- Faith Ministries International: 985-665-8476 or <http://faithministry.vpweb.com> : assistance with the payment of headstones and/or some funeral expenses for children who have died.
- Office of Veteran's Affairs: 857-3626: they offer different amounts of benefits depending on if the death was caused by military service or not.
 - ✓ If the family choses a whole body donation through Science Care (see above): Along with the no-cost benefits of the body donation program, the family may arrange to have the veteran donor's cremated remains interred in a national cemetery in the same manner and with the same honors as casketed remains at no cost. Their Family Services team can help with this process.
- Social Security: If the deceased paid into Social Security for at least 40 quarters, a $255 burial expense benefit can be applied for either by the family or by the funeral director with payment going directly to the funeral home.
- St. Jospeh Abbey: 985-867-5161 or <http://www.saintjosephabbey.com/about-woodworks> : the monks make wooden caskets for a low cost.
 - ✓ The Monday Night Disciples: 504-454-6094 or www.mondaynightdisciples.org: they make cypress caskets for babies that have died.
- Truck Drivers: <http://truckersfinalmile.org>: they will assist in the immediate travel, lodging, and ground transportation needs of truck drivers and their immediate families. Whether to the truck driver's location or for the driver to travel home in such a case. Additionally, in the event of loss of driver's life, we will pay the transportation of his/her remains home.
- <https://www.everplans.com> : allows users to share information about the funeral and surrounding events, notify family and friends of the details, and update everyone at once if anything changes.

- www.newmelleray.org : Trappist monks make wooden caskets that are cheaper than what can be found in local funeral homes.
