30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, 30° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año B del Evangelio de San Marcus October/Octubre 27/28, 2018

From Deacon John...

Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. He is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. He hears that Jesus is passing by, but he calls out to him using words of faith, "Son of David." Many believed that the Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus prepare us for the final episodes which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and entry into Jerusalem. Jesus will be Messiah in a way difficult for many to accept.

Una vez que su vista ha sido restaurada, Bartimeo sigue a Jesús en su camino a Jerusalén. Él es el último discípulo llamado por Jesús antes de que entre a Jerusalén. Oye que Jesús está pasando, pero lo llama con palabras de fe: "Hijo de David". Muchos creyeron que el Mesías judío sería un descendiente del Rey David. Bartimeo nos prepara para los episodios finales que comienzan con la preparación de Jesús para la Pascua y la entrada a Jerusalén. Jesús será el Mesías de una manera difícil de aceptar para muchos a través de su sufrimiento y muerte.

Question of the Week

30th Sunday – Mark 10:46-52

Key Passage: "Take courage, get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Question for adults: What will you ask Jesus to do for you today?

Question for children: What will you ask Jesus to do for you today?

Pregunta de la Semana

30° Domingo-- Marcos 10:46*52

Pasaje Crucial: "¡Ánimo! Levántate, porque él te llama". El ciego tiró su manto; de un salto se puso en pie y se acercó a Jesús. Entonces le dijo Jesús: "¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?" El ciego le contestó: "Maestro, que pueda ver". Jesús le dijo: "Vete; tu fe te ha salvado". Al momento recobró la vista y comenzó a seguirlo por el camino.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Qué le pedirás a Jesús que haga por ti hoy?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Qué le pedirás a Jesús que haga por ti hoy?

We lift up to the Lord all who enter the eternal peace of Christ. We pray too, for all the sick, especially Father Ed Doyle, Gary Drummond and all those battling cancers. May the healing mercy of almighty God always provide their every need. We pray for those who struggle with grief or addictions, those who feed the world, and those who labor to provide our well being especially first responders, military and all who work to support victims of the current storms and hurricane.

Bishop McKnight's October prayer intention for our Local Church is "For the protection of the life and dignity of those most vulnerable in society, especially the unborn."

From Deacon John...

The success of Jesus' healing power is often linked with the faith of the person requesting help. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth. Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. He is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. He hears that Jesus is passing by, but he calls out to him using words of faith, "Son of David." Many believed that the Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus prepare us for the final episodes which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and entry into Jerusalem. Jesus will be the Messiah in a way that is difficult for many to accept through his suffering and death.

Palliative care: Taking care of all symptoms, not only pain

By Editor, VNS, October 24, 2018

VATICAN CITY Professor Marcello Orzalesi, a retired Professor of pediatrics and neonatology, is now the scientific coordinator of the Maruzza Foundation, a non-profit organization whose aim is to improve the quality of life of terminally ill children and their families.

At least that

The aim of the congress is to gather experts, authorities and people working in pediatric palliative care and in the treatment of children because there is a gradually increasing number of children who cannot be cured, so that “at least we can improve the quality of their lives”. The congress has been meeting every two years since 2012.

The number of these children is gradually increasing, says professor Orzalesi, and often their needs are neither really met nor even considered. The reason for this is that more babies, who in the past may not have survived birth, are now doing so thanks to advances in technology. However, though they are now surviving birth, they are living difficult, and often short lives.

The Abuse Crisis in the Church

Prayer and conversation with Bishop W. Shawn McKnight

- Oct. 28 — Hannibal, 4 pm, Holy Family Church, 1111 Broadway
- Oct. 29 — Kirksville, 6 pm, Mary Immaculate Church, 716 E. Washington
- Nov. 3* — Jefferson City, 2 pm, Alphonse J. Schwartze Memorial Catholic Center, 2207 W. Main (for young adults, ages 18 to 35)
- Nov. 4 — Jefferson City, 4 pm, Cathedral of St. Joseph, 2215 W. Main
- Nov. 5 — Columbia, 6 pm, Our Lady of Lourdes Church, 903 Bernadette Dr.
- Nov. 6 — Rolla, 6:30 pm, St. Patrick Church, 17 St. Patricks Ln.

These listening sessions will be an opportunity to gather information, insight and prayers as Bishop McKnight prepares to take part in the U.S. Catholic bishops' fall assembly in Baltimore. They will also be a time to express sorrow and request forgiveness.

Neither euthanasia nor abandonment

The public, who Professor Orzalesi believes often have misconceptions of what palliative care is, should be sensitized towards it. Often they mistake it for euthanasia, he says, or abandonment, “which is not true”.

What is palliative care?

Pediatric palliative care is ensuring that “as long as they [the children] survive, we try to decrease as much as possible their suffering and increase as much as possible the quality of their lives and the lives of their families”.

Not only doctors

This is done by “taking care of their symptoms, especially pain but also spiritual, psychological, emotional and social needs” by bringing in a team of specialists which include “not only doctors and nurses but also psychologists, social workers, and the family pediatrician” all working together.

Professor Orzalesi explained the theme of this year’s as “looking into the future and looking for innovative and perhaps nontraditional ways to achieve the purpose we discussed in the conference” and to see if anything else can be done. The conference aims to see how to further improve what the Maruzza Foundation is trying to do.

Media manipulation

One of the important topics touched on by Professor Orzalesi is the news that is so often manipulated by the media. He says that not only is there very often not enough information, it is too often completely wrong. “We live in the world of fake news”, says Professor Marcello Orzalesi. “Very often, the correct information does not go through,” – a theme that will be thoroughly discussed during this 4th Global Conference.
