Fall Back
1 Hour

Sunday, Nov 3rd, 2019
Daylight Saving Time Ends
Please turn your clocks back one hour. Sunrise and sunset will be about one hour earlier on November 3rd than the day before. There will be more light in the morning and time to sleep more. Zzzzz 😺

All Saints’ Day

All Saints Day, Nov. 1st, Friday, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass will be at 9:00am with the school. There will be a 6:30pm Mass in honor of Santo Niño and All Saints Day. There will be no 8:00am Mass that day. May all the saints intercede for us and bring us closer to God.

All Souls Day will be celebrated on Saturday, Nov. 2nd at 9:00am and is the commemoration of all the faithful departed. Let us always remember them in prayer and offer Masses for them. They are waiting for us and will be reunited with us for all eternity. May they rest in the peace of Our Lord’s eternal embrace.

This weekend’s second collection is for World Mission Sunday. This is an opportunity to help missions throughout the world by contributing generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. It is also a worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions and missionaries, within the Extraordinary Missionary Month of October, as called for by Pope Francis. As Archbishop Cordileone has written, “Pope Francis invites all baptized Christians to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ through prayer, meditation on the Word of God, and pilgrimage. I invite all of us in this Archdiocese to take this opportunity to revitalize our ardor, passion, and zeal for the faith with loving, missionary hearts.”

Remembrance Mass

Saturday, Nov. 9th at 9:00am
It is an ongoing tradition at St. Finn Barr Parish to have a special Mass offered for all the faithful departed who have received memorial services or have been buried from our parish recently. This special Mass is also offered up for all loved ones recommended by our parishioners who have gone to their eternal home in the last two years. We invite you to join us in prayer, as we ask Our Heavenly Father to grant them eternal rest. Please submit the names of your loved ones to the rectory at secretary@sfsf.org or 415-333-3627, no later than Friday, Nov. 1st for inclusion in the list of names for the Mass. May Our Lady of Sorrows accompany their families on the path of healing and consolation.

One-day Nationwide Screening of St. Faustina Movie:
Love & Mercy, Monday, October 28th. In 1931, Jesus appeared to Faustina Kowalska as the King of Mercy. Clothed in a white robe & emanating two large rays from his side, one white and one red, He asked Faustina to paint this image of Himself along with the phrase “Jesus, I trust in You,” and to spread the message of mercy around the world. He promised that anyone who venerated this image would not perish. The gripping new docudrama Love and Mercy presents unknown facts & recently disclosed documents that shed new light on the vision of Faustina. The film debuts for one night only, October 28th, at approximately 700 theaters across the United States. There are several showings at 7pm, across the Bay Area; Century at Tanforan in San Bruno & Daly City 20; fathomevents.com/events/faustina-love-and-mercy/theaters.
First Reading
Exodus 17:8-13
Joshua and the Israelites defeat Amalek with the help of God and his servant, Moses.

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 121:1-2,3-4,5-6,7-8
The Lord is the Guardian of Israel.

Second Reading
2 Timothy 3:14—4:2
Paul exhorts Timothy to continue to preach the word Timothy received from his teachers.

Gospel Reading
Luke 18:1-8
Jesus urges his disciples to pray and not lose heart, for God hears and answers prayers.

Background on the Gospel Reading
This is the first of two parables that Jesus tells in Luke 18 about prayer. (The second will be read at Mass next Sunday.) This first parable is a lesson in persistence in prayer. (Next Sunday's parable will address attitude in prayer.) While the parable seems to present prayer as nagging God for what we want, such a reading misses the point. God is not like the judge in the parable, worn down by requests and coerced to respond. The key is found in the description of the judge as corrupt and unjust. Since God can be neither, we must understand Jesus to be saying that if even an unjust judge responds to the persistence of the widow, how much more so will God listen to our prayers. God truly wants to hear our needs and respond generously. It is the final lament of Jesus that gets to the point of the parable. The lesson is about the persistence of the one who prays. God wants us to be like the persistent widow, staying in relationship with God, confident that God hears and answers prayers. Then Jesus laments, “Will such faith be found when the Son of Man comes?” In this lament, Jesus notes how easy it can be for us to lose heart. -Loyola Press

Feast Day-Tuesday, October 22nd

'It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you.'
-Saint John Paul II

Quotes from St. John Paul II: You perceive it in the depths of your heart: all that is good on earth, all professional success, even the human love that you dream of, can never fully satisfy your deepest and most intimate desires. Only an encounter with Jesus can give full meaning to your lives.

Today Christ is asking each of you the same question: do you love Me? He is not asking you whether you know how to speak to crowds, whether you can direct an organization or manage an estate. He is asking you to love Him. All the rest will ensue.

Be generous in answering Jesus’ call inviting you to put out into the deep and become His witnesses, discovering the trust He puts in you to devise a future together with Him. Above all, to fulfill this mission the Church is entrusting to you, requires that you cultivate a genuine life of prayer nourished by the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist and Confession.
XXIXDOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
DOMINGO 20 DE OCTUBRE 2019

LECTORES: Karla Hernández
Valeria Balderramos

MINISTROS: Luis Calderón
Magda McDonald
Alejandra González

INTENCION: Hoy Domingo recordemos a nuestros amigos y hermanos que han pasado a mejor vida: Amelia Górs, Arzobispo Dominic Jala, Padre Mathew Veilankal, Silvio Sáenz (1 año). Que nuestro Señor los tenga en su Santa Gloria.

Te invoco, Dios mío, porque tu me respondes; inclina tu oído y escucha mis palabras. Cuidame, Señor, como a la niña de tus ojos y cúbreme bajo la sombra de tus alas.

REFLEXIÓN:
Primera Lectura - Del libro del Exodo.
En esta lectura se narra la victoria de los israelitas sobre los amalecitas. Los israelitas al ser atacados responden con Josué al frente del combate y Moisés a través de la oración. Moisés levanta su bastón con el cual obra prodigios. Y con la ayuda de Aarón y Jur lo mantiene en lo alto hasta que los amalecitas fueron vencidos. De Dios viene la victoria.

Segunda Lectura - De Pablo a Timoteo.
En esta lectura Pablo le recomienda a Timoteo que se profunde en las Escrituras ya que a través de ella podrá ayudar más a su pueblo. La Sagrada Escritura está inspirada por Dios y allí está la verdadera sabiduría que te llevará a la salvación mediante la fe en Cristo Jesús.

Evangelio - Según San Lucas.
Con la parábola de la viuda insiste por, Jesús nos da una lección de cómo debe ser nuestra oración. Es importante orar antes de desfallecer. El poder de la oración pone acento en la perseverancia e insistencia con que debemos acudir a Dios, y lo hace a través de la viuda insiste. El juez ayuda a la viuda pero no lo hace con el propósito de quedarse en ella, sino más bien para que no lo siga molestando. Nosotros en nuestras oraciones debemos ser perseverantes. (El que persevera alcanza). Hay muchas personas que se fijan solamente en lo injusto y absurdo de la vida. Pero eso no es así. Si nosotros sabemos orar perseveradamente, descubriremos poco a poco que todo esto no es tan absurdo como parece, y llegaremos a reconocer a través de los acontecimientos el rostro de un Dios que nos ama y a su justicia en todo lo que hace.
