Dear Friends of Our Lady of the Chesapeake,

We welcome Msgr. David J. Fulton of Cross Catholic Outreach who is celebrating and speaking this weekend at all the Masses on behalf of the poor in developing countries. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priest and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America.

Msgr. Fulton continues his ministry at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, where he is Director of Priests Program at the Center for Continuing Formation. He is the instructor of Moral Theology at the Seminary.

Last week during the 10:30am Mass, 22 children had the opportunity to meet with Miss Stacey in the Maryland Suite to hear the Gospel story on their level and do an activity to reinforce the meaning of the Gospel. The children prayed an adapted form of the Creed and prayed the Petitions before they rejoined their families to continue the Mass. It was a very meaningful experience of the Mass for all.

Thank you for your prayers and support for Our Lady of the Chesapeake.

God Bless!

Father Steve

Father James Martin: Blindly following the law is not 'biblical.' The link which follows is very informative.

Reflection on the Feast of the Nativity of John the Baptist.

The mere mention of John the Baptist calls to mind the iconic image of John standing in the River Jordan immersing Jesus in the water. But wait! That wonderful moment has a feast of its own: The Baptism of the Lord! Today's feast is about something else — not John's baptizing of Jesus but John's own birth. This feast celebrates a life that starts small but eventually, by way of God's loving initiatives and the free response of persons, emerges as one of the key figures in sacred history. So, to celebrate this special life, the church has drawn on a key Servant song from the scroll of Isaiah, then the great Psalm about being nurtured in the womb, then a summary of the good news of God's mercy from Peter in Acts, and finally the celebration of John's birth in Luke's gospel. Taken together, this collection can be a powerful meditation on the mystery of vocation — John's, and eventually ours.

Isaiah's song about the Servant speaks of God's forming him for a mission with worldwide consequences — first to restore the scattered tribes of Israel, and then, as Israel, to be a light to all the nations. We recognize that prophecy to be fulfilled ultimately in the person, words and work of Jesus, and furthered in the life and mission of the church — including us.

The verses from Psalm 139 echo Isaiah's language in a song of gratitude, which proclaims in wonder, "I was fashioned in the depths of the earth" — a powerful metaphor for the mysterious, hidden fertility of the psalmist's mother ("You knit me in my mother's womb"). What a perfect reading to celebrate the healing of Elizabeth's infertility, whose fruit was baby John.

Luke's account of the circumcision and naming of Elizabeth's and Zechariah's child, who was so unexpectedly and appropriately named Iōannēs (Greek for the Hebrew Johanan, "God shows mercy"). His simple presence is the very expression of God's merciful intervention in a situation of sterility (not only biological but social), and begins the fulfillment of Israel's long-held nurtured hope. "The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the desert until the day of his manifestation to Israel." God continues the growth that he began in Elizabeth's sterile womb. Taken together and pondered prayerfully, these remarkable Scripture passages can help us all marvel at how each of us can recognize the graceful interplay of God's loving initiatives and the opportunities for free response that make up our own emerging stories of vocation, no matter how sterile they may sometimes seem.

Spiritual Direction

offers the value of sharing our lived experience of God with another.

There is a concrete aspects of a lived experience.

How is God's specific presence felt? What are the interior reactions to God's presence - e.g., peace, joy, desire, love or restlessness, fear, anger? Spiritual Direction opens us to a fuller and deeper relationship with God.

Anyone interested in Spiritual

Direction contact Sister Sally: 410-255-3677 or rsussell@olchesapeake.org.

The OLC Knights of Columbus will meet for one meeting a month for July and August. Our July meeting will be the third Wednesday July 18th and our August meeting will be Wednesday August 1st.

All Knights of Columbus members are invited to our meeting in the Gathering place 7:30 P.M. Any questions call John Donnelly 410-437-0116 e-mail sandysue@cablespeed.com.

The House of Hope is in need of tents, tarps, sleeping bags- they try to supply these items to people who need them but keep running out- there are so many more homeless people than we've ever had- I run the sandwich ministry and I know the number of sandwiches needed has doubled these last few months.

If you have any of the items listed that you no longer need, please call Joyce Weisner at 410-255-4437 or 410-736-2683.

Do you know how to make a sandwich?

Would you like to help those who need a hand up? Winter Relief is on break until next fall. However, during the spring and summer months, OLC volunteers make sandwiches for the homeless of the House of Hope. Many hands make light work, and it only takes an hour or two to put together a much appreciated meal for many. Contact Joyce Weisner at 410-255-4437 or 410-736-2683 if you would like more information or to help.

From the Wellness Ministry:

Thank you to everyone who came out to the blood drive last Wednesday! The next blood drive will be in the fall—watch the bulletin for further details.

Lyme Disease: This year we are expected to have record number of ticks in our area. Please be vigilant about tick bites and Lyme Disease, which can cause serious health problems. For more information visit:
