The Archdiocese of San Francisco is committed to the health and well-being of our students, employees, clergy, parishioners and the communities we serve. In recent weeks you have been watching the unfortunate COVID-19 situation unfold throughout our country and specifically in the Bay Area and the counties we serve, where the number of those infected with the COVID-19 virus continues to rise.

Throughout these past few weeks various leaders in the Chancery have been in communication and have worked in close collaboration with the CDC, the San Francisco Department of Public Health, and others. In addition, we have received regular reports from the various departments in the Chancery who work directly with parishes.

NEW – Catholic School Closures

schools.sfarch.org

On March 10, Pamela Lyons, Superintendent of Schools, issued a letter to Catholic school parents announcing that the Archdiocese will close its school buildings and cancel classes and student-related activities from March 12 through March 25. This closure includes any planned school events, such as fundraisers, community events as well as field trips. School buildings will not be open to children, parents, or community members. Course content will be delivered utilizing the Archdiocesan distance learning protocol which has been distributed to all schools.
A Coronavirus Prayer

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” At your command, the sick was made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages “curing every disease and illness.” Come to our aid now, that we may experience your healing love.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professionals who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ heal us.

Jesus reveals himself to the Samaritan woman at the well. (shorter form: John 4:5-15,19b-26,39a,40-42)

Background on the Gospel Reading
On this Sunday and the next two Sundays, we break from reading the Gospel of Matthew to read from John’s Gospel. The Gospel of John is the only Gospel not assigned to a particular liturgical year. Instead, readings from John’s Gospel are interspersed throughout our three-year liturgical cycle.

In today’s Gospel, the dialogue between Jesus and a woman from Samaria is among the most lengthy and most theological found in Scripture. The most startling aspect of the conversation is that it happens at all. Jesus, an observant Jew of that time, was expected to avoid conversation with women in public. The animosity between the Jews and the Samaritans should have prevented the conversation as well. The woman herself alludes to the break from tradition: “How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” Yet Jesus not only converses with the woman, he also asks to share her drinking vessel, an action that makes him unclean according to Jewish law. The initial conversation between Jesus and the woman is better understood if we consider the importance of water, especially in the climate of Israel. At first, the woman understands Jesus’ promise of “living water” in a literal sense: “Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.” With no running water, the daily trip to the well by the women of the community was of paramount importance. The women of the town would have traveled to the well in the early morning, but this woman came to the well at noon, the hottest time of the day. The timing of her visit is a clear sign that she is an outcast within the Samaritan community. We learn in her conversation with Jesus that she is an outcast because of her “many husbands.”

Behind the conversation lies the animosity and rivalry between the Jews and the Samaritans. Samaritans shared Jewish ancestry, but Samaritans had intermarried with foreigners when they lived under the rule of the Assyrians. Samaritan religion included worship of Yahweh, but was also influenced by the worship of other gods. When the Jews refused Samaritan help in the building of the Temple at Jerusalem, the Samaritans eventually built a temple for themselves at Mt. Gerizim (the same mountain mentioned by the woman at the well). Like the Jews, the Samaritans believed that a Messiah would come.

The high point of the conversation is when Jesus reveals himself to her as the Messiah. His answer to the Samaritan woman’s questions about worship is meant to predict a time when worshiping in truth and spirit will become the way to worship.

After the conversation, the Samaritan woman becomes a disciple. Even though she is an outcast and not a Jew, she returns to her town to lead others to Jesus and to wonder whether she has found the Messiah. The Samaritan townspeople return with her to meet Jesus for themselves, and many are said to come to believe in him.

The significance of the encounter between Jesus and the Samaritan woman has many levels. The first is personal: The woman is herself converted to belief in Jesus as Messiah because he knows her sin but speaks with her just the same. The second is social: Having come to know Jesus as the Messiah, the Samaritan townspeople become an evangelist to her own people.

The third level of the story is educational: Jesus uses his encounter with the Samaritan woman to teach his disciples that God’s mercy is without limit. The disciples return from their shopping quite confused to find Jesus talking with a Samaritan, and a woman at that! But the conversion of the Samaritan townspeople is a foretaste of the kind of open community that will be created among those who believe that Jesus is the Messiah.

TERCER DOMINGO DE CUARESMA
DOMINGO 15 DE MARZO 2020

LECTORES: Armando & MaryLou Balderramos

MINISTROS: Indiana Argüello

INTENCIÓN: Hoy Domingo recordemos a nuestros amigos y hermanos que han pasado a mejor vida, en especial hoy por Esduardo Dell’Acqua. Qué nuestro Señor lo tenga en su santa gloria.

Mis ojos están siempre fijos en el Señor, pues él libra mis pies de toda trampa. ¡Mirame, Señor, y ten piedad de mi, que estoy solo y afligido.

REFLEXIÓN:
Primera Lectura - Del Libro del Exodo.
En esta lectura se nos presenta un episodio de rebelión y protesta del pueblo hacia Moisés. Después de haber liberado al pueblo de Israel de los egipcios, Moisés los lleva a través del desierto. Al comienzo había mucha energía y entusiasmo, pero después comenzaron las dificultades: el calor sofocante, cansancio y sobre todo sed. Ante tantos problemas, el pueblo comienza a dudar de la fidelidad de Dios. “Está o no está con nosotros el Señor.” Moisés clama ayuda al Señor y ante este desafío, el Señor pide a Moisés golpear la roca con su bastón para que salga agua. Este acontecimiento ha quedado en la historia como Meribá y Massá.-

Segunda Lectura - Del apóstol San Pablo a los romanos. En esta lectura Pablo nos pide que a través de la fe, nos mantengamos en paz con Dios.- La fe mira el porvenir y se convierte en esperanza. Y hoy Pablo nos dice que la esperanza no tiene fundamento en nuestras buenas obras, sino en el amor de Dios, ese amor que nos dio al morir por nosotros.

Evangelio según San Juan - En este Evangelio se narra el encuentro de Jesús con la mujer samaritana. Jesús bien cansado se acerca al pozo para saciar su sed. Este encuentro ha quedado en la historia como Meribá y Massá.

QUE ES LA CUARESMA? Es el tiempo litúrgico de conversión que marca la Iglesia para prepararnos a la gran fiesta de Pascua. Es tiempo de arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados, de cambiar algo en nosotros para ser mejores y poder vivir más cerca de Cristo. La Cuaresma dura cuarenta días, comienza el Miércoles de Ceniza y termina el Domingo de Ramos.
