Question of the Week

Pentecost- John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Key Passage: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

Question for adults: In what ways does the Holy Spirit help you to understand the events of your life?

Question for children: What are some of the ways you know things are true?

Pregunta de la Semana

Pentecostés -- Juan 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Pasaje Crucial: Aún tengo muchas cosas que decirles, pero todavía no las pueden comprender. Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de la verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿De qué manera el Espíritu Santo te ayuda a entender los eventos de tu vida?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cuáles son algunas de las formas en que sabes que las cosas son verdaderas?

Happy Birthday: May 25, Steve Benson. Wedding Anniversaries: May 6, Richard & Cecilia Savage, 40 years.

We lift up to the Lord all who enter the eternal peace of Christ. We pray too, for all the sick, especially Marge Swearengen and Melba Hackney, may the gift of the peace of Christ fill their hearts and minds, and may almighty God always provide their every need. We pray too, for those who struggle with grief or addictions and those who labor to provide our well being and freedom especially first responders and military, and for those separated from loved ones and family.

Pope to Chilean bishops:

Serve Christ in victims of abuse

Vatican City, May 17, 2018 (EWTN)

Pope Francis thanked Chile's bishops for their "frank" dialogue during a 3-day Vatican meeting on the Chilean abuse scandals, and asked them to focus on serving abuse victims as they return to their dioceses to implement short and long term resolutions.

"After these days of prayer and reflection I invite you to continue building a prophetic Church, which knows how to put what is important at the center: service to the Lord in the hungry, the prisoner, the migrant and the abused," the pope said in a letter to Chilean bishops.

Published May 17, the letter was given to each of the bishops by Pope Francis during their final meeting earlier that evening. He thanked the bishops for their presence and for the "frank discernment" they carried out in terms of how to face the "serious acts that have damaged ecclesial communion and weakened the work of the Church in Chile in recent years."

"In light of these painful events regarding abuse – of minors, of power and of conscience – we have delved into the severity of these [abuses] as well as in the tragic consequences they have had, particularly for the victims," he said.

Francis reiterated his heartfelt apology to the bishops and the victims, saying he is close to them and is united with them in "one single will and with the firm intention to repair the damages done."

"Naturally the pope will have decisions to make and there will be resolutions, but those will come later, Bishop Juan González responded, adding that the time they had was one of discernment and returning to their heart of their mission, which is Christ.
