What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle’s flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece
was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

Support Groups
Fridays at St. Mary’s
Cathedral 1111
Gough St. SF
Monsignor Bowe Room
(west side of parking lot level)

First Friday each month, 1:00 – 3:00 pm: “Strength for the Journey” is a free monthly support group for people with life-threatening illness. In addition to spiritual support, these sessions provide guidance on Catholic teaching and the preparation of Health Care Directives for medical care. Third Friday each month, 10:30 am – 12:00 noon: Grief Support Group: A free monthly support group for people in the grieving process, offering tips on coping with the loss of loved ones. This is an opportunity to mourn in a safe, private, and confidential setting. For more information, or to register, contact Deacon Sandoval at 415-567-2020 Ext. 218.

Believe that He loves you.
He wants to help you Himself in the struggles which you must undergo.
Believe in His Love,
His exceeding Love.

-Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity
St. Elizabeth of the Trinity—The Saint of the Divine Indwelling

In a letter written just a few weeks before her death in the year 1906, a young Carmelite nun declared to a friend: "My beloved Antoinette, I leave you my faith in the presence of God, of the God who is all Love dwelling in our souls. I confide to you: it is this intimacy with Him 'within' that has been the beautiful sun illuminating my life, making it already an anticipated Heaven: it is what sustains me today in my suffering.' This young nun, St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, has since been given such titles as "the prophet of the presence of God," "the saint of the divine indwelling," or "the saint of one idea," because of her strong experience of the indwelling of God in her soul.

"If a man loves me," says the Lord, "he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him." (Jn 14.23)

St. Elizabeth had a profound and living experience of this great truth of our faith, also expressed in St. Paul's words to the Corinthians: "Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?" (1 Cor 3.16) She cites these words as she writes to a friend of hers.

I am going to give you my 'secret': think about this God who dwells within you, whose temple you are; St. Paul speaks in this way, and we can believe it. This young mystic understood God's constant presence within her as a sign of his great love for her. She writes to her mother: "Oh, may the Master reveal to you His divine presence, it is so pleasant and sweet, it gives so much strength to the soul; to believe that God loves us to the point of living in us, to become the Companion of our exile, our Confidant, our Friend at every moment."

-by Fr. Gregory Ross, O.C.D., S.T.L.

"May I be wholly pure, wholly transparent, so that the Trinity can be reflected in me as in a crystal."

LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD

INTENCIÓN: Por nuestros amigos y hermanos en Cristo que han pasado a mejor vida: Karen Chan, María Dolores Montano, Paul Navasca, Estefana Estrada, Kam Kuk Lam Lee. Qué descansen en paz.

Bendito sea Dios, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo, por que ha tenido misericordia con nosotros.

REFLEXIÓN:
Primera Lectura - En este texto tomado de Proverbios, se habla de la sabiduría. Antes de que se formara el mundo ya existía. La sabiduría procede de Dios y precede al mundo. Es posterior a Dios y anterior al universo de Dios. En esta lectura se nos dice que Dios es el artífice de toda creación. Qué el Espíritu Santo nos de su gracia para entender que sin Dios nada podemos hacer, pero con él todo lo podemos.

Segunda Lectura - En esta lectura tomada del apóstol Pablo a los romanos se habla de la fe que mira el porvenir y se convierte en esa fuerza que a lo largo se vuelve esperanza. Hay tres virtudes para permanecer en los caminos del Señor: fe, esperanza y amor. Si nosotros los vivimos, jamás nos sentiremos frustrados. A través de la fe y apoyados en la esperanza, nos gloriarmos de alcanzar la gracia de Dios. La esperanza del cristiano y su misión de la vida, no son un mero optimismo, sino que se basa en la experiencia interna del amor que Dios nos tiene.

En el Evangelio de hoy según San Juan, vemos la interrelación del Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Jesús todavía tiene muchas cosas que decirles a los discípulos pero será a través del Espíritu Santo y que Jesús a su vez los recibe del Padre. Todo lo que tiene el Padre es mío. El me glorificará. Pero cuando Jesús se refiere al Espíritu Santo, tercera persona de la Trinidad dice: muchas cosas me quedan por decirlos, pero no podréis cargar ahora con ellas. Cuando venga el Espíritu de la verdad, os guiará hasta la verdad plena.

La Santísima Trinidad es un misterio que no podemos entender con la razón. Es algo que solo podemos comprender cuando Dios nos lo revela. Qué en el misterio trinitario encontraremos la gracia de sentirnos amados y salvados, porque fue el Padre el que nos creó, el Hijo el que nos redimió y el Espíritu Santo el que nos santifica.
