Easter Sunday of Lent, Year C, Domingo de Pascua, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas April / Abril 21, 2019

From Deacon John...

Each of the four Gospels reports the discovery of the empty tomb. At the Easter Vigil we read from one of the Synoptic Gospels. This year we read from the Gospel of Luke. On Easter Sunday, the reading is always taken from the Gospel of John. In each of the four Gospels, we learn that it was the female followers of Jesus who first went to the tomb. Luke reports that the women go to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body naming three women who found the tomb empty: Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary, the mother of James. These women who had probably served Jesus in many ways during his journeys, remained present with Jesus on his way to the crucifixion site and witnessed his death.

Cada uno de los cuatro evangelios informa el descubrimiento de la tumba vacía. En la Vigilia de Pascua leemos uno de los evangelios sinópticos. Este año leemos del Evangelio de Lucas. El domingo de Pascua, la lectura siempre se toma del Evangelio de Juan. En cada uno de los cuatro evangelios, aprendemos que fueron las seguidoras femeninas de Jesús quienes primero fueron a la tumba. Lucas informa que las mujeres van a la tumba para ungir el cuerpo de Jesús y nombran a tres mujeres que encontraron la tumba vacía: María Magdalena, Joanna y María, la madre de Santiago. Estas mujeres que probablemente habían servido a Jesús de muchas maneras durante sus viajes, permanecieron presentes con Jesús en su camino al lugar de la crucifixión y fueron testigos de su muerte.

April 21: "He is not here, He is risen!" Easter Sunday, Resurrection of the Lord.

May this celebration of joy, hope and new life which we experience in this holy season bring you and your family every blessing! A sincere thank you goes to all those who served so faithfully, especially those behind the scenes, to make the liturgies of this Holy Week so sacred and beautiful.

¡Que esta celebración de alegría, esperanza y nueva vida que experimentamos en esta temporada santa les traiga a usted y a su familia cada bendición! Un sincero agradecimiento a todos aquellos que sirvieron tan fielmente, especialmente a los que están detrás de la escena, para que las liturgias de esta Semana Santa sean tan sagradas y hermosas.

Again, may this be a blessed and happy Easter for all, Father Pat and Deacon John.

April 28: Mass with the Bishop and Confirmation, 2:00 pm.

On Sunday, April 28 at 2:00 pm, Bishop W. Shawn McKnight with confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 14 of our parish youth. All are invited to join in this event and the reception immediately following.

April 28: National Collection for Home Missions.

We will be participating in a national collection for our Home Missions. The Appeal funds grants to home mission dioceses — dioceses and eparchies in the United States unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship, and service without outside help. People across the United States long to grow closer to Christ but too many cannot access even basic pastoral programs. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal helps dioceses, including our own, overcome obstacles of geography, poverty, and limited resources, and fosters solidarity to help others experience the presence of the risen Lord.

Bishop McKnight's April prayer intention for our Local Church

For a more welcoming and hospitable environment in the Catholic communities of our parishes, schools and hospitals; that the Kingdom of Heaven may be experienced here on earth in our works of charity and mercy.

Intención del mes de abril del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local

Por un ambiente de más bienvenida y hospitalidad en las comunidades católicas de nuestras parroquias, escuelas y hospitales; que el Reino de los Cielos pueda experimentarse aquí en la tierra en nuestros actos de caridad y misericordia.

Question of the Week

Easter Sunday – John 20:1-9

Key Passage: Mary of Magdala came to the tomb...and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved and told them: "They have taken the Lord from the tomb and we don't know where they put him."... Simon Peter went into the tomb...and the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived first and he saw and believed.

Question for adults:

What is your understanding of the empty tomb? What do you believe?

Question for children:

What is the meaning of Easter?

Pregunta de la Semana

Domingo de Pascua-- Juan 20:1-9

Pasaje Crucial: El primer día después del sábado, estando todavía oscuro, fue María Magdalena al sepulcro y vio removida la piedra que lo cerraba. Echó a correr, llegó a la casa donde estaban Simón Pedro y el otro discípulo, a quien Jesús amaba, y les dijo: "Se han llevado del sepulcro al Señor y no sabemos dónde lo habrán puesto". En eso llegó también Simón Pedro, que lo venía siguiendo, y entró en el sepulcro. Entonces entró también el otro discípulo, el que había llegado primero al sepulcro, y vio y creyó.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Cuál es tu comprensión de la tumba vacía?
¿Qué crees?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cuál es el significado de la Pascua?

Pope at General Audience: Glorifying and trusting in the Father amid trials

By Robin Gomes, Vatican News, April 17, 2019

(Vatican News) In his General Audience, Pope Francis delivered a catechesis on the “Our Father”, focusing on the Lord’s Prayer in the light of the Holy Week, when Catholics around the world commemorate the solemn mysteries of the passion, death and glorious resurrection of Jesus. He picked out three prayers of Jesus to the Father during His passion.

Selfless glory

The first invocation is from the Last Supper, when the Lord, “raised His eyes to heaven and said: ‘Father, the hour has come: glorify your Son’ - and then – ‘glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began’” (John 17.1-5).

The Pope pointed to the paradox of Jesus’s prayer, asking for glory when His “passion is at the gates”. He explained that this Biblical glory is the revelation of God, the distinctive and definitive manifestation of His presence and salvation among men. And Jesus is this manifestation, which He does at Easter, glorified as He is lifted up on the cross.

Thus God reveals His glory, removing the last veil and surprising us as never before. We discover that the glory of God is all love: pure, unbridled and unthinkable love, beyond all limits and measures.

The Pope urged Christians to pray like Jesus asking the Father that they be able to accept that “God is love”. Many times, he said, we imagine God as master and not as Father, a severe judge and not as a merciful Saviour.

At Easter, the Pope said, God closes distances, revealing Himself in the humility of a love that demands our love. And when we live everything with love and from the heart, we give Him glory, because “true glory is the glory of love”. Only love gives life to the world.

The Pope pointed out that this glory is the opposite of worldly glory, in which one is admired, praised, acclaimed and becomes the centre of attention. Paradoxically, God’s glory is without applause, without an audience.

At Easter, the Pope said, we see the Father glorifying the Son and the Son glorifying the Father – none of them glorifies Himself. The Pope asked Christians to examine themselves whether they live God’s or their glory; whether they want to receive or also give.

Invoking “Abba” amid trials

The Pope then spoke about Jesus’ prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane after His Last Supper. While His disciples are asleep and Judas is coming with the soldiers, Jesus feels the “fear and anguish” of the betrayal, contempt, suffering and failure that await Him. In the abyss of his sadness and desolation, He addresses the Father with the “most tender and sweet word: ‘Abba’”, that is, Father.

In His trials, Jesus teaches us to embrace the Father in prayer to find the needed strength to endure pain.

(Trials continued) “Amidst trials,” the Pope said, “prayer brings relief, trust and comfort.” In His abandonment and interior desolation, Jesus is not alone, He is with the Father.

On the other hand, in “our Gethsemane” we often choose to remain alone instead of crying out to the “Father” and entrusting ourselves to Him. By remaining closed in ourselves we dig a tunnel within, a painful introverted path that only goes deeper and deeper into ourselves.

The Pope noted that our biggest problem is not pain, but how to deal with it. He said it is prayer and not solitude that offers a way out because prayer is relationship and trust. Jesus entrusts everything to the Father, bringing Him His feelings and counting on Him totally in His struggle. Recalling that each of us has his or her own Gethsemane, he urged Christians to pray to the Father.

Forgiveness

Finally, the Holy Father drew attention to the third prayer of Jesus: “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they are doing.” (Luke 23,34). At the moment of His crucifixion, Jesus prays for those who were wicked to Him and His killers. It is at that moment of most acute pain, when His wrists and feet are pierced with nails and when pain reaches its peak, love reaches its climax. Forgiveness, the gift of immense power, then arrives breaking the circle of evil.

In conclusion, the Holy Father exhorted Christians to pray for the grace to live their days with love for the glory of God; to know how to entrust ourselves to the Father amid trials calling him “Father”, and in encountering Him to find forgiveness and the courage to forgive. “The Father forgives us and He gives us the courage to be able to forgive,” the Pope added.
