22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Cycle C, September 1st, 2019

First Reading

Sirach 3:17-18,20,28-29

Humble yourself and you will find favor with God

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 68:4-7,10-11

The just rejoice and exult before God.

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-19,22-24

You have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem.

Gospel Reading

Luke 14:1,7-14

When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

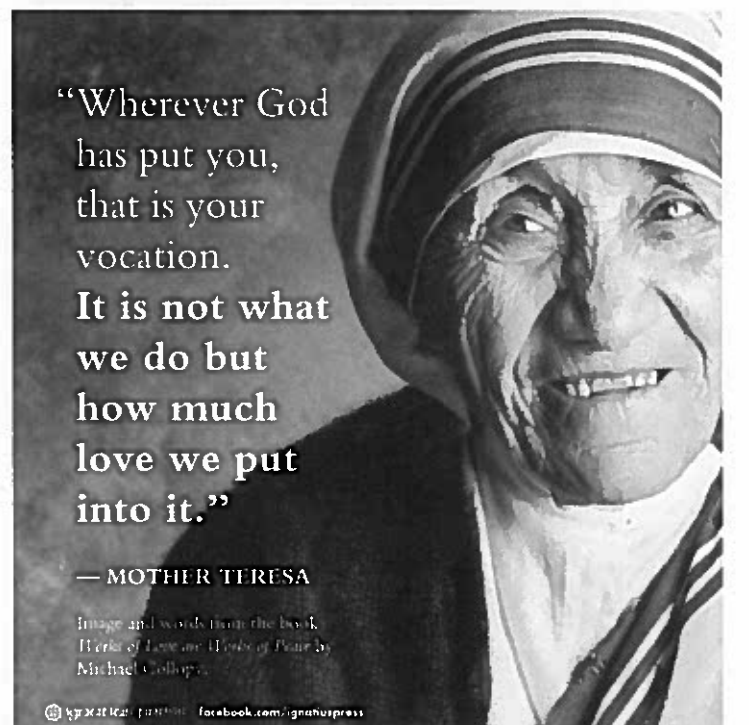

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

XXII DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
DOMINGO 1 de Septiembre 2019

LECTORES: Armando & MaryLou Balderramos

MINISTROS: Roberto González
Violeta Sarria
Vilma Merlos

INTENCIÓN: Por nuestros amigos y hermanos en Cristo que han pasado a mejor vida: Darío Montenegro, Albert Collins, Marrie Harrison, Sayed Alí, Sela Henriquez. Qué nuestro Señor los tenga en su santa Gloria.

Dios mío, ten piedad de mi, pues sin cesar te invoco: tú eres bueno y clemente, y rico en misericordia con quien te invoca.

REFLEXIÓN:

Primera Lectura - Esta primera lectura proviene del libro del Eclesiástico que es un libro muy profundo con enseñanzas muy hermosas para nuestra vida. Hoy esta lectura nos invita a ser modesto, humilde para poder alcanzar el favor de Dios y ser bien visto a los ojos de la sociedad. La modestia cuando es sincera hace que la persona sea amada, que su compañía sea deseada. Y si actúas con humildad tendrás mayor recompensa y te amarán más que al hombre dadivoso.

Segunda Lectura - En esta lectura se habla de que el acercamiento de los hebreos hacia Dios fue a través de la fe. Los hebreos no tuvieron señales como los tuvieron sus antepasados en el Sinaí. Sino que a través de su fe, su forma de vida y los elementos de culto que tenían fueron cambiados y perfeccionados por Cristo Jesús.

Evangelio según San Lucas - Este evangelio es muy interesante ya que hace observaciones muy importantes para nuestra vida. Jesús es invitado a una fiesta y nota que muchos de los invitados quieren ocupar lugares de primera fila. Cuando te conviden no te sientes en el puesto principal, puede que te obliguen a ceder ese puesto y te sentirás avergonzado. En nuestra sociedad eso es muy común ya que creemos que se saca mayor provecho al relacionarnos con el que está más alto y queremos colgarnos del peldaño que está más arriba. Puede que eso sea cierto, pero también del pobre, del necesitado podemos sacar provecho: amor, humildad, caridad, generosidad desinteresada. Es por eso que Jesús también hace un llamado al dueño de la fiesta. De no olvidarse de los necesitados así como Jesús no se olvidó de ellos en su banquete universal en el Sermón de la Montaña con las Bienaventuranzas: felices los pobres, felices los necesitados, felices los que tienen hambre y sed justicia.

TODO EL QUE SE ENALTECE SERA HUMILLADO Y EL QUE SE HUMILLA SERA ENALTECIDO.
