Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 13° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus July/Julio 30/1, 2018

From Deacon John...

Today's second reading is Paul's appeal to the Corinthians to care for other Christians by means of a collection for the needy. Early Christians understood that they had a Gospel responsibility to care for each other. Paul invited them to become excellent in their generosity. God has loved us and already forgiven us. The only appropriate response to that love and forgiveness is profound gratitude.

La segunda lectura es la apelación de San Pablo a los corintios para que participen en el cuidado de otros cristianos por medio de una colecta para los necesitados. Las primeras cristianas entendieron que tenían la responsabilidad de cuidarse unos a otros. Pablo los invitó a ser excelentes en su generosidad. Dios nos ha amado y ya nos ha perdonado. La única respuesta a ese amor y perdón es gratitud.

Question of the Week

13th Sunday – Mark 5:21-43

Key Passage: She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction...Do not be afraid; just have faith.”

Question for adults:

In your life, is faith your “last resort”? Why choose that order of precedence?

Question for children:

What does it mean when we say we need to have faith?

Pregunta de la Semana

13° Domingo-- Marcus 5:21-43

Pasaje Crucial: Entonces se acercó la mujer, asustada y temblorosa, al comprender lo que había pasado; se postró a sus pies y le confesó la verdad. Jesús la tranquilizó, diciendo: "Hija, tu fe te ha curado. Vete en paz y queda sana de tu enfermedad".

Pregunta para los adultos:

En tu vida, ¿es la fe tu "último recurso"? ¿Por qué elegir ese orden de precedencia?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Qué significa cuando decimos que necesitamos tener fe?

Early Christian communities understood that they had a Gospel responsibility to care for each other. Paul invited them to become excellent in their generosity. He was not asking for a minimal gift.*

God has loved us and already forgiven us. The only appropriate response to that love and forgiveness is profound gratitude. Such thanks requires us to be generous to others in need, because gratitude without generosity is hollow. Paul is blunt: "...your abundance at the present time should supply their needs..." The message demands generosity. It is fundamental because love is an imperative.

Pope Francis : 'Christians are certain of Jesus' identity'

By Editor, Catholic News Service, June 21, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)

On Friday, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul (Matthew 16:13-19), Pope Francis used the Gospel of the liturgy in his reflection before the recitation of the Angelus. He said that the dialogue between Jesus and his disciples regarding His identity is one that continues to our day

Jesus' identity in question

Pope Francis said that this Gospel episode is "fundamental for our journey of faith" because it demonstrates a crucial dialogue between Jesus and his disciples. With the first question, "Who do others say the Son of Man is"? (Mt 16:13), Jesus "seems to be

Speaking before the recitation of the Angelus on the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, patrons of Rome, Pope Francis reflects on Jesus' dialogue with Peter and the disciples regarding His identity.

(Identity continued) saying that it is one thing to follow the current opinion".

With the second, "Who do you say that I am?" (Mt 16:15), Jesus is saying that it is another thing "to encounter Him and open oneself to His mystery", Pope Francis said. We find the complete, rather than partial, truth, in that encounter. The Church still proclaims that truth today regarding Jesus' identity: "'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God'".

Christians certain of Jesus' identity

Down through the ages, Jesus has been defined in various ways, creating a "Babel of hypotheses", Pope Francis continued. Peter's confession stands out among the responses offered: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God". Grace gives our hearts the certainty that Jesus lives eternally just as the Father. It is the same certitude experienced by Christians, the Pope said.

Jesus' new community

Jesus' response is illuminating: "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Mt 18). Pope Francis said that this is the first time that Jesus uses the word "Church". "He does so expressing all His love for her, which He defines as 'My Church'." Jesus' new Covenant community is based on faith in Him rather than on physical descent and on the mosaic law, he said

Prayer for the Church

Pope Francis concluded his remarks before the recitation of the Angelus asking that, through the intercession of Mary, Queen of the Apostles, that the Lord grant to the Church the grace of remaining faithful to the Gospel in whose service both Saints Peter and Paul "consecrated their lives"
