The following prayer was written by
St. Frances Xavier Cabrini.

Fortify me with the grace of Your Holy Spirit and give Your peace to my soul that I may be free from all needless anxiety, solicitude and worry. Help me to desire always that which is pleasing and acceptable to You so that Your will may be my will. Amen

"I travel, work, suffer my weak health, meet with a thousand difficulties, but all these are nothing, for this world is so small. To me, space is an imperceptible object, as I am accustomed to dwell in eternity."

St. Vincent de Paul Stay Warm Campaign for Homeless -San Mateo

The homeless in San Mateo County are in great need. The County doesn't have enough shelter beds to care for its residents. Now that the weather has turned cold, the numbers are rising. At times, the best SVdP can offer is a warm, dry sleeping bag, coat, socks, gloves and a hat. These items are important now more than ever. When there's no affordable indoor shelter, people—even people with jobs—sleep under buildings, in back seats of cars, and on the street. Many homeless in our area will not be able to survive the cold and wet weather because they lack critical survival necessities and cold weather gear to protect themselves from exposure to hypothermia and other potential life-threatening conditions. Your donation of $30 would provide gloves, hats and scarves for three people; $100 gives jackets and rain gear to a family of five.

Faustina Movie Is Back by Popular Demand Monday,
December 2nd; Various locations

St. Faustina Kowalska was a Polish nun who died at age 33 in 1938 and was canonized in 2000. In 1931, Jesus appeared to her as the King of Mercy. Clothed in a white robe and emanating two large rays from his side, one white and one red, he asked Faustina to paint this image of Himself along with the phrase "Jesus, I trust in You," and to spread the message of Divine Mercy around the world. The gripping new docudrama: Love and Mercy played for one night only, October 28, at 700 theaters across the United States. It is back for a second showing on December 2nd.

Presently, more than two dozen theaters in the greater Bay Area are scheduled to show it. Visit the website below for complete info:

Gospel Reading

Luke 20:27-38

Jesus answers a question from some Sadducees about the resurrection of the dead. (short form Luke 20:27, 34-38)

Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel, we hear about an encounter between Jesus and some Sadducees. The Sadducees were a party of Judaism active in Jesus' time, descended from the priestly family of Zadok. They were literal interpreters of the written Law of Moses, which means that they were in disagreement with the position of the Pharisees, who offered an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses.

The Sadducees are described in this Gospel as opponents to the belief in resurrection. The Sadducees use the example of Levirate marriage, found in the Law of Moses, to disprove belief in the resurrection. According to Deuteronomy 25:5-10, if a man died without producing an heir, the man's brother should marry his wife and the offspring of this union would inherit the property and carry on the name of the man who had died. The Sadducees use this as an example to challenge belief in the resurrection.

Jesus argues from the same written Law of Moses to show that there is resurrection. Using the texts from the Book of Exodus (Chapter 3) that describe Moses' encounter with God in the burning bush, Jesus shows that God is the God of the living, not the dead. Here Jesus uses the same method and texts of the Sadducees to counter them. As the Gospel text suggests, he beat them at their own game!

More importantly, in this discourse Jesus shows the limits of our imaginations when it comes to eternal life. The Sadducees argued against resurrection because of the limits of earthly existence. They did not imagine another possibility for existence and relationship with God. Jesus proposes that the possibilities of resurrected life are beyond our imaginations. Jesus' conclusion suggests something else as well: To spend time worrying about resurrected life is to miss the point. The point is eternal relationship with God is possible, for God is the God of the living, ". . . for to him all are alive." -Loyola Press

The feast day of
St. Frances
Xavier Cabrini is celebrated on November
13. She is the patron saint of immigrants, orphans and against malaria.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini was born in Lombardi, Italy in 1850. She wanted to become a nun but was hindered by poor health. She became a teacher, teaching at a girl's school for six years. Frances took religious vows in 1877, adding Xavier to her name to honor St. Francis Xavier. At the request of her bishop, she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart to care for poor children. At the urging of Pope Leo XIII, she immigrated to the United States with six nuns to work with Italian immigrants. She crossed the Atlantic ocean in spite of her great fear of water.

In 1909, St. Frances Xavier Cabrini became a naturalized United States citizen. She died from malaria at the age of 67, on December 22, 1917, at Columbus Hospital in Chicago, IL. In 1931, her body was exhumed, found partially incorrupt, and is now enshrined under glass in the altar at St. Frances Cabrini Shrine in Manhattan.

XXXIIDOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
DOMINGO 10 DE NOVIEMBRE 2019

LECTORES: Armando & MaryLou Balderramos

MINISTROS: Luis Calderón
Magda McDonald
Alejandra González

INTENCIÓN: Hoy Domingo recordemos a nuestros amigos y hermanos que han pasado a mejor vida: Debbie Chemla, Ana Gloria Aguilar, Raymond Samonte Madrid, Padre John Connery, Abigail Arias y Arnulfo Meza. Qué nuestro Señor los tenga en su santa gloria.

*Que llegue hasta ti mi súplica, Señor.
Inclina tu oído a mi clamor.*

REFLEXIÓN:

Primera Lectura – Del Segundo Libro de los Macabeos. En las Sagradas Escrituras se leen hechos inquebrantables de fe. Que por esa fe son capaces hasta de morir. Y esto lo vemos en esta lectura de los Macabeos en que la madre y sus siete hijos afrontaron heroicamente la muerte con tal de no violar la ley mosaica. Este ejemplo héroeico anticipa el testimonio de miles de mártires. Este martirio de la madre y sus hijos nos confirma la fe en la inmortalidad.

Dios nos resucitará a una vida eterna.

Segunda Lectura - De San Pablo a los Tesalonicenses. En esta lectura Pablo nos dice que si Dios nos ha dado todo sin condición, también nosotros debemos corresponderle de la misma manera. Así dice Pablo a los Tesalonicenses, que nuestro Señor que los ha amado y que les ha dado gratuitamente una consolación eterna y esperanza dichosa, también consuele vuestros corazones y los afiance en toda obra y palabra buena para que así puedan luchar contra la injusticia y propagar con rapidez la Palabra de Dios.

Evangelio Según San Lucas - En este evangelio Lucas nos habla de como Jesús es provocado una vez con preguntas insidiosas por los seduceos que no creían en la resurrección. Es por eso que le preguntan que pasará con situaciones en esta vida y después de la resurrección, refiriéndose más que todo a la historia de la mujer que se casó con los siete hermanos. Jesús dice que la existencia después de la muerte será diferente de la existencia de la tierra. Es por eso que la Iglesia nos invita a poner los ojos en nuestra vida futura. Se centra en la resurrección de la cual gozaremos con Cristo. En la resurrección seremos hijos de Dios, hijos de la resurrección.

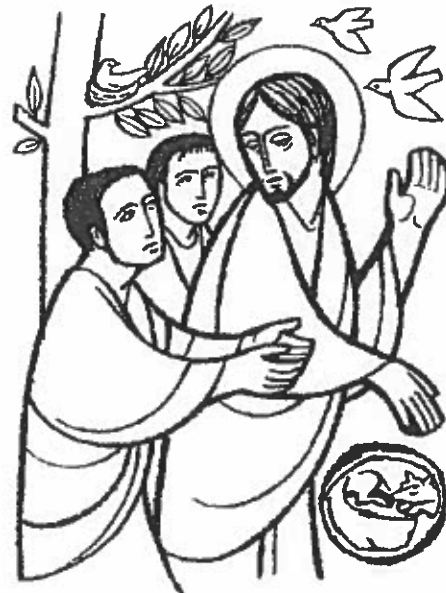

“La Resurrección de los muertos y la vida del mundo futuro.” Amen.
