We give thanks to God for the gift of Fathers. We also lift up to the Lord those who have died, especially Father Charles Pardee, Celida Pacheco and Hector Camacho, and all our sick, especially Connie Mayer and Marge Swarengen. May the immense mercy of almighty God provide their every need. We pray for those who struggle with grief or addictions, those who feed the world, and those who labor to provide our well being and safety, most especially our first responders and military.

Trinity Sunday, Week Eleven, Year C, La Santísima Trinidad, el año C del evangelio de San Lucas June / Junio 16, 2019

From Deacon John...

We return to the season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next call special attention to mysteries of faith. Today, we celebrate the Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider God one God in three persons. The Gospel today is from Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper where he focuses on his victory over the world that the disciples will share in. The disciples cannot know the future. They can know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. The Spirit of Truth, will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus. The idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

Volvemos a la temporada del Tiempo Ordinario. Este domingo y el próximo llaman especial atención a los misterios de la fe. Hoy celebramos la Santísima Trinidad. Esta fiesta nos invita a considerar a Dios un Dios en tres personas. El evangelio de hoy es el largo discurso de Jesús en la última cena, donde se enfoca en su victoria sobre el mundo en la que los discípulos compartirán. Los discípulos no pueden conocer el futuro. Pueden saber que, sea cual sea la forma que tome el futuro, no tendrán que enfrentarlo solo. El Espíritu de la Verdad, continuará proporcionando la enseñanza de Jesús. La idea de un Dios en tres personas sigue siendo un misterio, tenemos la seguridad de que, como Jesús y el Padre lo comparten todo, Jesús y el Espíritu lo comparten todo.

Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri, an agency of our Diocese, is working with other agencies to ensure a coordinated and integrated network of support is provided to those affected by the recent storms and flooding. They are in need of volunteers to assist with making outreach phone calls to those households who are seeking assistance, creating case files, and providing referrals for immediate needs. Catholic Charities will provide full training and materials. Please contact Alissa Marlow, Director of Community Services for Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri, at 573-635-7719 or amarlow@cccnmo.org.

As was done in response to the 2017 floods, Catholic Charities is putting in place a process to assist those who have a very fragile safety net: people without insurance, who are not homeowners, on limited income, with disabilities, or whose livelihood has been impacted by the natural disaster. If you are interested in assisting in this effort, please consider donating to Catholic Charities' Disaster Relief Fund. Every dollar will be used for direct assistance of people affected by the flooding and tornadoes. Donations may be made at diojeffcity.org and cccnmo.org.

We continue to pray for all who are affected, both by the tornadoes that hit Cole, Hickory, Miller and Randolph counties, and the ongoing flooding of major rivers in our Diocese. Counties severely impacted by that flooding include Boone, Callaway, Camden, Chariton, Clark, Cole, Gasconade, Howard, Lewis, Linn, Maries, Marion, Miller, Moniteau, Monroe, Montgomery, Morgan, Osage, Pettis, Phelps, Perry, Pike, Ralls, Randolph and Saline. Every corner of our diocese has suffered loss in some manner by this extraordinary weather and rainfall.

Please continue to monitor our social media and website for ways to provide assistance to our neighbors. We are better together!

Bishop McKnight's June prayer intention for our Local Church

For those with summer vacations and family gatherings; that the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary may guide and protect our families as we experience the beauty of creation, the love of family and friends, and the opportunity to renew and refresh our minds, bodies and spirits.

Intención del mes de junio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por todos aquellos en vacaciones de verano y reuniones familiares. Que el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y el Inmaculado Corazón de María guíe y proteja a nuestras familias al disfrutar de la belleza de la creación, el amor de la familia y los amigos y la oportunidad para renovar y refrescar nuestras mentes, cuerpos y espíritus.

Question of the Week

Holy Trinity – John 16:12-15

Key Passage: Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. "Everything that the Father has is mine, for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Question for adults: What are some significant things about God you do not yet understand? Is that troublesome for you?

Question for children: What is the Trinity?

Pregunta de la Semana

La Santísima Trinidad-- Juan 16:12-15

Pasaje Crucial: Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: "Aún tengo muchas cosas que decirles, pero todavía no las pueden comprender. Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de la verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder. Todo lo que tiene el Padre es mío. Por eso he dicho que tomará de lo mío y se lo comunicará a ustedes".

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuáles son algunas cosas importantes acerca de Dios que aún no entiendes? ¿Eso es molesto para ti?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Qué es la Trinidad?

Pope declares heroic virtue of eight prospective saints

By Editor, Vatican News Service, June 12, 2019

(THE VATICAN) Pope Francis declared the heroic virtue of eight prospective saints. The decrees advance the causes of the following eight individuals on their path to eventual sainthood by declaring:

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Felice Tantardini, Brother of the Pontifical Institute for Foreign Missions; born in Introbio (Italy) on June 28, 1898 and died in Taunggy (Myanmar) on March 23, 1991;

Father Augustus Tolton, a US slave who became the first African-American to become a Catholic priest, served for a time in what is now the Diocese of Jefferson City. He died in 1897. Pope Francis made Father Augustus Tolton "Venerable" within the church, in a Vatican announcement on Wednesday.

The martyrdom of the Servants of God Pilar Gullón Yturriaga and 2 Lay Companions, killed in odium fidei (in hatred of the Faith) in Pola de Somiedo (Spain) on October 28, 1936;

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Augustine Tolton, Diocesan Priest; born in Brush Creek (United States of America) on April 1, 1854 and died in Chicago (United States of America) on July 9, 1897;

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Enzo Boschetti, Diocesan Priest; born in Costa de' Nobili (Italy) on November 19, 1929 and died in Valcamonica on February 15, 1993;

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Giovanni Nadiani, a lay convert of the Congregation of the Presbyters of the Most Holy Sacrament; born in Santa Maria Nuova (Italy) on February 20, 1885 and died in Bergamo (Italy) on January 6, 1940;

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Rosario of the Visitation (born: Maria Beatrice Rosario Arroyo), Founder of the Congregation of the Dominican Sisters of the Holy Rosary; born in Molo (Philippines) on February 17, 1884 and died there June 14, 1957;

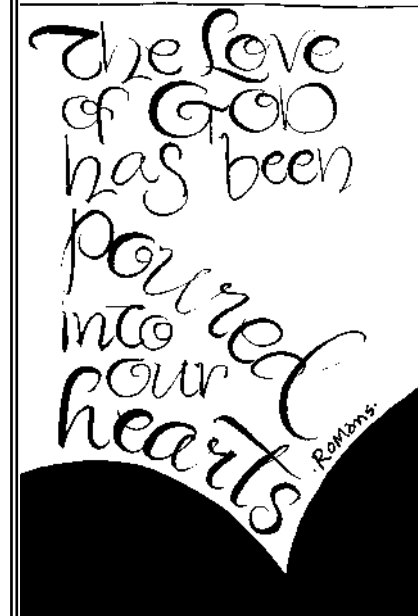

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Maria Paola Muzzeddu,

Pope Francis receives in audience Cardinal Angelo Becciu, Prefect of the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, and authorizes the promulgation of decrees regarding eight causes for canonization.

Founder of the Society of the Daughters of the Most Pure Mother; born in Aggus (Italy) on February 26, 1913 and died there on August 12, 1971;

The heroic virtues of the Servant of God Maria Santina Collani, professed Sister of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy; born in Isorella (Italy) on March 2, 1914 and died in Borgo d'Ale (Italy) on December 22, 1956.
