

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me, says the Lord; blessed are they who have not seen me, but still believe.

Cristo, Tomás, tú crees, porque me has visto. Dichosos los que creen sin haberme visto, dice el Señor.

Second Sunday of Easter, Year C, Segundo Domingo de Pascua, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas April / Abril 28, 2019

From Deacon John...

Thomas, the disciple who initially has doubts, represents what is reality for the entire faith community that comes after these first disciples. All but these first few must believe without seeing. Like Thomas, some people may at times in life, doubt the news that Jesus, who was crucified and buried, appeared to his disciples. It is part of our human nature to seek hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death is, indeed, the same Jesus who was crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to be our representative who obtains this evidence. He gives witness to us that the Jesus who was raised is the same Jesus who had died. Through the gift of the Holy Spirit, we are among those who are blessed for we have not seen and yet have believed.

Tomás, el discípulo que inicialmente tiene dudas, representa lo que es realidad para toda la comunidad de fe que viene después de estos primeros discípulos. Todos menos estos primeros pocos deben creer sin ver. Como Tomás, algunas personas pueden a veces en la vida, dudar de la noticia de que Jesús, quien fue crucificado y enterrado, se apareció a sus discípulos. Es parte de nuestra naturaleza humana buscar pruebas sólidas de que el Jesús que se apareció a los discípulos después de su muerte es, de hecho, el mismo Jesús que fue crucificado. Thomas tiene la oportunidad de ser nuestro representante que obtiene esta evidencia. Él nos da testimonio de que el Jesús que resucitó es el mismo Jesús que murió. A través del don del Espíritu Santo, estamos entre aquellos que han sido bendecidos porque no hemos visto y hemos creído.

Easter Octave, April 21-28: "He is risen!" Resurrection of the Lord.

May this Easter joy, hope and new life which we experience in this holy season bring you and your family every blessing! A sincere thank you goes to all those who minister so faithfully, especially those who serve unseen, to make the liturgies of this holy season so sacred and beautiful.

¡Que esta alegría, esperanza y nueva vida de Pascua que experimentamos en esta temporada santa les traiga a usted y a su familia todas las bendiciones! Un sincero agradecimiento a todos aquellos que ministran con tanta fidelidad, especialmente a aquellos que sirven sin ser vistos, para que las liturgias de esta temporada sagrada sean tan sagradas y hermosas.

Today, April 28: Holy Mass with the Bishop and Confirmation, 2:00 pm.

Today, April 28 at 2:00 pm, Bishop W. Shawn McKnight with confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 14 of our parish youth. All are invited to join in this celebration and the reception immediately following.

Today, April 28: National Collection for Home Missions.

We will participate as a parish, in a national collection for our Home Missions. The Appeal funds grants to home mission dioceses — dioceses and eparchies in the United States unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship, and service without outside help. People across the United States long to grow closer to Christ but too many cannot access even basic pastoral programs. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal helps dioceses, including our own, overcome obstacles of geography, poverty, and limited resources, and fosters solidarity to help others experience the presence of the risen Lord.

May 8: St. Mary sponsored Red Cross Blood Drive, Community Center, 1-6 pm.

Bishop McKnight's April prayer intention for our Local Church

For a more welcoming and hospitable environment in the Catholic communities of our parishes, schools and hospitals; that the Kingdom of Heaven may be experienced here on earth in our works of charity and mercy.

Intención del mes de abril del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por un ambiente de más bienvenida y hospitalidad en las comunidades católicas de nuestras parroquias, escuelas y hospitales; que el Reino de los Cielos pueda experimentarse aquí en la tierra en nuestros actos de caridad y misericordia.

India's Latin-rite Church dedicates Divine Mercy Sunday to Sri Lanka bomb victims

By Robin Gomes, Vatican News, April 24, 2019

(Vatican News) India's Latin-rite Church has pledged its closeness and solidarity with the victims of the terrorist bomb attacks in Sri Lanka on Sunday, dedicating Divine Mercy Sunday on April 28 as a day of prayer and solidarity with the Church and people of the island nation.

Archbishop Felipe Neri Ferrao of Goa and Daman, the president of the Shrine in Colombo and St. Sebastian's Church in Negombo. Another blast at the Evangelical Zion Church in the eastern coastal city of Batticaloa also claimed numerous lives.

On Wednesday, 3 days after the attacks in Sri Lanka, the death toll climbed to 359 with more than 500 injured.

Archbishop Ferrao urged that dur-

Conference of Catholic Bishops of India (CCBI), that comprises the country's Latin-rite bishops, released a statement on Wednesday, inviting CCBI member dioceses and the major superiors of religious congregations to join the initiative.

A string of suicide bomb attacks hit three churches during Easter Sunday morning service in Sri Lanka. Three luxury hotels packed with tourists were also attacked.

Two of the places of worship were Catholic churches: St. Anthony's ing the Eucharistic celebrations on Divine Mercy Sunday, special prayers of the faithful be added for the departed souls, the injured and the affected families, "who are plunged in grief and pain due to these senseless attacks."

He particularly urged that the faithful spend some time in "prayer before the Eucharistic Risen Lord, so that the country of Sri Lanka may experience healing and receive the gift of peace."

Archbishop Ferrao suggested that,

(Victims continued...) wherever possible, "a candle-light procession be organized, to draw the attention of our people to the gruesome tragedy that occurred in our neighboring country and to invite them to pray with us for peace and harmony throughout the world."

Asia Churches' solidarity

The Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC) and the Catholic Bishops' Conference of India have separately sent messages to the Church in Sri Lanka expressing their solidarity. Meanwhile, the Catholic Bishops' Conference of Sri Lanka (CBCSL) is urging the people to stay calm and act with prudence and restraint. It also demanded from the government security for the people and called for an immediate inquiry.

While the government blamed the Islamist group National Thowheed Jamath (NTJ) for the suicide bombings, the Islamic State group on Tuesday claimed responsibility.

Government's failure

Sri Lanka's government has acknowledged it received warnings of impending terrorist attacks on churches. Sri Lankan president Maithripala Sirisena has asked for the resignations of the defense secretary and the national police chief after security forces failed to act on warnings ahead of Easter Sunday.

The number of suspects arrested so far has risen to 60. Further details have emerged regarding the attackers.

Police have been able to identify 8 out of 9 attackers - one of whom was a woman - with no foreigners among them.

Most of the attackers were "well educated" and "middle class", and one of them studied in the UK and in Australia before returning to Sri Lanka.
