Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 17º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus July/Julio 28/29, 2018

From Deacon John...

John's Gospel notes that the bread blessed and shared with the crowd are barley loaves. This is the food of the poor. The symbolism reminds us that the God who nourishes us, also calls us to assist in meeting the needs of the poorest among us. Jesus transforms a boy's five barley loaves and two fish into sufficient quantities for all present. The gifts we have, lacking sufficiency by themselves, are first transformed by God making the return more than sufficient for the needs at hand.

El Evangelio de Juan señala que el pan bendecido y compartido con la multitud son panes de cebada. Esta es la comida de los pobres. El simbolismo nos recuerda que el Dios que nos alimenta también nos llama a ayudar a satisfacer las necesidades de los más pobres entre nosotros. Jesús transforma los cinco panes de cebada y dos peces de un niño en cantidades suficientes para todos los presentes. Los dones que tenemos, careciendo de suficiencia por sí mismos, primero son transformados por Dios haciendo que el regreso sea más que suficiente para las necesidades inmediatas.

Question of the Week

17th Sunday – John 6:1-5

Key Passage:

"Gather the fragments leftover so that nothing will be wasted". So they collected them and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world."

Question for adults:

Recall and describe a time when even though very limited, your resources were sufficient.

Question for children:

Why would you share something of yours with someone else?

Pregunta de la Semana

17° Domingo-- Juan 6:1-5

Pasaje Crucial:

"Recojan los pedazos sobrantes, para que no se desperdicien". Los recogieron y con los pedazos que sobraron de los cinco panes llenaron doce canastos. Entonces la gente, al ver el signo que Jesús había hecho, decía: "Éste es, en verdad, el profeta que habría de venir al mundo".

Pregunta para los adultos:

Recuerde y describa un momento en el que, aunque muy limitado, sus recursos fueron suficientes.

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Por qué compartirías algo tuyo con alguien más?

From Deacon John...

John's Gospel notes that the bread blessed and shared with the crowd are barley loaves. This is the food of the poor. The symbolism reminds us that the God who feeds and nourishes us, by fulfilling our physical needs as well as our spiritual ones, also calls us, through our baptismal promises, to assist in meeting the needs of the poorest among us.

In today's gospel miracle, Jesus transforms a boy's five barley loaves and two fish into sufficient quantities for all present. In the mass the gifts we bring forward, lacking sufficiency by themselves, are first returned to God in our offering of thanksgiving. But then, God returns what we offer him, transforming it, making the return more than sufficient for the needs at hand.

Pope tells moral theologians of the need to build bridges of fraternity

By Editor, Catholic News Service, July 26, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)

Pope Francis is encouraging Catholic men and women in the field of theological ethics to be passionate about dialogue and networking in order to remove the walls of division and build bridges of fraternity everywhere in the world.

The Pope's encouragement came in a message to participants in a 2-day conference in Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, on the theme, "A Critical Time for Bridge-Building, Catholic Theological Ethics Today."

Some 500 Catholic moral theologians from 80 countries are attending the July 26-27 meeting, organized by the Catholic Theological Ethics in the World Church (CTEWC) network.

Pope Francis sent a message to participants in a July 26-27 conference in Sarajevo, on the theme, "A Critical Time for Bridge-Building, Catholic Theological Ethics Today."

(Theologians continued)

Commenting on Sarajevo, the Pope said that in today's environment of tension and division marked by fear and forms of regression, the city of bridges calls for the need to build new paths of closeness between peoples, cultures, religions, visions of life and political orientations.

Ecological challenge

The Pope noted that certain aspects of the ecological challenge can create grave imbalances not only in terms of the ongoing relationship between man and his nature, but also between generations and people.

In this regard, he said, the issue of migrants and refugees can foster ethical and theological reflection, even before inspiring suitable pastoral attitudes and responsible and carefully planned political policies.

In this backdrop, the Holy Father said individuals and institutions need to assume a renewed leadership to help find and put into practice a more just way for all of us to live in this world as sharers in a common destiny.

Network of persons

The Pope commended the CTEWC proposal to create a network between persons in various world continents

Pope Francis continued, "to engage in theological ethical reflection to help find new and effective resources will help mobilize action that is compassionate and attentive to tragic human situations, and concerned with accompanying them with merciful care".

But for this to happen, the Pope said, all the theologians themselves need to build bridges among themselves, to share ideas and programmes, and to develop forms of closeness.
