World Day of Prayer for Vocations is on Sunday, May 12th. Its purpose is to publicly celebrate vocations to ordained ministry and religious life in all its forms.

Prayer for Vocations

Holy Spirit, stir within us the passion to promote vocations to the consecrated life, societies of apostolic life, diocesan priesthood, and permanent diaconate.

Inspire us daily to respond to Your call with boundless compassion, abundant generosity, and radical availability.

Help us to remember our own sacramental call to rouse us to invite the next generation to hear and respond to Your call.

Inspire parents, families, and lay ecclesial ministers to begin a conversation with Catholics to consider how they can live lives of holiness and sacred service.

Nudge inquirers and motivate discerners to learn more about monastic life, apostolic life, missionaries, cloistered contemplative life, and evangelical life.

Ignite our Church with the confident humility that there is an urgent need for religious sisters, brothers, deacons, and priests. Amen. -from National Religious Vocation Conference

Month of May dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God

A Marian Reflection from Pope Francis

Despite everything that was happening in the days surrounding the birth of Jesus and after, Mary did not try to “understand” or to “master the situation,” but instead, she treasured what happened, protecting and guarding in her heart, the passage of God.

Deep within, she had learned to listen to the heartbeat of her Son, and that in turn taught her, throughout her life, to discover God’s heartbeat in history.

Mary does not say much in the Gospels, and she does not make any big speeches or perform amazing deeds, but what she does have is an attentive gaze capable of guarding the life and mission of her Son, and for this reason, of everything that he loves.

Where there is a mother, there is tenderness, the many shrines, images and chapels around the world dedicated to Mary remind us of this. And celebrating the Holy Mother of God reminds us that we are not orphans, that we all have a mother.”-St. Peter’s Basilica Vatican City, Jan 1, 2017
Today’s liturgy therefore challenges us to trust in God and never to be in despair no matter the ugly events of our lives, because our shepherd is always there to lead us to greener pastures and make our cups overflow with good wine. That is why the responsorial psalm reminds us that “We are his people, the sheep of his flock.” That means, as a shepherd never departs from his flock or allows them to be endangered, Jesus will never depart from us or allow us to be endangered. As a shepherd leads his flock to greener pastures, Jesus is leading us to a better life here on earth and to an eternal life there in heaven.

Today’s liturgy challenges us to be “listening sheep”. Jesus emphasized the qualities of his sheep when he said: “My sheep hear my voice... and they follow me”. As the sheep of Christ’s flock, do we listen to his voice in the words of the Sacred Scripture and in the teachings of the Church? How do we follow Christ as our shepherd? Do we have compassion on the poor as he did? Do we pray as he prayed and do we have passion for the things of God as he had? In our world today, priests are always there to help us hear the voice of Jesus and follow him through the celebration of the Word and Sacraments. How do we respond to their ministry as representatives of Christ who act in the person of Christ the head? Do we take advantage of their ministry to listen to the Word of God and receive the sacraments frequently?

Today, otherwise known as Vocations Sunday, we are challenged to pray for and support more vocations to the priesthood and religious life so that more people can hear the voice of the Shepherd and follow him. Our world needs an increase in vocations to attend to the spiritual needs of our increasing population and we are challenged to make this possible with our prayers and support. Our prayers will inspire and motivate more young people to respond positively to their divine call and our support will enable them to perform their tasks well.

Therefore, beloved friends, today the Lord tells you “Do not be afraid”. As the shepherd of your soul, he is there for you. All you need to do is to trust him, listen to his voice and follow him. In order to do this better, we have to co-operate with and pray for our priests and religious who will assist us to encounter the risen Lord in our difficult situations. Do you feel a strong desire to serve the Lord as a priest or religious? Then you have to pray and work towards its actualization. God loves you.- By: Uwakwe Chibuike (www.uwakwereflections.com)
IV DOMINGO DE PASCUA
DOMINGO 12 DE MAYO DE 2019
(Domingo del Buen Pastor)

LECTORES: Marlon Baldizón
Evelyn Ibarra

MINISTROS: Vilma Merlos
Luis Calderón
Magda McDonald

INTENCIÓN: Por nuestros amigos y hermanos en Cristo que han pasado a mejor vida. Josephine Lopez, Dora Santamaría Gil, Holg Huy, Elizabeth Pineda de Sánchez, Melissa Shanonian.
Paz a sus restos.

REFLEXIÓN:
Primera Lectura - Proviene del Libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles - En esta lectura se nos habla de cómo fueron los trabajos de los apóstoles después de la resurrección de Jesús.
Se nos muestra a Pablo y Bernabe en la sinagoga que a pesar de las dificultades que tuvieron en predicar y de las burlas, ellos siguieron anunciando el mensaje de amor a Jesús con alegría y llenos del Espíritu Santo. La palabra de Dios se iba propagando.

"Yo te he puesto como luz de los pueblos, pues que lleves la salvación hasta los últimos rincones de la tierra."

Segunda Lectura - Tomada del libro del Apocalipsis del apóstol Juan. - En este escrito nos presenta Juan, que en medio de una inmensa muchedumbre que representa a la humanidad, se coloca en el centro al Cordero, Cristo. Las vestiduras blancas simbolizan a hombres y mujeres que en unión con el Cordero han alcanzado la plenitud de la vida junto a Dios. Qué cada día nos vayamos revistiendo de ese vestido con una vida espiritual fuerte y que la sangre del Cordero sea nuestra fuerza para que podamos proclamar con nuestra vida, que el Cordero es el Pastor de todos, que nos conduce a fuente de agua viva.

Evangelio según San Juan. - En este evangelio Jesús aparece como el Buen Pastor, que alimenta, conduce, cuida y da vida a sus ovejas.
Un Pastor cercano que las defiende y que nadie se las arrebatará de sus manos. Escuchar y seguir a Jesús es lo que caracteriza a sus seguidores. Es necesario saber distinguir su voz en medio de tantos ruidos y palabras que hay en nuestro mundo. Seguir al Buen Pastor es tomar la opción de ir transformando el mundo, llenarlo de esperanza para hacerlo más digno y humano. Siguiendo el ejemplo de Jesús, podemos dar a otros ese amor que proviene del Buen Pastor, que no se cansa de amar y perdonar.

"Yo las conocía y ellas conocen mi voz."
