

THE SPECIAL CLOTHES THE PRIEST WEARS AT MASS

The priest wears special clothes at Mass to show that Mass is a special celebration. Directions: Color the pictures. Read the descriptions. Match the pictures with the descriptions. Then fill in the blank letters.

- The alb is a long white robe that the priest puts on over regular clothes. It is white to remind us of goodness and purity.

- The cincture is a cord the priest ties around the waist. It is used like a belt.

- The stole is a long piece of cloth worn around the shoulders. Priests wear stoles whenever they are celebrating Mass or the sacraments.

- The chasuble is put on over the alb, cincture, and stole. It is like a cape that travelers wore a long time ago. The color of the chasuble tells us what kind of feast we are celebrating.

COLORS USED AT MASS

Directions: Color the chasuble for each feast.

White

expresses purity, joy, glory.

White is used for celebrations of the joyful and glorious mysteries of the life of Jesus, feasts of Mary and the saints who are not martyrs. White is also used during a Mass of the Resurrection.

Red

expresses love.

Red is used on all feasts of the Lord's passion and of the Holy Cross. It is used for the feasts of the apostles and martyrs. Red is also used for the feast of Pentecost.

Violet

expresses penance, sorrow, and/or waiting.

Violet or purple is used during the season of Advent to remind us about the hope-filled wait for the coming of Jesus. It is used during Lent as a sign of penance.

Green

expresses hope and trust.

Green is used during Ordinary Time of the Church year to show that we are a people of faith and hope.

Rose

expresses joy.

Rose is sometimes used in place of purple on the Third Sunday of Advent to express the joy of Christ's coming. It is used on the Fourth Sunday of Lent to show that we are on our way to Easter joy.

Gold

expresses honor and praise.

Gold is sometimes used in place of white.

Blue

expresses joyful waiting; hopefulness.

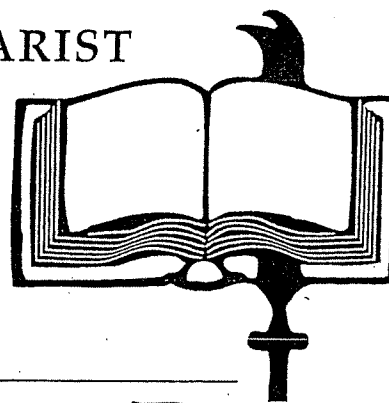

Blue can be used during the season of Advent in place of purple or violet.
