From Deacon John...

James and John ask to be given seats of honor. The disciples seem to be selective in what they hear from Jesus. They want glory, but do not understand that suffering is coming. So Jesus foretells the suffering they will endure, adding that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear of this, they are indignant. Thus, Jesus again explains the importance of service and sacrifice, preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles. On whose example do we choose to model our leadership?

Santiago y Juan piden que se les den asientos de honor. Los discípulos parecen ser selectivos en lo que escuchan de Jesús. Quieren gloria, pero no entienden que el sufrimiento está llegando. Así que Jesús predice el sufrimiento que soportarán, y agrega que el honor que buscan no es suyo. Cuando los otros diez se enteran de esto, están indignados. Por lo tanto, Jesús nuevamente explica la importancia del servicio y el sacrificio, preparando a los Doce para sus roles de liderazgo. ¿En qué ejemplo elegimos modelar nuestro liderazgo?

Oct. 29, 6 p.m. – Mary Immaculate, Kirksville

Please join Bishop Shawn McKnight and our local clergy for a listening session on Monday, October 29, at 6 pm. Bishop McKnight hopes to hear your thoughts and concerns about the clergy sexual abuse crisis so that he may bring your viewpoint to the bishops' General Assembly upcoming in November. The gathering will also include a time to express sorrow and request forgiveness.

The listening session will be in Mary Immaculate Church, Kirksville.

For World Mission Sunday...

Be A Mission Voice!

Today, with Catholics of the world, we are called to offer, at this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus.

Today we "speak up" through our prayers and personal sacrifices for our brothers and sisters in the Missions. As little as... > $25 helps support a catechist for a month in Latin America > $75 provides for the work of religious Sisters in Africa > $100 assists children in schools in Asia

As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing love and peace.

Question of the Week

29th Sunday – Mark 10:35-45

Key Passage: "But it shall not be so among you. Rather whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as ransom for many."

Question for adults: How are you able to lead if you must be servant?

Question for children: Who is the better friend? Someone who tells you what to do or someone who shows and helps you learn to do something?

Pregunta de la Semana

29° Domingo-- Marcos 10:35-45

Pasaje Crucial: Pero no debe ser así entre ustedes. Al contrario: el que quiera ser grande entre ustedes que sea su servidor, y el que quiera ser el primero, que sea el esclavo de todos, así como el Hijo del hombre, que no ha venido a que lo sirvan, sino a servir y a dar su vida por la redención de todos".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cómo eres capaz de liderar si debes ser criado?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Quién es el mejor amigo? ¿Alguien que te dice qué hacer o alguien que te muestra y te ayuda a aprender a hacer algo?

From Deacon John...

James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. The disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not understand that his glory will come after his suffering. So Jesus foretells the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel, adding that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear of this, they are quite indignant.

Therefore, Jesus explains the importance of service and sacrifice in the life of a disciple, preparing the Twelve for their leadership roles. Jesus acknowledges that his teaching is countercultural, contrasting the disciples with the Gentile rulers. On whose example do we choose to model our leadership?

Pope Mass: The three forms of poverty

By Editor, VNS, October 18, 2018

VATICAN CITY In this morning's Mass at the Casa Santa Marta, the Pope speaks of the three forms of poverty to which the disciple is called: the first is to renounce riches, with a heart detached from money, the second is to accept persecution, large or small, even slander, because of the Gospel, and the third is the poverty of loneliness, to feel alone at the end of life. His reflection begins with the Collect Prayer, which emphasizes that through Saint Luke, the Lord wanted to reveal his predilection for the poor. The Gospel (Lk 10:1-9) then speaks of the sending of the 72 disciples into poverty - "do not carry a purse, bag or sandals" - because the Lord wants the disciple's path to be a poor one. The disciple attached to money or wealth is not a true disciple.

The poor disciple with a heart detached from wealth

Pope Francis' entire homily is, therefore, marked by the "three stages" of poverty in the life of the disciples, the three ways of living it. The first, in fact, is that of being detached from money and wealth and is "the condition for beginning the path of discipleship". It consists in having a "poor heart", so much so that "if in the apostolic work there is a need for structures or organizations that seem to be a sign of wealth, use them well - but be detached", the Pope warns. The rich young man of the Gospel, in fact, moved the heart of Jesus but was then unable to follow the Lord because he had "his heart attached to riches". "If you want to follow the Lord, choose the path of poverty and if you have riches because the Lord gave them to you, to serve others, your need to be, detached from them. The disciple must not be afraid of poverty, on the contrary: he must be poor".

The poverty of persecution because of the Gospel

The second form of poverty is that of persecution. The Lord sends the disciples "like lambs in the midst of wolves". And even today there are many Christians persecuted and slandered for the Gospel:

Yesterday, in the Synod Hall a bishop from one of these countries where there is persecution spoke about a Catholic boy taken by a group of boys who hated the Church, fundamentalists; he was beaten and then thrown into a cistern with mud thrown on him until it came up to his neck.: "Say for the last time: do you give up Jesus Christ? - "No!". They threw a stone and killed him. We have all heard it. And this is not from the first centuries: this is from two months ago! It's an example. How many Christians today suffer physical persecution: "Oh, that's blasphemy! To the gallows!".

(Poverty continued) There is the persecution of slander, of rumors, and the Christian tolerates this "poverty" in silence. Sometimes it is necessary to defend oneself so as not to cause scandal... It is the second form of poverty that the Lord asks of us, to accept humbly persecution, to tolerate persecution. This is a form of poverty.

The poverty of feeling abandoned

There is, then, a third form of poverty: that of solitude, of abandonment. An example of this is today's First Reading, taken from the Second Letter to Timothy, in which the "great Paul", "who was not afraid of anything", says that in his first defense in court, no one assisted him: "everyone has abandoned me". But he adds that the Lord was close to him and gave him strength. Pope Francis dwells, therefore, on the abandonment of the disciple: how can it happen to a boy or a girl of 17 or 20 years old, who with enthusiasm leaves riches to follow Jesus, then "with strength and fidelity" tolerate "slander, daily persecution, jealousies", "small or large persecutions", and in the end the Lord can also ask of them "the final solitude":

I think of the greatest man in humanity, and this definition comes from the mouth of Jesus: John the Baptist; the greatest man born of a woman. Great preacher: people went to him to be baptized. How did it end? Alone; in prison. Just think, what of a cell and what were the cells of that time like, because if they are now like that, think of those ... Alone, forgotten, slaughtered for the weakness of a king, the hatred of an adulteress and the whim of a girl: that's how it ended for the greatest man in history. And without going that far, many times in old people's homes where there are priests or nuns who have spent their lives preaching, they feel alone, only with the Lord, no one else to remember them.
