Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 20° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus August/Agosto 18/19, 2018

From Deacon John...

"...the bread I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." To many ears, Jesus' words are jarring and difficult to hear. Many could not accept what he said then, and many today continue to struggle to accept these words. In the elements of bread and wine, Jesus' Body and Blood are made truly present. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. This communion with the Lord makes us one body, brings us eternal life, and sends us forth to be Christ for the life of the world.

"... el pan que daré es mi carne para la vida del mundo". Para muchos oídos, las palabras de Jesús son discordantes y difíciles de escuchar. Muchos no pudieron aceptar lo que dijo luego, y muchos hoy continúan luchando para aceptar estas palabras. En los elementos de pan y vino, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús se hacen verdaderamente presentes. Cuando compartimos el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, Jesús mismo viene a morar dentro de nosotros. Esta comunión con el Señor nos hace un solo cuerpo, nos trae la vida eterna y nos envía a ser Cristo para la vida del mundo.

VIRTUS PROGRAM AND TRAINING

According to the Missouri Department of Social Services, in Fiscal Year 2017 there were 1132 substantiated incidents of child sexual abuse in Missouri involving 1261 children, 214 of whom were in the counties of our diocese. You can help prevent this from happening and ensure that our parishes, schools and homes are safe places for all children. The Diocese of Jefferson City will hold a VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children class on Tuesday, August 28, 2018 at 5:30 p.m. at Mary Immaculate school, Kirksville. Participants should register in advance at www.virtus.org. Please arrive early so that the class may begin on time. Due to the nature of the subject, children are discouraged from attending.

This program is one component of the overall effort to protect God's children and vulnerable adults. All employees and volunteers with ongoing and unsupervised contact with children and youth are required to attend a Protecting God's Children session. All parents, grandparents and other adults in the parish community are encouraged to attend. To view valuable resources regarding the protection of children and vulnerable adults, go to <https://diojeffcity.org/child-and-youth-protection-2/>, www.virtus.org or the USCCB's website at <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/child-and-youth-protection/index.cfm>.

Vatican responds to Pennsylvania Grand Jury abuse report

By Editor, Catholic News Service, August 17, 2018

Vatican City, (CNA/EWTN News)

On Thursday evening, the Director of the Holy See Press Office, Greg Burke, issued the following statement regarding the report of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury issued earlier this week in the United States over the sexual abuse of minors.

condemns unequivocally the sexual abuse of minors.

The abuses described in the report are criminal and morally reprehensible. Those acts were betrayals of trust that robbed survivors of their dignity and their faith. The Church must learn hard lessons from its past, and there should be accountability for both abusers and those who permitted abuse to occur. Most of the discussion in the report concerns abuses before the early 2000s. By finding almost no cases after 2002, the Grand Jury's conclusions are consistent with previous studies showing that Catholic Church reforms in the United States drastically reduced the incidence of clergy child abuse. The Holy See encourages continued reform and vigilance at all levels of the Catholic Church, to help ensure the protection of minors and vulnerable adults from harm. The Holy See also wants to underscore the need to comply with the civil law, including mandatory child abuse reporting requirements.

Cardinal Daniel DiNardo (foreground), president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

"Regarding the report made public in Pennsylvania this week, there are two words that can express the feelings faced with these horrible crimes: shame and sorrow. The Holy See treats with great seriousness the work of the Investigating Grand Jury of Pennsylvania and the lengthy Interim Report it has produced. The Holy See

The Holy Father understands well how much these crimes can shake the faith and the spirit of believers and reiterates the call to make every effort to create a safe environment for minors and vulnerable adults in the Church and in all of society.

Victims should know that the Pope is on their side. Those who have suffered are his priority, and the Church wants to listen to them to root out this tragic horror that destroys the lives of the innocent."
