Letter Campaign Against SB360, “Seal of Confession” Bill

For more info. contact Valerie Schmalz, Director, Office of Human Life & Dignity 415-614-5571 schmalzv@sfarch.org
sfarch.org/KeepTheSeal

Thank you to everyone who took the opportunity this weekend to contact their state Assembly representatives to voice opposition to SB360, proposed legislation that threatens the confidentiality of the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. The letters were collected and delivered to Sacramento. We’re very grateful to the numerous individuals who attended a public forum with the bill’s author, Rep. Jerry Hill, on Friday and spoke out to protect this sacrament from government interference. It is not too late to participate: Parishioners may still send a traditional or electronic letter, both available on the webpage above. Much more information is available on the website, as well.

Important Information

Please note that the pavement in the school yard will be resurfaced and there will be limited parking for the weekends of July 13th & 14th and July 20th & July 21st. Thank you for your cooperation.

Peter's Pence

Next weekend’s collection is for the Peter’s Pence Collection for Papal Charities
Sunday, July 7th

The Peter’s Pence Collection provides the Holy Father with the financial means to respond to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, natural disaster, and disease. This collection has raised nearly $190 million to support our suffering brothers and sisters around the globe. Thank you for standing in solidarity with the Holy See through your generosity.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 16:1-2,5,7-11
I set the Lord ever before me.

Second Reading
Galatians 5:1,13-18
Christ has set us free.

Gospel Reading
Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Background on the Gospel Reading
Today's Gospel reading begins a long section unique to Luke's Gospel. Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, which will end with his ministry in Jerusalem. We read that Jesus' days for being "taken up" were fulfilled. The Greek word that Luke uses for "taken up" is the same word he uses to describe the Ascension. We also read that Jesus is determined to journey to Jerusalem. For Luke, Jesus' ministry begins in Galilee and then is one long journey to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem he will meet his death but also enter into his glory. Only in Luke does Jesus then spend 40 days in Jerusalem instructing his disciples. It is in Jerusalem that his disciples wait after his Ascension to be sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. And it is from Jerusalem, in Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, that the Good News is spread to Rome and the ends of the earth.

Immediately Jesus is met with rejection, as a Samaritan village will not receive him because he is going to Jerusalem. And he will be rejected for the last time when he reaches Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people in the village, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on. There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. He is aware that he must undergo violence himself before he can enter his glory.

The rest of today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. The three people who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands Jesus will make of them. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family (as required by the Fourth Commandment) can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus reminds the first volunteer, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And the third, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plow you cannot look back or the furrow will be crooked. Such a person is not ready for the Kingdom of God.

Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.-Loyola Press

INTENCIÓN: Por nuestros amigos y hermanos en Cristo que han pasado a mejor vida: Grace Maynare, Raquel Martínez,
Philibert Chávez, Rosendo
Álvarez, Dora Madrigal.
Qué descansen en paz.

Pueblos todos, aplaudan y aclamen a Dios con gritos de júbilo.

REFLEXIÓN:
Primera Lectura - En esta lectura tomada del libro de los Reyes, el Señor le da la misión a Elías de unir a Eliseo para que sea su sucesor.
De esta forma Eliseo decide dejarlo todo para dedicarse luego a hacer oír la voz de Dios al pueblo de Israel. La vocación de Eliseo es semejante a cualquier llamada de Dios. Eliseo respondió a su vocación y continuó la misión de Elías.

Segunda Lectura - En esta lectura, de Pablo a los Gálatas, Pablo nos llama a vivir según el mismo Espíritu por el que hemos sido llamados, a una vocación determinada para actuar con libertad amando a nuestros hermanos. Pablo dice que hay que ser libres por amor y que ese amor nos lleva a ser esclavos de los hermanos. Cristo nos ha liberado. La libertad se expresa y alcanza su plenitud en el amor, es la disponibilidad para la gracia de Dios que supera la ley. El pecado esclaviza, la gracia nos hace libre para amar.

Evangelio según San Lucas - Jesús se dirige a Jerusalén, pero en su camino se encuentra con muchas dificultades y también personas que lo quieren seguir. Contrastando con la acostumbrada comprensión de Jesús hacia todo humano, aquí lo vemos en una actitud muy exigente. Jesús no está dispuesto a perder su tiempo en la formación de hombres que no están dispuestos a sacrificarlo todo por el Evangelio. Los que quieran seguir a Cristo, deben desprenderse de bienes materiales, romper con las ataduras del pasado. Solo as estaremos disponibles y seremos libres para anunciar el reino de Dios.” Pensemos en San Francisco de Asís, mendigando su pan en su propia ciudad, después de haber vivido como joven de familia rica.”
