Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 16° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus July/Julio 21/22, 2018

From Deacon John...

We read of the return of those sent to preach repentance, heal the sick, and drive out demons. When they return, Jesus invites them to rest. But Mark reports that the disciples don't even have time to eat. The Twelve are referred to as "apostles", "one who is sent." We current day disciples are also sent to share the Gospel. At times, our commitment to serve may leave us feeling tired and overwhelmed. Jesus affirms the importance of rest and renewal always wanting us to come away and spend time alone with him.

Leemos sobre el regreso de los enviados a predicar el arrepentimiento. Cuando regresan, Jesús los invita a venir y descansar. Pero Marcos informa que los discípulos ni siquiera tienen tiempo para comer. Los Doce enviados son referidos como "apóstoles", que significa "uno que es enviado". Los discípulos actuales también somos enviados a compartir el Evangelio. A veces, nuestro compromiso de servir puede hacernos sentir cansados y abrumados. Jesús afirma la importancia del descanso y la renovación siempre queriendo que vengamos y pasemos tiempo a solas con él.

Question of the Week

16th Sunday – Mark 6:30-34

Key Passage:

The apostles gathered with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile"... They disembarked and saw a vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

Question for adults:

How do you balance the call to discipleship with everyday life?

Question for children:

When have you put your friends needs before your own?

Pregunta de la Semana

16° Domingo-- Marcus 6:30-34

Pasaje Crucial:

Los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado. Entonces él les dijo: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco"... Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cómo se equilibra la llamada al discipulado con la vida cotidiana?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cuándo has puesto las necesidades de tus amigos antes que las tuyas?

New Madagascar Cardinal focuses on peace and the Gospel

By Editor, Catholic News Service, July 19, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)

The self-effacing new Cardinal of Madagascar has said his appointment as Cardinal came to him as a total surprise.

Then came several other phone calls, which prompted him to call the Apostolic Nuncio to Madagascar to seek clarification.

Eventually, when the Nuncio got back to him, he confirmed the new appointment from the Holy Father. The night of the appointment was a sleepless one for Cardinal Tsarahazana. Looking back, he says the support of the people coupled with their joy comforted him. "And here I am for the Consistory!"

The Archbishop of Toamasina, Désiré Tsarahazana, one of the Cardinals created by Pope Francis on Thursday, says he is cognizant of the responsibility that is now his own in Madagascar.

The Archbishop of Toamasina was surprised that after his appointment, Catholics, people from different religious denominations, political

"I had just made my pastoral visit where I administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to 165 people. I was ready to take a good nap because I was tired. Someone called me from the (capital city) Antananarivo, informing and congratulating me on my new appointment as Cardinal," he says.

His first reaction was that perhaps there was some misunderstanding.

parties, congratulated him but also expressed to him their concern for the future of the country. It then dawned on him that his new appointment carries with it, a responsibility that goes beyond the confines of the Catholic Church.

"I feel a mission has been thrust upon me to comfort the people of Madagascar so that they have a little more hope in the future. People

(New Cardinal continued) expect a lot from me. I wonder how I will respond to all their expectations, all these many desires," said Cardinal Tsarahazana.

The new Cardinal is convinced that the Church must continue to be a voice for the poor and voiceless because the country's politicians have misgoverned the nation for years. He says the Bishops will continue to raise concerns regarding the country's socio-economic welfare, without necessarily being involved in the politics of the country.

In April, differences over Madagascar's new election laws led to violent street protests in the capital, Antananarivo. The country's High Court later ruled that the new election laws were unconstitutional.

Cardinal Tsarahazana says that above all, his appointment is a significant recognition from the Holy Father for the people of his country. It is also a challenge for Madagascar to work to alleviate the suffering of many poor people in their society. Although the country is rich in resources, "we are among the poorest countries in the world," observed Cardinal Tsarahazana.

The new Cardinal also spoke about the challenges of his Archdiocese (Toamasina). Most of the difficulties stem from a general lack of infrastructure and roads. This makes pastoral work difficult. Notwithstanding the challenges, the new Cardinal says the Church must continue to encourage peace among citizens and as a Church live and proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all Madagascans.

In an earlier interview with the Catholic Church organisation, Church in Need, Cardinal Tsarahazana also spoke about his worries concerning the encroachment, in the northern parts of the country, of a certain brand of Islam bent on expansionism.
