Pentecost Sunday, Year C, Domingo de Pentecostés, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas June / Junio 9, 2019

From Deacon John...

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On this Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning, the birthday of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

La temporada de Pascua concluye con la celebración de hoy, la fiesta de Pentecostés. En este Pentecostés celebramos el descenso del Espíritu Santo sobre los apóstoles reunidos en el aposento alto en Jerusalén; Este evento marca el comienzo, el cumpleaños de la Iglesia. La historia de Pentecostés se encuentra en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, la primera lectura de hoy. El relato en el Evangelio de hoy, tomado del Evangelio de Juan, también relata cómo Jesús dio el don del Espíritu Santo a sus discípulos. No es necesario tratar de conciliar estas dos cuentas entre sí. Basta con saber que, después de su muerte, Jesús cumplió su promesa de enviar a sus discípulos un ayudante, un defensor, que les permitiría ser sus testigos en todo el mundo.

Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri, an agency of our Diocese, is working with other agencies to ensure a coordinated and integrated network of support is provided to those affected by the recent storms and flooding. They are in need of volunteers to assist with making outreach phone calls to those households who are seeking assistance, creating case files, and providing referrals for immediate needs. Catholic Charities will provide full training and materials. Please contact Alissa Marlow, Director of Community Services for Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri, at 573-635-7719 or amarlow@ccnmo.org.

As was done in response to the 2017 floods, Catholic Charities is putting in place a process to assist those who have a very fragile safety net: people without insurance, who are not homeowners, on limited income, with disabilities, or whose livelihood has been impacted by the natural disaster. If you are interested in assisting in this effort, please consider donating to Catholic Charities' Disaster Relief Fund. Every dollar will be used for direct assistance of people affected by the flooding and tornadoes. Donations may be made at diojeffcity.org and ccnmo.org.

We continue to pray for all who are affected, both by the tornadoes that hit Cole, Hickory, Miller and Randolph counties, and the ongoing flooding of major rivers in our Diocese. Counties severely impacted by that flooding include Boone, Callaway, Camden, Chariton, Clark, Cole, Gasconade, Howard, Lewis, Linn, Maries, Marion, Miller, Moniteau, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Osage, Pettis, Phelps, Perry, Pike, Ralls, Randolph and Saline. Every corner of our diocese has suffered loss in some manner by this extraordinary weather and rainfall.

Please continue to monitor our social media and website for ways to provide assistance to our neighbors. We are better together!

Bishop McKnight's June prayer intention for our Local Church

For those with summer vacations and family gatherings; that the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary may guide and protect our families as we experience the beauty of creation, the love of family and friends, and the opportunity to renew and refresh our minds, bodies and spirits.

Intención del mes de junio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por todos aquellos en vacaciones de verano y reuniones familiares. Que el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y el Inmaculado Corazón de María guíe y proteja a nuestras familias al disfrutar de la belleza de la creación, el amor de la familia y los amigos y la oportunidad para renovar y refrescar nuestras mentes, cuerpos y espíritus.

Question of the Week

Pentecost Sunday – John 20:19-23

Key Passage: The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them and whose sins you retain are retained."

Question for adults: What natural gifts have you been given through which the Holy Spirit can work?

Question for children: What are you good at and how do you use that for Jesus?

Pregunta de la Semana

Domingo de Pentecostés-- Juan 20:19-23

Pasaje Crucial: Cuando los discípulos vieron al Señor, se llenaron de alegría. De nuevo les dijo Jesús: "La paz esté con ustedes. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo". Después de decir esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: "Reciban el Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados; y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Qué dones naturales has recibido a través de los cuales el Espíritu Santo puede obrar?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿En qué eres bueno y cómo lo usas para Jesús?

In recalling soldiers' D-Day sacrifice, archbishop prays for world peace

By Elizabeth Bachmann, Catholic News Service, June 6, 2019

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) In remembering the estimated 4,400 Allied troops who died storming the beaches of Normandy, France, 75 years ago on

“We ask God that their sacrifice not be in vain,” Broglio said. “We beg him to transform our power to turn war into a force for peace, to trans-

A U.S. Army soldier collects sand June 3, 2019, at Omaha Beach on the Normandy coast in France ahead of the 75th anniversary of D-Day June 6. Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio of the U.S. Archdiocese for the Military Services is urging Catholics to pause in prayer and to remember and “give thanks for those who 75 years ago made the ultimate sacrifice” in the Allied invasion of Normandy during World War II. (Credit: Pascal Rossignol/Reuters via CNS.)

D-Day, Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio of the U.S. Archdiocese for the Military Services said that “Jesus Christ reminds us there is no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”

“At this time, in particular, we express deep gratitude for those who laid down their lives on D-Day,” he said in a statement June 4.

Broglio planned to travel again to France for the 75th anniversary of the Normandy invasion to commemorate and give thanks for the lives lost on the beaches of Normandy, in Europe and in the Pacific. The German casualties on D-Day were between 4,000 and 9,000.

form our weapons into plowshares, to give us the ability to negotiate, to talk and to listen.”

In 2015, he journeyed to Normandy to commemorate the sad day and to help dedicate a monument on Utah Beach depicting three American GIs emerging from a Higgins boat. The Higgins boat was designed by Andrew Jackson Higgins to facilitate easy landing on beaches and in marshes, and was used extensively in the D-Day operations.

The archbishop remembered the boat’s designers, those who “labored with vision to accomplish a goal, the liberation of peoples, their brothers and sisters in human society.”

While in Normandy, Broglio also attended a commemoration for fallen Danish troops and celebrated Mass on the feast of Corpus Christi, during which he prayed for world peace.

At that time, he said he “was struck by the number of French men and women who came up to me and said: ‘We will never forget what your countrymen did here.’”

Broglio reminded the nation, too, to remember the sacrifices of American servicemen, as well as those of every soldier and civilian who lost life or loved ones.

For this year’s commemoration, Broglio prayed that Catholics and all Americans will “remain vigilant against the forces of evil in our troubled world, and to pour our energies into building lasting peace and justice among nations.”
