

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

No sólo de pan vive el hombre, sino también de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 18° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus August/Agosto 4/5, 2018

From Deacon John...

The gospel today is a mixture of two foods, originally, people sought out Jesus for more bread. He knows that need and many times, he does feed the hungry. But he also knows the need of all peoples for life in the soul which only his Eucharistic foods provides. Both the need to feed the hungry and give life to the soul are real human needs that should be met. Jesus meets them both, then he challenges us to do likewise. Ordinary bread only feeds the body, Jesus, the bread of life also brings hope to the soul.

El evangelio es una mezcla de dos alimentos, las personas buscaban a Jesús para obtener más pan. Él conoce esa necesidad y muchas veces, él alimenta al hambriento. Pero también conoce la necesidad de todos los pueblos de vivir en el alma, lo que solo proporcionan sus alimentos eucarísticos. Tanto la necesidad de alimentar a los hambrientos y dar vida al alma son necesidades humanas reales que deben cumplirse. Jesús se encuentra con los dos, luego nos desafía a hacer lo mismo. El pan ordinario solo alimenta el cuerpo, Jesús, el pan de vida también trae esperanza al alma.

Question of the Week

18th Sunday – John 6:24-35

Key Passage: "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?" Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God that you believe in the one he sent... For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."

Question for adults: How does Eucharist sustain your life?

Question for children: What does it mean to say "Jesus is the bread of life"?

Pregunta de la Semana

18° Domingo-- Juan 6:24-35

Pasaje Crucial: Ellos le dijeron: "¿Qué necesitamos para llevar a cabo las obras de Dios?" Respondió Jesús: "La obra de Dios consiste en que crean en aquel a quien él ha enviado". Porque el pan de Dios es aquel que baja del cielo y da la vida al mundo". Entonces le dijeron: "Señor, danos siempre de ese pan". Jesús les contestó: "Yo soy el pan de la vida. El que viene a mí no tendrá hambre y el que cree en mí nunca tendrá sed".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cómo sostiene la Eucaristía tu vida?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Qué significa decir "Jesús es el pan de vida"?

Vatican declares death penalty 'inadmissible'

By Editor, Catholic News Service, August 2, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)

The Roman Catholic Church says it has changed its teaching to declare the death penalty "inadmissible" to reflect that all life is sacred and there is no justification for state-sponsored executions.

possible way of effectively defending human lives against the unjust aggressor".

In an accompanying letter explaining the change, Cardinal Ladaria, head of the Vatican's doctrine, said the development of Catholic doctrine on capital punishment did not contradict prior teaching but rather was an evolution of it.

Pope Francis has long railed against the death penalty. In March 2015 letter to the president of the International Commission Against the Death Penalty, he wrote, "Today, capital punishment is unacceptable, however, serious the condemned's crime may have been." The letter added: "It entails cruel, inhumane and degrading treatment."

Death penalty

Last year, 53 sovereign countries issued death sentences and 23 executed at least 993 people, according to Amnesty International. Most executions took place in China, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Pakistan.

Pope Francis has decreed that capital punishment constitutes an 'attack' on the dignity of human beings.

The Vatican said on Thursday Pope Francis approved the revision to say that capital punishment constitutes an "attack" on the dignity of human beings.

The change will be reflected in the most important guide to church teaching, the catechism.

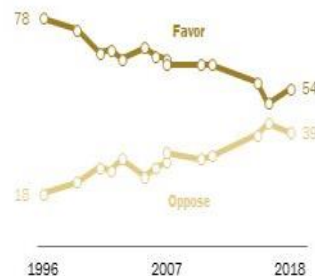

Previously, the catechism said the church did not exclude recourse to capital punishment "if this is the only

In the United States, 23 people were executed, a slight increase from 2016 but a low number compared with historical trends, Amnesty said. Among Americans, 54 percent favour the punishment for people convicted of murder, while 39 percent are opposed, according to a Pew Research Center survey conducted this year.

Capital punishment is banned in most of Europe, with Belarus being the only European country that carried out executions in 2017, Amnesty said. By the end of last year, 106 countries worldwide had banned the death penalty.

But this week, in a move quite contrary to the current trend, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said Turkey could soon move to reinstate the death penalty, which it had abolished in 2004 as part of the country's bid to join the European Union.
