From Deacon John...

As we would expect, Jesus observes the rich contributed large sums to the treasury while those with less means made smaller contributions in monetary terms. A similar situation exists in most parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions—two coins of little value. Jesus commends her, declaring her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us.

Como es de esperar, Jesús observa que los ricos aportaron grandes sumas al tesoro, mientras que aquellos con menos recursos hicieron contribuciones más pequeñas en términos monetarios. Una situación similar existe en la mayoría de las parroquias también. Sin embargo, Jesús llama la atención a una viuda pobre que hace las contribuciones más pequeñas, dos monedas de poco valor. Jesús la elogia por declarar que su pequeña ofrenda fue un acto de profunda generosidad, que le dio su sustento en lugar de su excedente. Solo podemos dar de nuestra necesidad si confiamos en que Dios nos proveerá.

Question of the Week

32nd Sunday – Mark 12:38-44

Key Passage:

"Amen I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Question for adults:

How is it more meaningful to give from want than to give from abundance?

Question for children:

Tell about a time when you were generous and it was not easy.

Pregunta de la Semana

32° Domingo-- Marcos 12:38-44

Pasaje Crucial:

Llamando entonces a sus discípulos, Jesús les dijo: "Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos. Porque los demás han echado de lo que les sobraba; pero ésta, en su pobreza ha echado todo lo que tenía para vivir".

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cómo es más significativo dar de la necesidad que dar de la abundancia?

Pregunta para los niños:

Habla de un momento en que fuiste generoso y no fue fácil.

Statement on priests and religious brothers credibly accused or removed from ministry in the Diocese of Jefferson City

By Bishop W. Shawn McKnight, November 8, 2018

Jefferson City In the past 12 days I have participated in six listening sessions across our Diocese regarding the sexual abuse crisis in our Church. As Pope Francis has encouraged, we bishops are to be close to our people and know what they are thinking and feeling. Consistently, I heard the message: “Get it all out and deal with it. Don’t hold anymore secrets. We heal better when we all know what the problem is.” This is part of what it means to be Church: we are about the salvation of souls, of caring for people.

On August 24, I announced additional steps to increase our accountability and transparency so that the Diocese of Jefferson City is known as a Church promoting healing and restoring trust in our ministries. Knowing we are better together, I asked for the help of lay people, our priests and deacons to address this terrible crisis. Today I am providing an update on my efforts, an aspect of which is a release of the names of 33 priests and religious brothers who have either been credibly accused or removed from ministry in the Diocese of Jefferson City out of concern for the safety of our youth. This list is now available on our website.

While only one on the list has been criminally convicted, the Church holds a much higher standard for those who serve its people holding a sacred trust. The solemn vows we take when we are ordained or enter religious life call us to higher standards of conduct. As of today, there has not ever been a credible accusation of sexual abuse of a minor against any clergy or religious now serving in the Diocese of Jefferson City.

It is with great sorrow that I publish this list. I humbly and sincerely offer my deepest apologies to those who have been abused by clergy and religious. I also offer my condolences to them, their families, friends, and communities.

The most recent case in our Diocese of physical sexual abuse of a minor occurred in 1997. Since then, we have had two credible allegations of violations of the U.S. Bishops’ Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People: one being the inappropriate use of social media; and the other, Internet pornography depicting minors. Although the incidents are in the past, the pain caused is still a present reality for the survivors of abuse and their loved ones. I pray this effort on our part provides some small measure of hope and opens an opportunity for healing to those immediately harmed by sexual abuse.

The list of these men also offends our Catholic community and the wider public. Their actions, and the incomplete transparency we have lived under by not making all their names public, has affected the relationship of every priest, every bishop with the faithful. It has caused deep and widespread concern.

Today, there can be no more secrets in our Diocese. We can only be a holy people, a people who are better together, if we have confidence in our priests and if you trust me as your shepherd.

After an independent review of the files of our living priests, deacons and seminarians, and an internal review of the files of our deceased clergy, I am confident that no priest, deacon or religious now serving in the Diocese of Jefferson City has ever been credibly accused of sexual abuse of a minor. Those that were credibly accused have all been either removed from ministry in the Diocese or they are deceased.

To ensure the necessary transparency and accountability going forward, we have a multi-disciplinary Review Board (primarily composed of laity) which sees all available information about any new allegations. I continue to rely on their recommendations in considering how to respond to allegations of sexual misconduct or abuse, whether those allegations concern a minor or an adult.

As your bishop, I pledge to put the care of victims, their loved ones, and their communities first and foremost. Our long standing Catholic social teachings require that we afford a preferential option for the poor; and this is most especially the case for those who have been victimized by clergy of our own Church.

Today we are also publishing the amount of money we have spent on these cases since July 1, 2003. For our small Diocese, it is a large amount: $4.7 million. I do this to be transparent and accountable to those who have contributed not just finances, but time and talents to our Church. Please note that in January 2004, the Diocese publicly reported that $1.5 million had been spent on the clergy sexual abuse crisis from the inception of the Diocese in 1956 until June 30, 2003.
