First Sunday of Lent, Year C, Primer Domingo de Cuaresma, el año C del Evangelio de San Lucas March / Marzo 10, 2019

From Deacon John...

Each temptation Jesus faces brings insight into the spirituality we hope to develop during these forty days of Lent. We can trust God to provide for our material needs. And we worship God because God alone has dominion over us and our world. God will always be faithful to his promises. Jesus' rejection of the devil's temptations shows that he will never put the Father to the test. Jesus rebukes the devil by his confidence in God's protection and faithfulness. One of the central themes of the Season is that we are dependent upon God for all that we have and all that we are. Anything that leads us to neglect or reject this dependency or to distrust its sufficiency, is a temptation from the devil.

Cada tentación a la que Jesús se enfrenta nos permite comprender la espiritualidad que esperamos desarrollar durante estos cuarenta días de Cuaresma. Podemos confiar en que Dios proveerá para nuestras necesidades materiales. Y adoramos a Dios porque solo Dios tiene dominio sobre nosotros y nuestro mundo. Dios siempre será fiel a sus promesas. El rechazo de Jesús a las tentaciones del diablo muestra que nunca pondrá a prueba al Padre. Jesús reprende al diablo por su confianza en la protección y la fidelidad de Dios. Uno de los temas centrales de la temporada es que dependemos de Dios para todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos. Cualquier cosa que nos lleve a descuidar o rechazar esta dependencia o a desconfiar de su suficiencia, es una tentación del diablo.

Mar. 14: Tony Melendez Holts Summit

St Andrew Catholic Church in Holts Summit invites you to experience the talents of famous Catholic guitarist Tony Melendez live in concert, March 14, 7-9 p.m. A thalidomide baby, Tony was born without arms. He trained himself to play guitar with his feet, playing even for Pope John Paul II. Learn more about his story at www.tonymelendez.com. Free will offering. What a great opportunity to go deeper in your relationship with Christ during the season of Lent.

March 14: A Lenten Walk to Calvary

Live the Way of the Cross in a deeper way this Lenten season. Each of the seven Thursdays of Lent at 6:30 pm, join your neighbors in prayer and reflection upon two of the fourteen stations of the cross, arriving at Calvary in time to begin our celebration of the pascal mystery during Holy Week 2019.

March 16: Saint Patrick's Day Annual Altar Society Chili and Soup Supper

Join us for our annual Saint Patrick's Day Meal. Serving will begin at 5:00 pm next Saturday, the 16th of March in the Saint Mary Parish Hall. There will be plentiful chili choices for the adventurous and several homemade soups if you're not a chili fan. You will certainly be able to find a spring roll or tamale or two just to fill out your plate along with other Latino favorites. There might even be a dessert or two if you eat all your vegetables.

Bring all your friends and neighbors. It's an eat what you want — pay what you want event that you don't want to miss. See you next Saturday!!

Bishop McKnight's March prayer intention for our Local Church

For a penitential spirit: that our observance of Lent may open our own hearts to greater sorrow for sins that offend our love of God and neighbor.

Intención del mes de marzo del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local

Por un espíritu de penitencia: que nuestra observancia cuaresmal abra nuestros corazones a un mayor dolor por los pecados que ofenden nuestro amor a Dios y al prójimo.

Question of the Week

First Week of Lent – Luke 4:1-13

Key Passage: Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days to be tempted by the devil... Jesus answered him: 'One does not live on bread alone... You shall worship the Lord your God and Him alone shall you serve... You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Question for adults: Mobility and success is measured differently by the material world. Which side of the scale do you most often find yourself? Why that choice?

Question for children: What keeps you from doing something wrong when no one is looking? Is it hard to make your choice?

Pregunta de la Semana

1° Semana de la Cuaresma-- Lucas 4:1-13

Pasaje Crucial: Jesús, lleno del Espíritu Santo, regresó del Jordán y conducido por el mismo Espíritu, se internó en el desierto, donde permaneció durante cuarenta días y fue tentado por el demonio...Jesús le contestó: "Está escrito: No sólo de pan vive el hombre. Adorarás al Señor, tu Dios, y a él sólo servirás"...No tentarás al Señor, tu Dios".

Pregunta para los adultos: La movilidad y el éxito se miden de manera diferente por el mundo material que por el Señor. ¿Qué lado de la escala te encuentras más a menudo? ¿Por qué esa elección?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Qué te impide hacer algo mal cuando nadie está mirando? ¿Es difícil hacer su elección?

Pope on Women's Day: women build world with peace, love

During a meeting with a delegation of the American Jewish Committee on March 8, Pope Francis recalled women's contribution to peace and love in "making humanity a family". He also spoke about anti-Semitism, indifference and dialogue.

By Robin Gomes, Vatican News, March 8, 2019

(Vatican News) Pope Francis on Friday marked International Women's Day, stressing the "irreplaceable contribution of women in building a world that can be a home for all," through their efforts toward peace and love. "Women make the world beautiful, they protect it and keep it alive." "They bring the grace of renewal, the embrace of inclusion, and the courage to give of oneself," he told some 40 representatives of the American Jewish Committee who met him in the Vatican.

Women – peace, love, family

Speaking about the role of women in "making humanity a family", the Pope said that peace, born of women, "arises and is rekindled by the tenderness of mothers." "Thus the dream of peace becomes a reality when we look towards women." He said they "dream of love into the world". "If we take to heart the importance of the future, if we dream of a future peace, we need to give space to women," the Pope urged.

The Holy Father also spoke to the American Jewish Committee about the commitment of Jews and Christians "to create a homely and familial environment," through respect and appreciation for the religion of others", which he said is "our future."

Anti-Semitism

The Pope expressed great concern over outbreaks of anti-Semitic attacks in various countries and a "climate of wickedness and fury, in which," he said, "an excessive and depraved hatred is taking root." Such a phenomenon, he said, calls for vigilance warning that even the slightest perceptible forms of anti-Semitism can lead to human tragedies such as the Shoah in which two-thirds of European Jewry were annihilated.

The Pope stressed that any anti-semitism on the part of a Christian is a rejection of one's own origins, a complete contradiction. He said, "We must not tire of transmitting to children the foundations of love and respect, and we must look at the world with the eyes of a mother, with the gaze of peace."

An important tool in the fight against hatred and antisemitism, the Pope pointed out, is interreligious dialogue, that aims at promoting a commitment to peace, mutual respect, the protection of life, religious freedom, and the care of creation.

Overcoming indifference

Since Jews and Christians have a common rich spiritual heritage, the Pope said, they can bring about much good together. At a time when the West is exposed to a "depersonalizing secularism", he said, Jews and Christians need to come together and cooperate in making divine love more visible for humanity, and to carry out concrete gestures of closeness to counter the growth of indifference.

Pointing to the indifference of Cain before he killed his brother, Abel, Pope Francis lamented the growing distance today between the many who have little and the few who have much. "We are called to take care of the most vulnerable of our brothers and sisters: the poor, the weak, the sick, children, and the elderly," he urged.

Youth and dialogue

Pope Francis also underscored the involvement of young people in serving humanity, saying they want to dream and are open to discovering new ideals. He called for the formation of future generations in Jewish-Christian dialogue saying it is also an effective means of countering violence and opening new paths of peace with all.
