We lift up to the Lord the seminarians of our diocese, especially Erick Chinchilla; those who have died especially Catherine Mino, Father Ed Doyle and Chess Dunlap, and all our sick, especially Father Charles Pardee, Else Greb, Atong Deng and Gary Drummond.

May the immense mercy of almighty God provide their every need. We pray too, for those who struggle with grief or addictions, those who work for peace, those who feed the world, and those who labor to provide our well being, most especially our first responders and military.

Remember we are to keep the Fridays of Lent meatless, if our health and well-being permit.

Second Sunday of Lent, Year C, Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma, el año C del Evangelio de San Lucas March / Marzo 17, 2019

From Deacon John...

On this second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' desert retreat and temptation by the devil to the glory shown in Jesus' Transfiguration. This Sunday, we always hear the Transfiguration story found in each of the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Luke's story is similar to that found in Matthew and Mark. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is Messiah and Jesus' prediction of his Passion. Next there is a discussion of the cost of discipleship. The placement of the story close to Peter's confession and Jesus' prediction encourages us to examine the Transfiguration in the larger context of the Paschal Mystery.

En este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, pasamos del retiro del desierto de Jesús y la tentación del diablo a la gloria mostrada en la Transfiguración de Jesús. Este domingo, siempre escuchamos la historia de la Transfiguración de Jesús que se encuentra en cada uno de los evangelios sinópticos: Mateo, Marcos y Lucas. La historia de la Transfiguración de Lucas es similar a la que se encuentra tanto en Mateo como en Marcos. La Transfiguración ocurre después de la confesión de Pedro de que Jesús es el Mesías y la predicción de Jesús acerca de su Pasión. Después de la predicción hay una discusión sobre el costo del discipulado. La ubicación de la historia de la Transfiguración cerca de la confesión de Pedro y la predicción de Jesús nos anima a examinar la Transfiguración en el contexto más amplio del Misterio pascual.

March 29: Bishop's Listening Session, 6:30 pm, Immaculate Conception, Macon

Next January, I will make a special trip to Rome, along with other bishops from Missouri. This ad limina visit, about which you can read more in the Catholic Missourian and website, calls for me to present a report. As part of that report, I want to include insights from the people of our Diocese. Please help by bringing your thoughts and ideas to this session.

Bishop McKnight's March prayer intention for our Local Church

For a penitential spirit: that our observance of Lent may open our own hearts to greater sorrow for sins that offend our love of God and neighbor.

Intención del mes de marzo del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por un espíritu de penitencia: que nuestra observancia cuaresmal abra nuestros corazones a un mayor dolor por los pecados que ofenden nuestro amor a Dios y al prójimo.

Question of the Week

Second Week of Lent – Luke 9:28b-36

Key Passage: “Then from the cloud came a voice that said, ‘This is my chosen son; listen to him.’ After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.”

Question for adults: Listening allows you to hear the voice that says, “You are my beloved child, you are special to me. All that is mine is yours.” How do you go from a deaf life to a listening life that you might believe and live the assurance God offers?

Question for children: God made you, so you are special to God. What helps you believe or know that you are so special?

Pregunta de la Semana

2° Semana de la Cuaresma-- Lucas 9:28b-36

Pasaje Crucial: De la nube salió una voz que decía: "Éste es mi Hijo, mi escogido; escúchenlo". Cuando cesó la voz, se quedó Jesús solo.

Pregunta para los adultos: Escuchar te permite escuchar la voz que dice: “Tú eres mi hijo amado, eres especial para mí. Todo lo que es mío es tuyo”. ¿Cómo pasas de una vida sorda a una vida de escucha para que puedas creer y vivir la seguridad que Dios te ofrece?

Pregunta para los niños: Dios te hizo, por lo que eres especial para Dios. ¿Qué te ayuda a creer o saber que eres tan especial?

Pope at Mass: Lent is an opportunity to be simple and true

By Linda Bordonni, Vatican News, March 8, 2019

(Vatican News) Taking his cue from the Book of the prophet Isaiah, Pope Francis condemned all forms of hypocrisy and explained the difference there is between objective and formal reality.

out “blasting their trumpets”; they should address the Father in an intimate manner.

During Jesus’s time, he explained, this was evident in the behavior of the Pharisee and the publican; today Catholics feel they are “just” because they belong to such an “association” or because they go to Mass every Sunday, they feel they are better than others.

“Those who seek appearances never recognize themselves as sinners, and if you say to them: ‘you too are a sinner! We are all sinners’ they become righteous”, the Pope said, and try to show themselves “as a perfect little picture, all appearances”. When there is this difference between reality and appearances, he added, “the Lord uses the adjective: Hypocrite”.

The hypocrisy of everyday life

Each individual is tempted by hypocrisy, Pope Francis said, and the period that leads us to Easter can be an opportunity to recognize our inconsistencies, to identify the layers of

Pope Francis celebrates Mass at the Casa Santa Marta

Formal reality, the Pope said, is an expression of objective reality, but the two must proceed together, or else we end up living an existence of “appearances”, a life “without truth”.

Show joy while doing penance

The simplicity of appearances, he continued, should be rediscovered especially in this Lenten period, as we do fasting, almsgiving and prayer.

Christians, the Pope said, should show joy doing penance. They should be generous with those in need with-(Pope Continued) make-up we may have applied to “hide reality”.

“Young people”, he said, “are not impressed by those who put on appearances and then do not behave accordingly, especially when this hypocrisy is worn by whom he described as “religion professionals”. The Lord, he said, asks for coherence.

“Many Christians, even Catholics, who call themselves practicing Catholics, exploit people!” he said. So often, the Pope continued, they humiliate and exploit their workers sending them home at the beginning of summer and taking them back at the end so they are not entitled to a pension. “Many of them call themselves Catholics, they go to Mass on Sundays... but this is what they do”. This kind of behavior, he said, is a mortal sin!

A simple soul

The Pope concluded his homily inviting the faithful to rediscover the beauty of simplicity, of reality that “must be one with appearance” during this time of Lent.

“Ask the Lord for strength and go forward with humility, doing what you can. But don't put make-up on your soul, because the Lord won't recognize you. Let us ask the Lord for the grace to be consistent, not to be vain, not to want to appear more worthy than we are. Let us ask for this grace, during this Lent: the coherence between formality and the reality, between who we are and how we want to appear”.
