Third Sunday of Easter, Year B, 3° Domingo de Pascua, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcos April/Abril 14/15, 2018

From The Deacon's Desk...

The theme of this weekend's readings is a challenge to our Faith. That Faith should strengthen our Hope in His promises, call us to true repentance for our sins and lead us to bearing witness to Christ by our works of Charity. So today we are called to consider, "does our Faith do that for us?" The inspired words invite us to make our living witness to the risen Lord by repenting of our sins, renewing our lives, and meeting Jesus in the Word of God, the person of those around us and at the Eucharistic Table.

El tema de las lecturas de este fin de semana es un desafío a nuestra fe. Esa fe debe fortalecer nuestra esperanza en sus promesas, llamarnos al verdadero arrepentimiento por nuestros pecados y llevarnos a dar testimonio de Cristo por nuestras obras de caridad. Así que hoy estamos llamados a considerar, "¿nuestra fe lo hace por nosotros?" Las palabras inspiradas nos invitan a vivir dar testimonio del Señor resucitado al arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados, renovar nuestras vidas y conocer a Jesús en la Palabra de Dios, la persona de quienes nos rodean y en la Mesa Eucarística.

Se le agradece mucho su participación ya que la información recopilada nos ayudará a darle forma al futuro de la diócesis.

As we continue to prepare for our sesquicentennial celebration here at Saint Mary, we wish to record, both for ourselves and for the future, actual community membership at this historic time of celebration. Beginning this week, we ask each parish family to pose for a Parish Directory photo. The sitting should take no more than 15 minutes and happens in the east most classroom in the Parish Hall. The Sign Up book, reserving your time slot, is located on the table in the back of church. As a “thank you” for your participation, you will receive a full color print of the photograph or the digital image.

Mientras continuamos preparándonos para nuestra celebración del sesquicentenario aquí en Santa María, deseamos registrar, tanto para nosotros como para el futuro, la membresía real de la comunidad en este momento histórico de celebración. A partir de esta semana, le pedimos a cada familia de la parroquia que posen para una foto del directorio parroquial. La sesión no debería durar más de 15 minutos y ocurre en el salón de clase más al este del Salón Parroquial. El libro de inscripción, que reserva su franja horaria, se encuentra en la mesa en la parte posterior de la iglesia. Como un "gracias" por su participación, recibirá una impresión a todo color de la fotografía o la imagen digital.

The Pope at Mass: 'Christ gives true freedom'

By Editor, Catholic News Service, April 10, 2018

ROME (CNS) Pope Francis at Mass on Friday morning reflected on three examples of freedom – the Pharisee Gamaliel, the Apostles Peter and John, and Jesus – saying true freedom means making room for God in our lives and following Him.

The freedom we hear about during this Easter season, the Pope said, is the freedom of the sons and daughters of God. Jesus gave us this freedom “through his redemptive act” on the Cross. Pope Francis said Gamaliel is the first example of freedom offered by the day’s readings. He was a doctor of the law and Pharisee, who persuaded the Sanhedrin to free the apostles Peter and John.

Gamaliel, the Holy Father said, was “a free man, who reasoned with a clear mind”, and he convinced his colleagues that “time would take its toll” on the Christian movement of his day.

“The free man is not afraid of time: he lets God do the work. He allows God to take His time. The free man is patient. [Gamaliel] was a Jew, not a Christian, and he had not recognized Jesus as the Savior. But he was a free man. He thought things out and offered his ideas to others who accepted them. Freedom is not impatient.”

(True freedom, continued...)

The Pope said Pilate also reasoned well with a clear mind, realizing that Jesus was innocent. But, not being free, he could not overcome his desire for a promotion. “He lacked the courage of freedom because he was a slave to his career, ambition, and success,” the Pope said.

Pope Francis then spoke about the second example of freedom, Peter and John. They had healed the paralytic, were hauled before the Sanhedrin, and were released after being whipped, despite being innocent.

The Holy Father said, “They went away happy for having been judged worthy to suffer for the name of Jesus.” This, he said, “is the joy of imitating Jesus. It is another type of freedom that is greater, wider, and more Christian.”

“This is the freedom of someone who loves Jesus Christ. They are sealed with the Holy Spirit through faith in Jesus Christ. ‘You have done that for me, so I do this for you.’

Even in our own day, there are many imprisoned and tortured Christians, who possess the freedom to profess Jesus Christ.” Pope Francis said the third and truest example is Jesus himself.

When he had miraculously multiplied the loaves in the desert, Pope Francis said the people had come to make him a king. But he escaped to the mountain to avoid that fate. “He avoided triumphalism and was not fooled by it. He was free, since his freedom was to do the will of the Father.” Pope Francis said Jesus would end up on the Cross. So, he said, “Jesus is the greatest example of freedom.”
