

PLANS OF HOPE

HOUMA-THIBODAUX PARISH PLANNING

Characteristics of a Potential Small Group Mentor

1. You have observed that they may have a “gift” for journeying with and relating to youth in their faith journey.
2. They have a passion for intentionally forming young people as disciples in the parish.
3. They recognize a need for an approach to youth formation that includes more than the current focus on intellectual formation alone.
4. They have the potential to journey with young people in their human and spiritual formation.
5. They have the intellectual capacity to understand “the nine” and “the five”.
6. They desire on-going personal formation and desire to be a living witness of “the nine” characteristics of a mature missionary disciple.
7. They are taking personal steps to grow as a disciple of Jesus Christ.
8. More than anything, they possess a love for Jesus and a love for young people.
