Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year C, Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año C del Evangelio de San Lucas January / Enero 27, 2019

From Deacon John...

We hear that Jesus is in his hometown of Nazareth, in the synagogue on the Sabbath, his custom. Jesus lived as a faithful, obedient servant Jew. Jesus stands and reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isaiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission. The reading from Isaiah defines Jesus' ministry. Jesus' ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord. Through this text from Isaiah, Jesus announces God's salvation.

Escuchamos que Jesús está en su ciudad natal de Nazaret, en la sinagoga del sábado, su costumbre. Jesús vivió como un judío fiel y observador. Jesús se para y lee el pergamino que le entregó; contiene las palabras del profeta Isaías. En este momento temprano de su ministerio, Jesús anuncia su misión. La lectura de Isaías define el ministerio de Jesús. El ministerio de Jesús incluirá brindar buenas nuevas a los pobres, libertad a los cautivos, sanidad a los enfermos, libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar un año aceptable para el Señor. A través de este texto de Isaías, Jesús anuncia la salvación de Dios.

Question of the Week

Ordinary Time Week 3 – Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Key Passage: Jesus unrolled the scroll and found the passage: ‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and to let the oppressed go free.’ Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, ‘Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing’.

Question for adults: Jesus announces his mission. What part of his vision is missing from your life?

Question for children: What can you do to spread the “Good News” of Jesus?

Pregunta de la Semana

Semana 3 -- Lucas 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Pasaje Crucial: Jesus se levantó para hacer la lectura. Encontró el pasaje en que estaba escrito: El espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque me ha ungido para llevar a los pobres la buena nueva, para anunciar la liberación a los cautivos...Enrolló el volumen, lo devolvió al encargado y se sentó. Entonces comenzó a hablar, diciendo: “Hoy mismo se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que acaban de oír”.

Pregunta para los adultos: Jesús anuncia su misión. ¿Qué parte de su visión le falta a tu vida?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Qué puedes hacer para difundir las “buenas nuevas” de Jesús?

Pope at Mass: the Beatitudes are the true way of life for the Christian

By Robin Gomes, Vatican News, January 21, 2019

Celebrating his morning Mass, January 21, Pope Francis said that some people believe themselves to be good Catholics but don't even act like good Christians as indicated by the Beatitudes. The Christian style is that of the Beatitudes that St. Mark in the day's Gospel describes as "new wine in new bottles".

(Vatican News) The Gospel, the Word of the Lord, is the "new wine" that has been gifted us, but to be good Christians we need a "new behavior", a "new style" that is truly the "Christian style", and this style is indicated by the Beatitudes. This is the regard, he points to 3 of them: the "accusatory style", the "worldly style" and the "selfish style":

The Pope says that the accusatory style belongs to those who always live by accusing others, disqualifying others, acting as absent promoters of meaning of the "key word" that concludes today's reading from the Gospel of Mark: "New wine in new wineskins". Pope Francis made this the theme of his homily at Mass, Monday morning, at the Vatican's Casa Santa Marta.

Accusing others

According to the Pope, we can learn about the Christian style by first knowing our attitudes that don't belong to the Christian style. In this justice. But they don't realize that it's the style of the devil: in the Bible, the devil is called the "great accuser", who is always accusing others.

This was the same in the time of Jesus who in a few cases reproached the accusers: "Instead of looking at the speck in the eyes of others, look at the beam in yours"; or again: "Those who have not sinned can throw the first stone". Living by accusing others and looking for defects, the Pope says, is not "Christian", not new wineskin.

Worldliness

Speaking about worldliness, Pope Francis calls it an attitude of Catholics who can "recite the Creed", but live on "vanity, pride and attachment to money", believing themselves to be self-sufficient.

The Pope says that the Lord has offered you the new wine but you did not change the wineskin, you did not change yourself. This worldliness is what ruins so many who are good but they enter into this spirit of vanity, of pride, of being seen... Humility that is part of the Christian style, like that of Our Lady and St. Joseph, is lacking, the Pope says.

Selfishness, indifference

Commenting on the third un-Christian style, the Pope says it is the selfish spirit, the spirit of indifference that is common in our communities. One believes oneself to be a good Catholic but doesn't worry about the problems of others – wars, illnesses and the suffering of our neighbors. This, the Pope says, is the hypocrisy that Jesus reproached the doctors of the law for. What then is the Christian style?

According to the Pope, the Christian style is that of the Beatitudes: meekness, humility, patience in suffering, love for justice, ability to endure persecution, not judging others... If a Catholic wants to learn the Christian style, so as not to fall into this accusatory style, the worldly style and the selfish style, he/ she must read the Beatitudes.

They are the wineskins, the path we must take. To be a good Christian one must have the ability not only to recite the Creed with the heart but also the Our Father with the heart.
