Background on the Gospel Reading

This Sunday is the second to last Sunday of our liturgical year. As we approach the end of the Church year, our Gospel invites us to consider Jesus' predictions and teaching about the end of the world. In the context of Mark's Gospel, Jesus' words about this are spoken to his disciples as he prepares them for his passion and death.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus' observation about the contributions being made to the temple treasury and the example of sacrificial giving that he saw in the poor widow's offering. If we had been reading Mark's Gospel continuously, we would have heard Jesus predict the destruction of the Temple, his teaching about the costs of discipleship, and the woes that will accompany the end times. Finally, we would have heard Jesus instruct his disciples about the need for watchfulness so that they will not be caught unprepared for this final day of judgment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus continues this teaching by offering his disciples signs to look for that will indicate that the coming of the Son of Man is near. His words and images draw upon Old Testament imagery, especially images found in the Book of Daniel. Next, Jesus offers the lesson of the fig tree, a parable that teaches that if one knows how to read the signs, one can be prepared for the end times. Jesus also teaches, however, that no one knows when the end time will come, except the Father. In the verses that follow this reading in Mark's Gospel, Jesus continues to warn his disciples to be on watch for this end time.

Jesus' words are not spoken to frighten his disciples, nor should they frighten us. Rather, they are offered to prepare us for the changes we will experience during our lifetimes and at the end times. Our consolation and hope is found in the lasting nature of Jesus' words and God's never-ending love for us.-Loyola Press

Arise, soldiers of Christ, throw away the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.

Saint Cecilia, pray for us that we have the courage to fight the good fight for Christ.

Most gracious God, whose blessed martyr Cecilia sang in her heart to strengthen her witness to you: We give you thanks for the makers of music whom you have gifted with Pentecostal fire; and we pray that we may join with them in creation's song of praise until at the last, with Cecilia and all your saints, we come to share in the song of those redeemed by our Savior Jesus Christ; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

XXXIII DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO
DOMINGO 17 DE NOVIEMBRE 2019

LECTORES: Elizabeth Gómez
Zoila Huerta

MINISTROS: Carmen Domínguez
Indiana Argüello
Marjorie Hernández

INTENCIÓN: Hoy Domingo recordemos a nuestros amigos y hermanos que han pasado a mejor vida: Luis Almendarez, Eli Adams, Arnulfo Meza. Qué nuestro Señor los tenga en su santa gloria.

Yo tengo designios de paz, no de aflicción, dice el Señor. Ustedes me invocarán y yo los escucharé, y los libraré de la esclavitud donde quiera que se encuentren.

REFLEXIÓN:

Primera Lectura – Del profeta Malaquías. Según esta lectura, Malaquías es un profeta que viene a corregir costumbres malas de la comunidad. A través de este profeta, Dios envía un mensaje muy fuerte a su pueblo. Si hacen el bien, algún día verán el Sol de justicia, saltarán como novillo y pisotearán a los malvados. En nuestras vidas, este mensaje de Dios pongámoslo en práctica.

Segunda Lectura - De Pablo a los tesalonicenses. Pablo en esta lectura les dice al pueblo de Tesalónica que deben vivir en base al ejemplo que él les dió mientras estuvo con ellos. Yo los exorto a que trabajen con sosiego para comer su propio pan. Esto se los digo porque me he enterado de que hay entre vosotros algunos que no quieren trabajar. Solo quieren recibir sin aportar nada a la sociedad. En nuestros días también hay situaciones como ésta y este mensaje de Pablo debe ser aplicable en nuestras vidas.

Si alguno no quiere trabajar, que tampoco coma.

Evangelio según San Lucas - El evangelio de hoy forma parte de los famosos discursos sobre el fin del mundo. En este Evangelio Jesús nos dice que no quedará piedra sobre piedra, y que vendrán días difíciles. Y cuando se le pregunta que cuando será, El les responde que se cuiden de no ser engañados. Vendrán falsos mesías y en los tiempos habrán guerras, terremotos, pestes, pero no se asusten, todavía no es el fin. El evangelio de hoy contrapone el presente y el futuro. De vez en cuando alguien nos anunciará la proximidad del fin del mundo y nosotros nos preguntaremos cuando será. Aquí lo importante no es conocer una fecha futura, sino vivir sin miedo el presente. Y eso cómo hacerlo? Cumpliendo con nuestras obligaciones como cristianos, ser dadivoso, humilde, misericordioso, etc. De esa forma estaremos preparados para la llegada del fin.
