre la gente que tenía hambre. El Evangelio nos presenta una imagen similar con Jesús y sus discípulos. La narración incluye la tensión entre la lógica humana y la fe incondicional de aquellos que confían en Dios. Los discípulos de Jesús cuestionan de dónde y cómo van a dar tanta comida a la muchdumbre; Jesús, sin embargo, les invita a confiar en Él y en Dios, y provoca que todos los presentes coman hasta saciarse y aún conserven las sobras de lo que compartieron. Para Dios no hay imposibles; para nosotros tampoco, si confiamos en su infinita misericordia. La Carta a los Efesios afirma que en Jesucristo formamos un solo cuerpo y vivimos en un mismo Espíritu que nos nutre y alimenta para que compartamos con nuestro projimo el alimento de Dios con los dones que transforman nuestra realidad humana: la amabilidad, la misericordia, el perdón y la comprensión. La Palabra, por lo tanto, nos [resenta un gran dsafío: en justiciar, vivimos llamados a saciar el hambre que prevalece a nuestro alrededor entre aquellos que viven marginados por la Sociedad; en la caridad y la generosidad, nuestro alimento trasciende la que nos nutre físicamente; debe abarcar el compromise de servir a nuestor projimo con los dones que el Espíritu Santo nos ha concedido. Conviene, por lo tanto, que el comite parroquial de liturgia haya propuesto un equilibrio entre estos dos tipos de “alimentos” por medio de sus comentarios, preeces y seleccion de la musica liturgica propia de esta celebracion.

This Weekend's Second Collection: For the Good Works of St. Vincent de Paul Society

The local Vincentian Group of our parish meets once a month to plan charitable projects -- different Collection Drives throughout the year:

- Sock Drive for the Homeless
- Blanket Drive, during the Winter Months (the St. Vincent de Paul van drives around North Beach handing out blankets to the homeless)
- Twin-size beddings set for Reilly Center (for victims of domestic violence who are starting a new life away from their abusive situation)
- Backpack and School Supplies (last time the donations were given to the young families of Our Lady of the Pillar parish, in care of Fr. José Corral)

Our SVDP Conference sends a monthly stipend to the kitchen of MSC – Multi-Service Center at 5th Street & Bryant – where around 200 homeless have dinner each night.

Also, a small stipend is sent monthly to Reilly Center to help out with transportation and etc. of your mothers who are trying to avail of Social Services.

Your gift of any amount to this second collection will make a difference!
