

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.
Tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único; para que todo el que crea en él tenga vida eterna.

Fourth Sunday of Lent, Year B, Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus March/Marzo 10/11, 2018

From The Deacon's Desk...

The fourth Sunday of Lent is sometimes called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is a Latin word that means "rejoice." Traditionally, Sundays are named after the first word of the liturgy's opening antiphon. On this Sunday, the antiphon is taken from the book of the prophet Isaiah. Even as we observe Lent, we rejoice in anticipation of the joy that will be at Easter. In our gospel, we hear that Jesus has come into the world to reveal our sins so that they may be forgiven. This is Good News; it is the reason for our rejoicing.

El cuarto domingo de Cuaresma a veces se llama Laetare Sunday. Laetare es una palabra latina que significa "regocijarse". Tradicionalmente, los domingos llevan el nombre de la primera palabra de la antífona de apertura de la liturgia. En este domingo, la antífona está tomada del libro del profeta Isaías. Incluso cuando observamos sacrificios de Cuaresma, nos regocijamos en anticipación de la alegría que será en Pascua. En nuestro evangelio, escuchamos que Jesús ha venido al mundo para revelar nuestros pecados para que puedan ser perdonados. Estas son buenas noticias.

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight Invites you to attend our annual Chrism Mass

Cathedral Church of St. Joseph, 2215 W. Main St., Jefferson City
Thursday, March 22, 2018 at 5:30 p.m.

This Liturgy unites the Diocese in recalling the gifts of the Holy Priesthood and the Most Holy Eucharist. The Oil of the Sick and the Oil of the Catechumens are blessed and the Sacred Chrism is consecrated at this time. These Holy Oils impact the lives of those who are preparing to enter into the Church, those who are ill, and all preparing for Confirmation and Holy Orders.

If you are seeking ways to deepen your relationship with God or to deepen your prayer life, the Benedictine Sisters of Perpetual Adoration are inviting single women ages 18 - 40 to attend a Festival of Prayer Retreat at our monastery in Clyde, MO April 13-15, 2018.

It's a chance to experience the daily rhythm of our way of life. You can join our community in the singing the divine office, attend daily Mass, share in community meals and recreation, spend time in Adoration/Exposition and in personal prayer. Those who come will also learn about the Rule of St. Benedict, contemplative prayer, the call, various ways to pray. They will also meet with others who are seeking to deepen their relationship with God. There is no cost to attend.

More details can be found at www.benedictinesisters.org. To register: contact Sr. Maria Victoria at 660-944-2221 ex. 127 or e-mail: vocation@benedictinesisters.org.

Question of the Week

Fourth Sunday in Lent - John 3:14-21

Key Passage:

“For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.”

Question for adults:

Do you perceive today's culture as basically good or evil? How does your perception influence the way you live? What does it mean to “live the truth”?

Question for children:

Where do you see good in the things around you?

Pregunta de la Semana

4° Domingo de Cuaresma -- Juan 3:14-21

Pasaje Crucial:

Todo aquel que hace el mal, aborrece la luz y no se acerca a ella, para que sus obras no se descubran. En cambio, el que obra el bien conforme a la verdad, se acerca a la luz, para que se vea que sus obras están hechas según Dios".

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Percibe la cultura actual como básicamente buena o mala? ¿Cómo influye tu percepción en la forma en que vives? ¿Qué significa "vivir la verdad"?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Dónde ves bien en las cosas que te rodean?

May the Spirit of God strengthen and guide Bishop Shawn and his newly appointed leadership team.

We lift up to the Lord Sister Loretta and all who enter the eternal peace of Christ. We pray for all the sick, especially Melba Hackney, may the promise and the gift of the peace of Christ fill their hearts and minds, and may almighty God always provide their every need. We pray too, for those who struggle with grief or addictions and those who labor to provide our well being and freedom especially first responders and military, and for those separated from their loved ones and family.

It is official: Paul VI and Oscar Romero will be canonized

By Editor, Catholic News Service, March 7, 2018

VATICAN CITY (CNS) The Vatican announced Wednesday that Pope Francis has recognized a second miracle allowing five people on the path to sainthood to be canonized, the most prominent being Bl. Pope Paul VI and Bl. Oscar Romero.

Bl Paul VI and Bl Oscar Romero

With a second miracle approved, the path has been cleared for a date to be set for the canonization of each of the five candidates, allowing them to officially be declared a saint. Though no date has yet been announced, both Paul VI and Oscar Romero are expected to be canonized together during the Synod of Bishops in October.

Born as Giovanni Montini in 1897 in the town of Concesio in the Lombardy region of Italy, the future Pope Paul VI was ordained a priest at the age of 22. He served as Archbishop of Milan prior to his election as Bishop of Rome in 1963.

As pope, he oversaw much of the Second Vatican Council, which had been opened by Pope St. John XXIII, and in 1969 promulgated a new Roman Missal. He died in 1978, and was beatified by Pope Francis Oct. 19, 2014.

Pope Francis himself unofficially confirmed the news of Paul VI's canonization during his annual meeting with the priests of Rome Feb. 17. However, the Vatican's announcement makes it official.

Apart from his role in the council, Paul VI is most widely known for his landmark encyclical Humanae Vitae, which was published in 1968 and reaffirmed the Church's teaching against contraception in wake of the sexual revolution. This year marks the 50th anniversary the historic encyclical, making the canonization of the author all the more relevant. Both miracles attributed to Paul VI's intercession involve the healing of an unborn child.

Bl. Oscar Romero, who was beatified by Pope Francis May 23, 2015, in El Salvador, was the archbishop of the nation's capital city of San Salvador. He was shot while celebrating Mass March 24, 1980, during the birth of a civil war between leftist guerrilla forces and the dictatorial government of the right.

An outspoken critic of the violence and injustices being committed at the time, Romero was declared a martyr who was killed in hatred of the faith for his vocal defense of human rights. The Vatican made the announcement about the acceptance of the miracles March 7, following a meeting between Pope Francis and Cardinal Angelo Amato, Prefect of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, the day before.

During the meeting, Francis advanced a total of 13 saints' causes, recognizing at least one person as a martyr and allowing one religious sister to be beatified.

In addition to Paul VI and Oscar Romero, the Pope approved a second miracle for three other saints' causes, allowing for their canonization. The new saints-to-be are: Bl. Francesco Spinelli, a diocesan priest and founder of the Institute of the Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament; Bl. Vincenzo Romano, a diocesan priest from Torre de Greco in Italy; and Bl. Maria Caterina Kasper, a German nun and founder of the Institute of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis also recognized a first miracle attributed to Maria Felicia di Gesu Sacramento, a Discalced Carmelite nun from Paraguay who died in 1959. Additionally, he recognized the martyrdom of Slavic laywoman Anna Kolesárová. Born in Vysoká nad Uhom, Slovakia in 1928, she was killed by a drunken Soviet soldier near the end of the Second World War. Pope Francis also recognized the heroic virtue of six people, allowing them to be called "venerable."

Among these causes are: Polish Fr. Bernardo Lubienski, Cecilio Maria Cortinovis, Sisters Giustina and Maria Schiapparoli, Antonella Bordoni and n Alessandra Sabattini.
