Our second collection this week is for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS). They are of critical importance & have the sole responsibility for the spiritual care of approximately 1.8 million Catholic men, women, and children who hail from all 50 states and U.S. territories – including those from your own parish. Funds are especially needed to pay for the seminary formation of prospective Catholic military chaplains who are hoping to relieve a growing shortage on active duty. The AMS is responsible for paying half their formation expenses.

With no end in sight to the U.S. involved wars and conflicts around the world, the generosity of the Catholic community will continue to be essential for some time for the care of those who have fought and to help operate an annual budget of more than $8.2 million,. The AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or U.S. Military in support of its effort to provide pastoral care and services to the AMS faithful spread across the globe who face constant transition and uncertainty.-from a letter to Catholic U.S. pastors by Archbishop Broglio

First Reading
Wisdom 18:6-9
The Hebrew people

awaited the salvation of the just.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 33:1,12,18-22

Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:1-2,8-19

We will look for the city designed and built by God.

Gospel Reading

Luke 12:32-48

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

Background on the Gospel Reading

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like.

This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry—we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived. -Loyola Press

By his heroic conduct on the battlefield, and his inspiring example, Lt. Capodanno upheld the finest traditions of the U.S. Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life in the cause of freedom.

Servant of God
Fr. Vincent Robert Capodanno
1929 - 1967
Marynoll Priest
Naval / Marine Chaplain

In response to reports that the 2d Platoon of M Company was in danger of being overrun by a massed enemy assaulting force, Father Vincent Capodanno left the relative safety of the company command post and ran through an open area raked with fire, directly to the beleaguered platoon. Disregarding the intense enemy fire, he moved about the battlefield administering last rites to the dying and giving medical aid to the wounded.

When an exploding mortar round inflicted painful multiple wounds to his arms and legs, he steadfastly refused all medical aid. Instead, he directed the corpsmen to help their wounded comrades. Upon encountering a wounded corpsman in the direct line of enemy fire, Lt. Capodanno rushed a daring attempt to aid and assist him. At that instant, only inches from his goal, he was struck down and died.

Prayer to Obtain a Favor Through the Intercession of the Servant of God Father Vincent R. Capodanno, M.M. by Cardinal Edwin F. O'Brien

May God who has offered healing and strength through the hands of the His only Son, Our Lord, and through Christ's many servants grant me the favor of His healing hand through the intercession of His servant, Father Vincent Capodanno, priest, missionary, and chaplain, who always sought to heal and comfort the wounded and dying on the field of battle. May I be granted this request on my own field of battle I pray in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

XIX DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
DOMINGO 11 DE AGOSTO 2019

LECTORES: Karla Hernández
Valeria Balderramos

MINISTROS: Roberto González
Violeta Sarria
Vilma Merlos

INTENCIÓN: Por nuestros amigos y hermanos en Cristo que han pasado a mejor vida: Evelyn Sutherland, Gloria María Navas, Ricardo Navalta, Zakia Tamey, Sonia Recinos. Qué descansen en la Paz del Señor.

Acuérdate, Señor, de tu alianza, no olvides por más tiempo la suerte de tus pobres. Levántate, Señor, a defender tu causa, no olvides las voces de los que te buscan.

REFLEXIÓN:

Primera Lectura - En esta lectura se dice que la liberación pascual fue previamente conocida por nuestros padres, para que se confortasen al reconocer firmes los juramentos en que creyeron. En la mano de Dios todo es providencia y en cualquier momento podemos entender las lecciones de los tiempos pasados.

Segunda Lectura - En esta lectura el punto fundamental es la Fe. La fe es la garantía de lo que se espera, las pruebas de las realidades que no se ven. Nuestros antepasados tuvieron muchos episodios de fe. Pero si nos enfocamos en esta lectura, vemos la fe de Abraham que peregrinó y hasta iba a sacrificar a su único hijo. La fe de Sara, su esposa, que confiando en la promesa de Dios quedo embarazada a pesar de ser mayor edad. También nosotros somos personas de fe, por eso vamos a la Iglesia, por eso hacemos oración, por eso luchamos por un mundo mejor, etc. Esta forma de comportarnos son manifestaciones de fe.

La Fe Mueve Montañas

Evangelio Según San Lucas - En este evangelio Jesús nos invita a estar vigilantes, a estar preparados. Esto exige dos cosas: atención y lucidez. Atención a lo que realmente importa, a lo que se aguarda, a lo que mantiene viva nuestra espera; lucidez, para ver o mejor para esperar aun lo que no se ve.

Jesús nos exorta a la vigilancia en la espera de su retorno. Dichosos los siervos que están despiertos, para admirar, alegrarse, descubrir la presencia de Dios y sus favores que iluminaran nuestra vida diaria. "Ellos tendrán gratificación." Lo que nos dice este evangelio también es aplicable en nuestra vida. Debemos estar preparados: con la oración, servicio a nuestro prójimo y la disponibilidad para que el Señor nos conceda estar en la mejor posición en el tiempo de su llegada.
