24th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 24° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus September/Septiembre 15/16, 2018

From Deacon John...

When the disciples acknowledged Jesus as the Christ, he confides in them that he will be rejected, must suffer and die, and will rise after three days. Peter rejects this, and Jesus rebukes him severely. This image of the Messiah is not what Peter was expecting, still to be a disciple is to follow in the way of the cross. The life that Jesus was inviting his disciples to share meant tremendous suffering and death. This is the kind of sacrifice that Jesus calls us to adopt for our salvation.

Cuando los discípulos reconocieron a Jesús como el Cristo, él les confía que será rechazado, sufrirá y morirá, y resucitará después de tres días. Pedro rechaza esto, y Jesús lo reprende severamente. Esta imagen del Mesías no es lo que Pedro estaba esperando, seguir siendo un discípulo es seguir en el camino de la cruz. La vida que Jesús invitaba a sus discípulos a compartir significaba tremendo sufrimiento y muerte. Este es el tipo de sacrificio que Jesús nos llama a adoptar para nuestra salvación.

Question of the Week

24th Sunday - Mark 8:27-35

Key Passage: Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Question for adults: What is an example from your faith life when you failed to grasp the "bigger picture"? How was your short sightedness a detriment?

Question for children: When you hear someone say or use the words "occasion of sin" what does it mean?

Pregunta de la Semana

24° Domingo-- Marcos 8:27-35

Pasaje Crucial: Entonces Pedro se lo llevó aparte y trataba de disuadirlo. Jesús se volvió, y mirando a sus discípulos, reprendió a Pedro con estas palabras: "¡Apártate de mí, Satanás! Porque tú no juzgas según Dios, sino según los hombres".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuál es un ejemplo de tu vida de fe cuando no captaste la "imagen más grande"? ¿Cómo fue su deficiencia corta visión?

Pregunta para los niños: Cuando escuchas a alguien decir o usar las palabras "ocasión de pecado", ¿qué significa?

We lift up to the Lord all who enter the eternal peace of Christ. We pray too, for all the sick, especially Father Ed Doyle & Melba Hackney may the healing mercy of almighty God always provide their every need. We pray for those who struggle with grief or addictions, those who feed the world, and those who labor to provide our well being especially first responders, military and all who work to support victims of the current storms and hurricane.

Bishop McKnight's September prayer intention for our Local Church is "For all those serving as first responders; may God protect them as they face danger with courage and provide healing assistance to those in need."

When the disciples acknowledged Jesus as Christ, he confides in them that he will be rejected, must suffer and die, and will rise after three days. Peter rejects this, and Jesus rebukes him severely. This image of the Messiah is not what Peter was expecting, still to be a disciple is to follow in the way of the cross.

Jesus' words must have evoked fear in his disciples. Death by crucifixion was all too familiar as a method of execution in Roman-occupied territories. It was also a real possibility to the Christian community for whom Mark wrote.

The life that Jesus was inviting his disciples to share meant tremendous suffering and death. This is the kind of sacrifice that Jesus calls us to adopt for our salvation.

Pope Francis visits in memory of Blessed “Pino” Puglisi

By Editor, Catholic News Service, September 15, 2018

Pope Francis has chosen another significant place and date from which to proclaim the Gospel of Joy. The place: Palermo, on the Italian island of Sicilia—home to Cosa Nostra, Italy’s most notorious mafia groups. The date: September 15, 2018, the 25th anniversary of the day that Fr Pino Puglisi was murdered on orders given by Cosa Nostra. The Pope will celebrate Mass in his honor in the Foro Italico, where Bl Puglisi lived and died, he will meet with priests, reli-on September 15 in 1937 and was murdered the same day 56 years later. He entered the seminary at the age of 16 and was ordained in 1960. His first assignments were to parishes in Palermo where he ministered particularly to young people. In 1970, he became pastor of a parish in Godrano, about 40 km from Palermo. Here he developed a ministry directed toward reconciliation in families. He returned to Palermo in 1978 and took up duties in the seminary, as well as promoting religious and priestly vocations on the diocesan level. In 1990 he began his last assignment as pastor of San Gaetano, in Palermo’s rough Brancaccio neighborhood. Fr Puglisi is recorded as having said, “I have become the pope’s pastor”, referring to Michele Greco, who called himself “the mafia’s pope”.

On the 25th Anniversary of the martyrdom of Blessed “Pino” Puglisi, Pope Francis travels to Palermo on Saturday, highlighting this priestly shepherd who bore the brutal condition of his flock.

gious and seminarians in Palermo’s cathedral, and with young people in Piazza Politeama

Who is Bl Pino Puglisi?

Giuseppe (Pino) Puglisi was born

The “Our Father Welcome Center”

Fr Puglisi founded a center in 1991 which was inaugurated in January, 1993, called the “Our Father Welcome Center”. It was his response to the pastoral situation he inherited in which the elderly were often abandoned, and adolescents and young adults were illiterate, due to the absence of a secondary school. Poverty and high unemployment left most of Fr Puglisi’s parishioners easy prey to the local mafia. The services provided (Pino continued) were, and still are, directed toward providing the material and cultural benefits lacking in the lives of the people living in the area.

“I’ve been expecting this”

Fr Puglisi soon exerted a tremendous Christian influence over his parishioners. He thus became a target of the mafia who saw him as a real threat. Even after several incidents which were clearly meant to intimidate him, Fr Puglisi resolutely continued his fight against the mafia. Besides celebrating two weddings, and his own birthday with friends, on the day he died, Fr Puglisi had also gone to a meeting at Palermo’s city hall to ask that a middle school be built in Brancaccio. For all that he had done for his flock, the mafia responded by sending a hitman the evening of his birthday. According to the gunman’s testimony, Fr Puglisi greeted him with a smile and the words, “I’ve been expecting this!”

Fr Puglisi died according to words he himself had spoken: Holocaust means to burn one’s entire existence on the altar of the cross. For those who are angry toward a society they view as hostile, it is above all necessary to be witnesses. Witness must instill hope in that person, making him understand that his life is worth something only if it is given.
